In Memoriam

MRS. A. R. MCKAY

At the age of sixty-six years there passed peacefully away at East Royalty on February 4th, 1929, Mary McQuarrie, beloved wife of A. R. McKay. Although not in the best of health for some time she was able to attend to her household duties until about five months ago when she gradually grew worse until the end came.

Mr. John Walker of Kensington was a recent visitor to Darnley. Chicken pox has visited Darnley and Hamilton and many of our young friends have become victims of it.

Mrs. Fitzgerald of Charlottetown was a recent visitor to her brother: Louis Wiggins, Darnley. (M.)

Happenings Of The Week

The portrait of Miss Violet Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Richardson of Summerside was prominently displayed this week in an issue of the Halifax Evening Mail. Beneath the photograph it is explained that Miss Richardson is the newly-elected president of the House Citizenship Club of the Halifax Ladies College and being a gifted student of expression, in her second year, she is doing much to develop and maintain the esprit de corps of the club, which abundantly justifies its existence.

Sheer chiffon stockings in dark beige, tan and a sun-tan tone are to be worn with frocks of the new gay prints fabrics, which have touches of red, orange, beige, brown or any other allied colors, while for wear with the tailored costumes the dark brown tones are most appropriate, their very sheerness taking away any impression of heaviness or too sombre appearance.

The following letter was sent to Lady-in-Waiting of Her Majesty the Queen, in connection with a Christmas card sent to Mrs. Hearz, wife of Lieutenant-Governor Hearz:

They are, in common with every person in this province, to learn that His Majesty is now on the road to recovery.

Our people were troubled to the utmost degree during the dark days of the past six weeks. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor received copies of all bulletins from Buckingham Palace, through His Excellency the Governor General, very shortly after they were issued, and had them published immediately. The feeling of sorrow was intense and the relief is great now that the worst seems to be past.

I have the honor to be, Madam, Your Obedient Servant, (Sgd.) H. DORIS GILL, Social Secretary, Government House, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

The Lady-in-Waiting, To Her Majesty the Queen, Buckingham Palace, London, Eng.

The reply read as follows: Buckingham Palace, Jan. 7th, 1929

The Lady-in-Waiting is commanded by the Queen to thank Miss Gill for so kindly sending on the messages and good wishes of Mrs. Hearz, and the members of the Guild to Her Majesty, which she very much appreciates.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

In the passing of Mrs. MacKay on January 2nd in the prime of womanhood, Brackley community has sustained the loss of a good and noble woman; beloved by all with whom she came in contact. Her genial, sunny disposition made her a great favorite and loving friend. It was always a pleasure to work side by side with our dear departed friend.

Especially in the church where she loved to labor, both as a leader in Young Peoples Work and as an officer in the W. M. S. she will be greatly missed for her work was always well and faithfully done.

But it is in the home circle that her absence is most keenly felt by a sorrowing husband and two children.

As we bow to the unerring wisdom of a loving Heavenly Father in our severe loss, we cannot but feel that to our dear sister it meant an abundant entrance into her Master's presence and promotion to higher service unhindered by sickness and death.

To the bereaved family we offer our deepest sympathy and our fervent prayer that the All Wise God will surround them with His comfort and to support us as He only can. The passing of such a life ought to be a challenge to us all to live nobly so that when our turn comes we too may hear the "Well done" accorded our beloved sister whose life was such an inspiration during the five years spent in Brackley.

The funeral was very large and the floral tributes beautiful, testifying to the loving esteem in which she was held. Signed on behalf W. M. S. of Brackley.

MALPEQUE

Mr James Donald has returned home after a pleasant visit to his sister Mrs. Nelson Ramsay Alberton.

Mrs. Herbert and Mrs. Edward MacEwen are welcome guests at Mrs. Duncan MacGougan.

Mrs. Wm. Mill and daughter are visiting at the home of their aunt Miss Flora MacGougan.

Mrs. Frank Bagnall, Hunter River is spending a few days the guest of her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. James Burns.

Mr. Frank Bearisto spent the week end in Charlottetown the guest of his brother Mr. Walter Bearisto.

Mr. Lee Bearisto son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bearisto of this place is taking a business course in Charlottetown.

Rev. Andrew Thomson left on Wednesday morning for Charlottetown where he will be in attendance at the Presbytery of the United Church.

