BOSTON HOSPITAL ISLAND GRADUATES.

Its First Class Out Include a Number From Prince County—Diplomas Awarded.

(Worcester, Mass., Telegram.)

The first class to be graduated from the nurses training school at the Worcester insane hospital received diplomas of the school, last night, from Dr. Samuel B. Woodward...

Present was the superintendent of nurses at the hospital, and one who has been one of the greatest forces in the school during its first two years, Miss Linda Richards, the first trained nurse in America...

Present as speaker of the program was Dr. Edward Cowles of Boston, founder of the first training school for nurses to be established in an insane hospital.

As the members of the class filed by him, Dr. Woodward handed each a diploma. The graduates were: Margaret G. Bearsto, Martha I. Cousins, Lucy A. Corbin, Anna J. Courtney, Annie Currie, Ella J. Donald, Nellie E. Fales, Agnes A. Forbes, Ethel A. Foy, Flora J. Girvan, Frances A. Hamill, Grace E. Judkins, Nellie M. Matthews, Clara J. Milligan, Ida A. McNeill, Elizabeth J. MacDonald, Beulah M. Palmer, Florence M. Parker, Anna W. Pearson, Katherine D. Trethewey and Elizabeth B. Van Buskirk.

The time of the work of the graduates consisted of two years of eight months, during which they attended lectures, witnessed practical demonstrations of treatment, attended quizzes, and worked at nursing six days a week.

L. Cousins, Baltic; Nellie M. Matthews, Baltic; Ella J. McDonald, Sea View; Mrs. Francis Hamill, Eimsdale; Mrs. Lucy Corbin, Bloomfield.

THE WIND HARP

(By Cora Linn Daniels.)

The wild sweet chorus of the woods Had sunk to murmurs soft and low, While near a darkening cloud, the bow Gave proof of Nature's changeable moods, When on the air...

The mountain brook in sportive glee Seemed pouring, plashing down on me, Then spread itself as in a lake, So placid, still, That in the midst the whip-poor-will Seemed calling from his leafy grove...

With misty hints of yesterday! Then waving, weaving in and out, And heaving like round billows, tossed To foamy edges by the gale...

With every listening echo. Bright, And clear as crystal drops of light. The keen notes fell, Swinging and tinkling like a bell, Or spattering like the wind swept spray They seemed to dream...

A Warning to Mothers

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil has a tendency to grip. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided.

THEY ARE NOT TALKING.

SYDNEY, August 13.—Officials of the Dominion Iron and Steel company decline to make any statement regarding the effect upon their industry of the action of the government in doing away with the bounty on steel rails.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. O. W. Wittner, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale by all druggists.
