W. K. Rogers Re-elected President Of Golf Club; Maritime Meet For Here

The invitation extended by the Belvedere Golf Club to hold the Maritime men's golf championships here next summer has been accepted, President W. K. Rogers told the annual meeting here tonight.

A large group of members attended the session and presentation of prizes for the year was carried out. Pete Kelly, the red-headed golfer who plays hockey with the world champion Detroit Redd Wings, was not present to receive his prizes when his name was read out time and again. He won the provincial title and several other trophies.

The reports of the games committee, by Mr. Ed Nicholson, the property committee by Magistrate K. M. Martin, greens committee by Secretary H. W. Weeks and the ladies' branch by their Secretary, Miss Helen Grant, were submitted and accepted.

Considerable discussion arose over the greens, the question of cutters bringing out varying opinions, but no definite action was decided upon by the members.

A favorable financial statement was submitted to the annual meeting by Mr. Parker for Mr. H. J. Gordon, the treasurer, who was absent on a tour of Europe. It was accepted.

A motion was introduced and unanimously passed to make Secretary Weeks an honorary life member of the club for the valuable work he had contributed. Praise of his work was given by President Rogers who also had a good word for the ladies' branch of the club.

Mrs. L. E. Wellner, President of the ladies' branch, presented the trophies and prizes for the year's competitions, winners being well distributed among the various players. A splendid array of cups and awards was presented.

W. K. Rogers was re-elected president of the club, and Dr. C. H. Beer was installed as vice-president. H. W. Weeks was returned to his position as secretary and Treasurer Gordon was also re-elected.

The new slate of directors chosen by the members present was F. B. Conrad, H. L. Sears and W. A. Gaudet.

Regina Will Default Rugby Title Chance

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

WINNIPEG, Nov. 24—With an East-West championship tilt definitely out, rugby warriors of the West were virtually ready tonight to call the 1936 season terminated.

Denied use of five ineligible players in an official game for the Canadian championship, Regina Roughriders, western titlists, delayed final decision on their challenges to Eastern Canadian teams for an exhibition series.

Frank Emma, manager of Winnipegs, last year's Dominion titlists who met defeat at the hands of Regina in the western playdowns, said the Manitobans would not step in to take the place of their conquerors in a Dominion championship match. Frank Hannibal, president of the club, said the idea was worth considering if Regina asked the Winnipeg club to defend the Grey Cup.

N. J. "Piffles" Taylor, president of the Regina Club and also president of the Western Canada Rugby Football Union, said he did not think Roughriders would object to Winnipeg replacing the western titlsts in an East-West duel but he doubted if the Canadian Rugby Union would recognize such a match.

If proposals for a "Rose Bowl" game Jan. 2 at Pasadena, Calif., between two Canadian teams developed, Roughriders would be interested, Taylor said.

Rangers Trounce Leafs 5-1 As Four Other N.H.L. Teams Battle To Draw

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Nov. 24—Punching home four goals in the opening period and adding another in the third, New York Rangers tonight defeated Toronto Maple Leafs 5-1 to climb into a tie with Detroit Red Wings for leadership of the United States section of the National Hockey League.

Some 10,000 fans saw the teams battle at a furious pace with superior marksmanship of the Rangers enabling them to ring up a substantial lead in the first 15 minutes. Art Coulter, Ott Heller, Phil Watson and Alex Shibicky were the successful snipers.

There was no scoring in the hard and close-checking second frame but the New York blue shirts quickly added to their lead soon after the start of the last session, Neil Colville scoring in less than three minutes.

Toronto's lone tally did not come until after the half way mark when Pep Kelly banged a hard angle shot into the Ranger cage.

SUMMARY

First Period

1—Rangers, Coulter (Boucher, Patrick) 4:51.
2—Rangers, Heller (Murdoch) 9.49.
3—Rangers, Watson 11.34.
4—Rangers, Shibicky, (Dillon, Murdoch) 15.49.
Penalties: Horner, Day, Shibicky, Dillon, Heller.
Stops: Kerr 6; Hainsworth 3.

Second Period

Scoring—None.
Penalties: Horner, Day, Cooper.

Third Period

5—Rangers, N. Colville (Heller) 2.35
6—Toronto, Kelly (Jackson, Metz) 11.08
Penalties Horner, Cooper, Thoms.

CANUCKS 2—MAROONS 2

MONTREAL, Nov. 24—Montreal's National Hockey League teams, Canadiens and Maroons, battled through overtime to a 2-2 tie here tonight in their second intra-city clash of the season. Close to 9,000 fans watched the fastest game seen on Montreal ice this year.

