Roy Volo Wins At Chatham

CHATHAM, N. B., Aug. 19.—Two races on the card at today's meet went extra heats. In the 2.19 trot and pace, Perfection took the first heat but Peter Verde won the next in a drive and also won the other two. High Knob Beauty, owned and driven by S. E. Rice, of St. John, took the first heat of the Free-for-All, through he had to be driven out to win over Roy Volo. Lint's horse was too good, however and captured the three other.

Men and Women
We were talking, Jean and I, of the little differences between women and men. Not the great things like character and conduct but just ways of doing things.

WAYS OF THE MALE
So of course the buttonholes had to be closed up as far as that side was concerned, and the buttons put where the holes had been. It was the first time either Jean or I had actively realised that the little ways of the male are different.

A WOMAN AND A PENCIL
All men can sharpen pencils few women can. Almost all men can mend things like door locks and put washers on the water taps and lay linoleum and drive nails and tie knots. But only a man brought up as a tailor can sew on a button.

A MAN AND HIS SLIPPERS
Men wear shabby slippers and ancient clothes with joy. They regard new clothes as a necessary evil. Whereas women—

CHILDREN WHO ARE OVER-WEIGHT

Overweight children more than 15 per cent above average are apt to be indolent in their habits, to get too little exercise and to eat too much, especially of fattening foods, such as milk, cereals, potatoes, bread and butter and sweets. Both their school work and their general health are improved by a reduction in their weight.
