WAS TROUBLED WITH PAIN IN HER HEART FOR SIX YEARS.

Expected Her Friends Would Find Her Dead.

Mrs. G. Boudreau, Campbellton, N.B., was completely cured by

MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills.

She tells of her experience in the following letter: "I was troubled with a pain in my heart and weakness for six years. Most of the time I could not lie on my left side. I consulted a doctor but got no relief and was completely discouraged. I did not think I would live long and expected my friends would find me dead. A friend brought me a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I took them to please her, not thinking they would do me any good. I had not used half the box when I commenced to feel myself getting better and by the time I had taken two boxes I was completely cured and can recommend them to all sufferers from heart trouble." Price 50 cts. per box or 3 for $1.25, all dealers, or THE T. MILBURN CO., Limited, TORONTO, ONT.

THEY MET AGAIN.

A Tale of a Summer Romance at the Seaside.

As he pushed his luncheon check and a quarter of a dollar through the cashier's window he happened to glance up. "Why, Gertie—I mean Miss Rose," he exclaimed, "I need not say I am astonished to see you here. I wrote to you at—did you get my letter?" he asked anxiously.

"Oh, I got it all right," she answered sweetly, passing back a dime in change. "It is in my bureau drawer at home. But I shan't pay any attention to the nice things you said," she continued, with a blush. "I wasn't responsible for the girls down at Sconset telling you I was the only daughter of a rich contractor any more than you were for the man who drove the stage to the station telling me you were not a Wall Street broker, but a collector for the gas company."

"But, Miss Gertie, I—"

"It is all right, Mr. Summerman. Please don't stop to talk here. You are blocking the line. But if you care to call on us in Harlem I'm sure mamma will be glad to see you. You know the address. I didn't answer your letter because you don't live at the address you gave me. I have a friend who boards there, and she knows a friend of yours."

"Well," he muttered as he wandered dreamily away, "I've rung in a change on the haughty girl seaside romance business anyway."

An Active Assistant. "Pardon me," said the stranger, "but may I ask where you got the title of professor? Are you a teacher?" "Sort of an assistant teacher, yes," replied the man in the loud clothes, "assistant to a great teacher."

"And who is that?" "Experience. Men are taught by experience that it is impossible to beat the fare game, and I assist expert cabs."

Encounter Abroad. A young lady from the country was visiting relatives in the city. During the course of a conversation the country girl said to her city cousin, "And were you never in the country during the season of husking bees?" "No," was the reply. "The ideal How do you husk a bee anyway?"

A Stickler For Form. "I tell you if you want real punkin pie you've got to go to Boston for it." "I tried to get it there once, but couldn't." "You couldn't?" "No; the waiter girl said they only had 'pumpkin' pie, and she wouldn't give it to me until I said it right."

A Case of Easy Picking. "You know that man, Filpperton, who claims to read character at a glance?" "Yes." "Well, he swindled me out of $300."

"Indeed. I didn't suppose he ever put his boasted talent to any practical use."

A Boston Intellectual. Hunter—You look pleased about something, Dumley. Dumley—I have reason to. I've just thought of a jolly good answer to a conundrum. If I could only think of a conundrum to fit it, by George, I believe I'd send it to the papers.

Usually Easy. "Oh, we've got an easy thing this time," said the confidence man who had been prospecting for a victim. "Sure?" "Oh, positive! Why, I've rounded up a fellow who thinks he's too smart to be 'done' by any one."

The Record. "Young man," said the stern parent, "do you know what is the greatest sin in life?" "Sure!" said the unregenerate. "That's for on th' Indian wot smashed th' bulleye five straight at half a mile with a 12 incher!"

He Did Too. A cannibal king they called Crunch said: "White man, I'll give you a hush. Just lay down your gun. And I'll show you some fun—On the dead, I will have you to lunch."

Wonderful Financing. First Sport—Dickson is a wonderful financier. Second Sport—How? First Sport—He borrowed a nickel from me this morning to take him up town to see a man that he could borrow $3 from, and with that $5 he blew off another man that he borrowed $30 from.

Got Versus Wooden Legs. "There's a poor man at the door, sir, 'as two wooden legs, sir, and 'e says, sir, would you be good enough, sir, to—"

"You go back and tell the poor man with the two wooden legs that he's blamed lucky. Tell him I've got the suit in both feet."

A GRAND SHOWING.

Andrew F. Gault, a prominent merchant and manufacturer of Montreal, insured his life in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. He was required to pay the sum of $15,000 per $1,000.00 each year. Recently Mr. Gault died and the Company paid to his heirs, not only the original insurance of $1,000.00, but $1,424.00 in addition, making in all $2,424.00. Mr. Gault paid fifty-two annual premiums, amounting to $878.80; the Company returned in dividends $545.20 more than it received in premiums from the insured.

Mr. Gault was insured under another policy in the same Company for a like amount, taken out a few years later, on which he paid forty-nine annual premiums of $15.28, amounting to $855.72. Dividend additions to this policy were $1,238.00 or $342.28 in excess of total premiums paid.