Division of the points pulled Canadiens to within one of the idle New York Americans, leaders of the Canadian division of the league. Also it left Maroons with a record of only one victory in seven games.

Canadiens came from behind twice to finish with a tie. They scored both goals on long shots and almost won the same way as Alex Connell cleared far-out drives poorly around the Maroon cage.

Maroons, by far the speedier of the teams, lost their chances of a second victory mainly through the brilliant work of little Wilf Cude. Cude gave an outstanding performance, having no chance on either Maroon goal. He kicked out five close-in shots during one two-minute period of the third period when Canadiens were a man short.

Earl Robinson and Pit Lepine enlivened the game with a fist-throwing display. Both came out of the fray with bruised eyes. Robinson bleeding freely from a cut over his left eye.

SUMMARY

First Period

1—Maroons, Northcott (Ward, Voss) 10.53.
Penalties: None.

Second Period

2—Canadiens, Lepine 11.10.
3—Maroons, Marker (Gracie, Cain) 16.19.
Penalties: Lepine, Trottier.

Third Period

4—Canadiens, Gagnon (Seibert, Haynes) 6:28.
Penalties: Robinson, Lepine, Radley, Lorrain, Buswell, Ward.

Overtime Period

Scoring: None.
Penalties: None.

BRUINS 1—HAWKS 1

BOSTON, Nov. 24—Ray Getliffe and Bill Cowley, past performers in the Maritime Provinces, gained Boston Bruins a 1-1 overtime tie tonight against Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League.

The Black Hawks, who have yet to break into the league's win column, were leading 1-0 when Cowley at centre came down the ice in the opening minute of the second period. The former Halifax Wolverine fed a pass to Getliffe on left wing, and Getliffe lashed a long shot that cleared Mike Karakas' left shoulder and almost tore a hole in the corner of his net.

Doc Romnes had tallied for Chicago in the first period. Mush March's wild shot had bounced off the screen behind the Boston net, dropping at Romnes" feet. He whacked it home.

SUMMARY

First Period

1—Chicago, Romnes, 10.10.
Penalties: None.

Second Period

2—Boston, Getliffe (Cowley) 0.22
Penalties: None.

Third Period

Scoring: None.
Penalties: Smith.

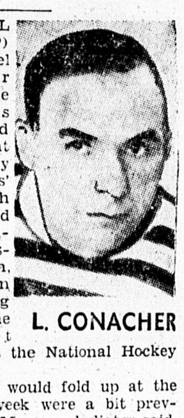
Overtime

Scoring: None.
Penalties: Sands, Blair.

Conacher Says Retirement Reports Bit Pre-mature

On Broadcast

Perce Lesueur widely known in sports, is heard on the Imperial Oil coast-to-coast hockey broadcast every Saturday night when he interviews celebrated American and Canadian sports announcers. Perce was an outstanding goal tender and was for nine years with the famous Ottawa club. He also managed, coached and refereed in professional and amateur leagues while his activities, in addition to hockey, included soccer, lacrosse, rugby, tennis, basketball, lawn bowling, curling, golf and track and field sports. At the same time, he has written feature articles and several books on various branches of athletics. During the past four years Perce has been a sports announcer and commentator and is the originator of the Hockey Question Box, which he conducted during the intermissions of senior O. H. A. games at Hamilton and other cities.



L. CONACHER

MONTREAL Nov. 24—(CP) Slowly Lionel Conacher wound tape around his stockings and pads tonight as he got ready for Maroons' bout with Canadiens and looking quizzically at newspapermen, pronounced in his booming voice that he is not yet ready to quit the National Hockey League wars.

Reports he would fold up at the end of the week were a bit previous, the old Maroon gladiator said. There was nothing definitely decided.

Earlier Tommy Gorman, manager of the Maroons said the veteran defence player would quit at the end of the week because he "found his business in Toronto takes up all his time."

But the "Big Train," a little puzzled by the reports, figured there was a mix-up somewhere. "What I told Gorman was that I was not going to let hockey interfere with whatever might crop up at any time," declared Conacher.

"But," he added, "there may be nothing doing until the end of the season so in that case I'll stay with the club. But in any event, I will do nothing that will leave Maroons on the spot, so to speak.

"I'll stay until they have someone to replace me anyway. I have no definite plans about immediate retirement. It may be soon or it may not be until the end of the season. There is nothing definite. I have not asked for my release."