Miss Grace Riley, Baltic has returned from a very pleasant visit to relatives in Boston and other parts of Mass.; also in Maine where she was the guest of her aunt Mrs. George Huntley.

Miss Elizabeth Adams, Wilmot, is spending a pleasant holiday among friends in Hamilton, Baltic and Sea View.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simmons and Miss Lois Simmons, Charlottetown are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Crozier, Baltic.

Messrs Thomas MacNutt, Hume Hoggood and Sinclair MacGougan were in attendance at the funeral of the Hon. John H. Bell.

Mrs. Hazel Hoggood was a visitor to Summerside on Friday afternoon.

They were pleased and relieved near. Services were conducted by Rev. W. B. Muir of St. James Presbyterian Church of which she was a valued member for many years.

There are left to mourn besides her husband one son Frank and one daughter, Gussie at home, (one son Gordon and one daughter, Mrs. G. H. Love having predeceased her), also two sisters, Mrs. Harry Force, Vancouver, Mrs. D. H. Cameron, Pictou and four grandchildren.

The beautiful flowers which covered the casket spoke of the high esteem in which she was held: Pillow—The Family.

Spray—The Ladies Auxiliary. Spray—Fred and George Hooper. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stewart.

Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Fred I. Andrew. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hearz. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hearz.

Crescent—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller. Wreath—Jessie and Bertie. Boquet—Jennie E. McKay.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Edgar Hearz, John Andrew, W. A. Miller, George Harper, W. H. Smith, Melville McCausland.

MISS JESSIE MCINTOSH

In the early morning of Sunday, January 6th, Mrs. Jessie McIntosh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McIntosh, Springton, passed peacefully away at the early age of 20 years and 6 months.

The deceased had been in a more or less weakened condition of health for upwards of two years, but her loved ones had hoped that with rest and good care she might regain her former strength. All that medical skill and kind friends could do was done but all to no avail. For the last three months before the coming of the end, it was evident that all hope of recovery was gone.

She continued to grow gradually weaker and weaker until on the above mentioned date her gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight. Besides a sorrowing father and mother, Jessie leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving sister, two brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Duncan and Cyrus at home, and the sisters are: Mrs. D. L. Taylor, Somerville, Mass., Euphemia, Cambridge, Mass.—(but at present at home)—and Mamie at home.

The deceased, who was a general favorite with all who knew her, will be much missed by a large circle of relatives and friends.

But while all shall miss her, it is in the home that her loss will be felt most keenly. By her bright and genial manner she endeared herself to all. Henceforth her loved ones will often sigh for the touch of a vanished hand and long for the sound of a voice that is still—but all will be in vain for the dear departed comes not back in bodily form.

Just why one so young and so promising, with so much to live for should be cut down in her early years seems hard for us to understand. But believing that God in His wisdom and His love "doeth all things well" the sorrowing ones shall not mourn or complain but shall bow in humble submission to the Divine decree, each saying "Not my will, oh Lord, but Thine be done."

As the end drew near she was calm and undisturbed. Death had no terrors for her, she was assured that "There would be no dark valley, when Jesus came, to guide His loved ones home."

Resting firmly in this belief the end was peace.

The funeral which was quite a large one, was held on the afternoon of Wednesday, January 9th. The service was conducted by Rev. R. Hensley Stavert.

Two of the hymns sung were favorites of the departed: "The Old Rugged Cross," and "Will the Circle Be Unbroken." These were feelingly rendered by the choir. The service throughout was a very impressive one.

The pall-bearers were: John McLennan, Daniel McLeod, Ewen Lamont, Norman McDonald, Brackett Thompson and Ralph Thompson.

Interment was in the Presbyterian cemetery, Springton.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

To Mrs. Dorcas Reynolds and family: Cambridge Road, P. E. I.

Dear Sister:—We, on behalf of the members of the W. M. S., desire to convey to you our heartfelt sympathy in the great bereavement that has darkened your home through the death of your beloved husband and father.

We regret that our expression of sympathy cannot atone for the loss you have sustained, but we are assured that you sorrow not as those without hope. Therefore, we would commend you to the God of all comfort and consolation to the Great Burden Bearer, the Man of Sorrows, Who is acquainted with grief, hoping that in the beauty of His love you may find a balm for your aching hearts.

Signed on behalf of the members of the W. M. S. of the Peters Road Church. Pres.—MRS. W. L. McLEAN, TREAS.—MRS. S. DAVIDSON.
