DO BE FOOLS IF THEY DID

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Lloyd-George, addressing a meeting at Walworth, tonight, said:
"Neither the colonies nor foreigners would buy our goods, except for two reasons, either their quality better or the price cheaper for the same quality. They are not buying them because they love us. You go to the colonies, with any article, wherever it comes from, French, Russian, German or American, and if it is a better article, for a cheaper price, they are not going to buy a British article which is inferior at a bigger price. They would be fools if they did. That is not the way to do business. Our goods are beating them all. Why, we are able to put them on every market in the world more cheaply than any other country."

HAZARDOUS TRIP FOR MAIL MAN

PRINCE RUPERT, Dec. 21.—After one of the most hazardous trips that has ever been made on the Skeena River, A. Bierness, who has the contract of carrying the mails between Prince Rupert and Hazelton during the winter months arrived here Sunday with 200 pounds of mail matter packed in the interior. Fourteen days were occupied in making the trip, and three canoes were completely used up before the journey was ended. The cold snap of the past ten days and zero weather in the interior caused the river to freeze in patches, but the severe windstorms that have prevailed broke up the ice, which then floated down stream into the canyons where it jammed, backing the water out some sections of the G. T. P. grade. Over these fields of broken ice the mail carriers had to drag their canoes for miles at a stretch until open water was again reached. They report many thrilling escapes, but notwithstanding the many hardships to which they were subjected they succeeded in delivering the mails to the post office here in good condition.
