Glenwood and vicinity

A wedding of more than usual interest took place at the home of the bride's parents at Glenwood, Lot 8, when Maud Irving, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gorrill, was united in marriage to John Ralph McIsaac of the same place, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Loring of the United Church.

The bride looked very winsome in a dress of white crepe de chene, with conventional veil and wreath of orange blossoms. The young couple were unattended and the bride was given in marriage by her father. The wedding march was played by Miss Kristine Kennedy of O'Leary.

About fifty guests were present, including relatives of bride and groom and a few intimate friends. Among those from other sections of the country were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dunbar of Alma, Lot 3, Miss Verna Frizzell, Teacher at Springfield West, Miss Pearl Oulton and Mr. Roy Oulton, Bras Harbor.

After the wedding ceremony supper was served in Mrs. Gorrill's usual good style. Then the young folks of the community arrived and gave the young couple a lively serenade.

The many gifts which were bestowed on them testify to the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. McIsaac are held by their many friends, who wish them a long and happy wedded life in their new home in Glenwood.

Some of them who were young men in their early twenties when Mr. Hart came to that place at the age of forty-eight (fifty-one years ago) are now comparatively old men. Mr. Hart is in full possession of all his faculties, his memory being particularly keen. He is still hale and hearty and seldom even slightly indisposed.

At this date last year almost every farmer in this vicinity had secured a supply of fertilizer and prospects for the potato grower looked bright. This year owing to the complete failure of the potato market no fertilizer has yet been purchased in this section, and it is certain that there will be a considerable decrease in the acreage of potatoes planted.

New Annan And Vicinity

The March wind blows a winter blast, But never mind 'twill soon be past.

Friends and neighbors are pleased to hear that Mr. T. F. Humphrey, Wilmot Valley, is recovering from his recent illness.

Mr. Elmer Waugh, Wilmot Valley, made a business trip to Freetown Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Isabelle Moase is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Carrie Haywood, Howlan.

The Wilmot Valley B. W. M. S. held a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Waugh, Tuesday evening, 12th inst. Despite the poor condition of the roads, quite a number assembled and spent the evening with music and various other amusements. A bountiful lunch was served by the ladies of the B. W. M. S. and a collection followed amounting to a goodly sum. A vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess after which the merry bunch dispersed to their respective homes.

The funeral of the late Mr. Gordon McQuarrie was held with a short service from his late residence at Summerside followed by a service at the Baptist Church Thursday afternoon, 14th inst. Rev. Adams, his pastor, assisted by Rev. Nicholson, pastor United Church North Bedeque, officiating. A very large crowd of relatives and friends assembled to do honour to one whom they had always respected and loved. The deceased was very popularly known as he was a skilful, obliging carpenter as well as a beloved and kind friend. His loss is irreparable in the home where he leaves a sorrowing widow, two daughters and one son, Misses Lena, Marion and Master Ralph to mourn the loss of a loving husband and devoted father. He also leaves an aged father, one sister and two brothers besides a large number of other relatives and friends.

The large and commodious residence of Mr. Gordon Huestis, Wilmot Valley, was burned to the ground Wednesday morning, 13th inst., origin of which is unknown. The members of the family were up and doing at quite an early hour, two of the men engaged in hauling potatoes to the station while another member had gone to Freetown. At about nine o'clock the fire was discovered in the attic. It was then decided useless to try to save the house and the members of the family together with friends and neighbors who quickly assembled managed to save all the contents even the doors. This tragic event is quite a decided loss to Mr. Huestis and he has the deepest sympathy of his many friends in this as well as surrounding vicinities.

Her friends wish her every success in her new line of activity.