Any satisfaction in Lionel's statement he was not quitting immediately was tempered with the knowledge this season is probably his last in the big time hockey firmament. This morning he said: "I'm definitely going to quit at the end of this year."

Ranks Morenz As Greatest Centre Player

(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Nov. 24 — An aging veteran looked back over the years a bit wistfully perhaps as he sat in a comfortable hotel chair as younger and eager hockeymen chattered and bustled about.

Frank "King" Clancy, Toronto Maple Leafs dynamic defence star, who today announced his retirement from active participation in a sport he has been a leading figure for 15 years, drifted back through the years to pronounce:

Howie Morenz, centre-ice veteran of Montreal Canadiens, the greatest forward he ever attempted to stop. Morenz goes down in Clancy's book as the greatest centre of the last 15 years.

Bill Cook of New York Rangers, Aurel Joliat of Canadiens, George Boucher of Ottawa, now coaching Springfield of the International-American League and Frank Nighbor, ex-Ottawa Senator, follow closely behind Morenz in Clancy's estimation of the veterans who rank among the immortals of hockey.

Of the modern stars Clancy said: "There is little doubt in my mind that Charlie Conacher (Toronto) stands out as a forward."

Eddie Shore of Boston and Lionel Conacher of Montreal Maroons he named as the best, in his opinion, of the present day rearguards.

Old Glory Sale Gets Under Way

NEW YORK, Nov. 24 — (AP) — Lawrence B. Sheppard, master of the Hanover, Pa., Shoe Farms, led Mr. McElwyn, one of the United States' greatest standard-bred stallions out of the auction ring at the 42nd Old Glory Sale today for $15,-500.

It was the largest cheque of the famous sale since he paid $19,000 for Calumet Chuck as a two-year-old in 1931.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—(CP)—The Manchester farm of Galt, Ont. stepped into the auction ring the Old Glory sale of trotters and pacers today and purchased two blood mares, consigned by Henry H. Knight's Almahurst farm of Lexington, Ky.

The Canadian farm paid $400 for Honey Locust, a daughter of Mr. McElwyn, and $250 for Hollyrood Celia' sired by Hollyrood Harkaway.

King Clancy, Veteran Leaf Defence Star, Announces Retirement From Hockey

BY GEORGE MAGUIRE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 24—(CP)— A blistering shot from a faceoff in the game between Detroit Redwings and Toronto Maple Leafs last Sunday, which entered the Leaf goal, today caused one of the greatest figures in National League history to announce his retirement from active duty on the big time's ice ponds.

CLANCY

As a hockey world sat back stunned Frank "The King" Clancy ace defenceman of the Leafs who has been an untiring dynamo on Ottawa and Toronto squads for more than 15 years, brokenly announced he was hanging up his skates definitely and for all time. He was not in the Leaf lineup tonight against New York Rangers at Madison Square Garden and vowed he would never again take up his defence post unless his services were requested for a charity game.

Ebbie Goodfellow, another Ottawa boy, convinced the King he was rapidly slowing up last Sunday. There was a faceoff in the Toronto end and before Clancy could get to the sturdy Detroit star the latter rifled the puck into the Toronto net.

"I am in good condition. I feel fine and I think I could play the rest of the season," said Clancy, "but that incident convinced me that I was not as fast as I used to be.

"No one influenced me in my decision. I realized I had just about reached the end of the rope and could do more for the club by pulling out and making room for a better man."

Telephonic and telegraphic pleas of hockey lovers' both male and feminine, poured in on Clancy after his decision had been published. The King remained firm.

His passing as a player is as important to hockey as the retirement of Babe Ruth in baseball, Jack Dempsey in fighting and Bobby Jones in major golf competition. The King had what it takes and gave what he had to become one of hockey's greatest figures.

Abbies Hold First Workout Of Season

The senior and junior hockey team aspirants stepped onto the ice for their first workout last night at the Forum with Harold Gross keeping his eyes on the senior players and Harry Richardson the juniors.

Practice last night was light and will work up as the players round out into better condition. The seniors hold another practice session this evening.

Starting today private beginners classes in skating will be held at the Forum. Instructors will be on hand to give every possible assistance to those wishing to learn. No spectators will be alowed in the rink. No doubt this innovation will meet with general approval and serve a long felt want.

LONDON—M. G. Stuart-Fox and J. W. N. Speight, finalists in the Marquis of Lorne Bowl competition, played 54 holes before the former won with a six-foot putt.
