CORRESPONDENTS should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be cut down as much as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get everything in as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

SHIPPERS of all kinds of Fresh Fish should correspond at once with S. B. Miller & Co., 7 Fulton Fish Market, New York. This firm has been in business for 65 years and are noted for the satisfaction they give at all times. They make a specialty of smelts and eels, and send prompt returns. S. B. Wiley & Sons, Boston, are their transfer agents.

SHIPPERS of Fresh Fish will be glad to hear that Frank J. Leach & Co. of 14 T. Wharf, Boston, are again this year ready to receive consignments from this Province. Mr. Leach will be favorably remembered as having visited here last season, and persons contemplating shipping this year should write Mr. Leach regarding probable prices, etc.

An Advertising Agency has been established in connection with this paper. Thus persons and firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, are having same placed by The Guardian. They thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.

The last issue of the Queen's Quarterly, published by the Queen's University, Kingston, Canada, has been received by the Guardian. It is, as usual, most creditable in appearance, the letterpress and illustrations being beyond reproach. The contributions include articles on Our Schoolmasters; The Canadian Northern Railway; Old German Dancing Songs; An Imperial Intelligence Union; Philosophy and Cosmogony, and Current Events; treating under the latter heading matters which engage the minds of thoughtful and learned men the world over.

The death took place at the residence of his son W. F. Doekendorff, 647 Jackson Avenue, Vancouver, B. C., on October 18, of William W. Doekendorff, aged 71 years. The deceased was a native of North River, P. E. Island, but for the last three years has lived in Vancouver with his son. He leaves to mourn besides his son, one daughter, Mrs. George E. Judson of Alexandria, P. E. Island. The brothers are Jacob and Walter of Grand River and Benjamin of North River; three sisters, Mrs. Richard Burdette and Mrs. W. Scott of Boston and Mrs. U. G. White of North River, P. E. I. The funeral took place on October 22, at 3 o'clock to Mountain View cemetery and was largely attended.

It is thought there may possibly be a game of football played this fall between the Abegweit and the Wanderers of Halifax. The latter have written saying that if the Abegweits leave here to play in Nova Scotia they will be able to have a game at Halifax. It is not certain that the Charlottetown men can go, but even if they do they may not be able to put the full strength of the team on for the struggle.

On Thursday morning last, the marriage of Miss Wilkins of New York, daughter of Rev. Mr. Wilkins, to Thomas R. Ferguson, Chief Engineer of the Government Steamer Stanley, was solemnized in the Episcopal Church, Pictou. Our Neckwear Showing Deserves Careful Reflection
 More really attractive neckwear shown here than in any other house in P. E. I. Try us and see.

POPULAR, in fact most popular for this fall, will be the 2 1/2 inch four-in-hand. Fashion has set on this her final seal of approval—so you will find 2 1/2 inch ties here in wines, greens, blues, black, white, browns and all the rest. Plain colors, and fancy designs as well, all tasteful ties for well dressed men.

25c, 35c, 55c, 75c, 95c.
 And for the man who does not like a wide tie, we have plenty of the best styles and colours in narrower widths. And the prices of these are right too.
 Made up ties—tecks, bows, knots, puffs, selling at 2 for 25c, 25c, each, 35c, 50c and so on.
 The man who is particular about his neckwear, needs to get a line on this department—and his neckwear troubles will cease.

EXPLANATION.
 These two remarkable raincoat offerings were secured by our taking the entire lot—amounting to some two hundred and fifty garments. The failure of the contracting party left them on the maker's hands who, to clear them out quickly offered us the entire lot at prices which enable us to sell at such very low figures. The garments are high grade—the product of the "Scottish Rubber Co." whose label on a garment is a guarantee of quality.
