JOIN BANK STAFF— Two Island girls have arrived in Amherst to enter the employ of the Royal Bank of Canada. They are Miss Irene McCaley and Miss Edna Hickox of Charlottetown and Hunter River, respectively. The arrival of these girls will aid in relieving the staff shortage at the Royal Bank of Canada. —Amherst Exch.

REBUILDING MILLS — A new, modern three-storey structure is rising out of the ruins of the Condon Woollen Mills on Queen Street destroyed by fire December 24 as carpenters progress with the work of reconstruction. Work of rebuilding the woollen mills got underway Friday with Mr. Henry McLaughlin, Souris, as foreman of the work. The building is 60 by 65 feet. Repairs to existing machinery will be undertaken as soon as the parts are available and it is expected the plant will be in operation again next spring.

MISSION BAND TRINITY UNITED CHURCH—The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Mission Band was held in the Social Hall on Tues. at 3.30 p.m. Mrs. V. Ainsworth presided at the piano. The President, Olga Forsythe conducted the meeting. The members repeated their purpose. Prayer and Theme Song. The offering was received and dedicated. Miss McDougall told stories about Churches of All Nations in Canada and conducted the dedication ceremony of the Worship Centre which Mrs. McRae presented and placed in the front of the room. The members repeated the new Mission Band Peace Pledge. In the handwork period individual Worship Centres were made. The meeting closed by all joining in a circle, and singing "Father we thank Thee" and repeating the closing prayer.

SPRING PARK W.I. — The regular monthly meeting of the Spring Park Women's Institute for January was held at the home of Mrs. Williams. The Vice President presiding. The meeting opened with the Ode, followed by the Creed in unison. Roll call was answered by twelve members, two visitors being present. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The sick committee reported eight visits during the month. Committee's appointed were: Sick— Mrs. MacDougall and Mrs. Doiron. School, Mrs. Constable and Mrs. Cudmore. It was moved by Mrs. MacInnis and seconded by Mrs. Constable that, two new display boards be put up in the primary rooms and that Ten dollars be given the Aid to Russia Fund. Six letters were read from boys having received cigarettes for Christmas. Mrs. Ford invited members to her home for the February meeting, each member to bring one yard of print cotton for quilt blocks. A dainty lunch was served by hostess and the meeting closed with The National Anthem.

FUNERAL NOTICE. — The funeral of Mrs. William Darnley Clark was held from her late residence on Wednesday, January 27th and was largely attended. Mrs. Clark passed away on Sunday, January 24th at the advanced age of 91 years. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. George Tilley. Hymns sung were "The Lord Is My Shepherd", "Rock of Ages" and a quartette, "Jesus Saviour Pilot me." She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving Mother the following children, Chesley in Spokane, Wash., U. S. A.; Wilbert in Summerside; Fred and Ernest in Cavendish; Mrs. Walter Buntain of South Rustico and Mrs. Ray Toombs of North Rustico, besides a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was tenderly laid to rest beside her husband who predeceased her fifteen years ago. The pall bearers were Messrs. Roland Buntain, George Clark, Cyril Smith, Charlie Craswell, Donald Lamont and John Bulman. Mr. J. E. Andrews, Hunter River was in charge of the funeral.

HURRAY HARBOR UNITED CHURCH — The annual meeting of Murray Harbor United Church was held on Tuesday, Jan. 19 in the Church. After the worship period conducted by the minister, Rev. W. C. Picketts, Mr. James F. Herring was appointed Chairman and Mr. H. L. Machon, secretary. Interesting reports were received from the different societies, showing an active and profitable year. Plans were then made for the work of the coming year. In the report of the Session the minister referred to the great loss sustained by the church because of the death of three of its elders, Mr. Freeman Reynolds, Mr. William Hugh and Mr. Alexander MacDonald. The treasurer's report showed that all the obligations of the congregation had been paid, and a substantial balance was on hand, in spite of the fact that a new furnace had been put in the Manse, the lights installed in the Church, and paint purchased to paint the Church. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Rev. Mr. Picketts for his splendid leadership; and also to the members of the different organizations for the fine spirit of co-operation and good fellowship evidenced throughout the year.

In Memoriam

MRS. SARAH WEEKS

As the dawning of a beautiful day was fast approaching, so it was the dawning of a new life for Mrs. Sarah Weeks who passed peacefully away at the home of her son-in-law Mr. Everett Haslam, Springfield, on Friday, January 8th, after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Weeks was the wife of the late Henry Weeks of Fredericton, P. E. I., who predeceased his wife by thirteen years. She was the daughter of the late Samuel Howard and Mary Anne Pye Howard of Cornwall where she was born in the year 1852. Thus she had reached the advanced age of ninety years, an age which few are privileged to attain.

Possessed with many sterling qualities she endeared herself to all those with whom she came in contact. She was a woman of deep religious convictions and was a faithful member, first with Cornwall United Church and later of Pleasant Valley United Church. During her illness she was regularly visited by her pastor Rev. Mr. Morrison whose singing and reading of Scripture at her bedside was a great blessing and comfort to her. An unusual occurrence in this family is that Mrs. Weeks had 92 descendants all living with the exception of three who died in infancy. Nine children, 35 grand children, 44 great grand children and 4 great great grand children all left to cherish the memory of one very dear to them. The daughters and sons are: Ella, Mrs. Pope Abbott, Glen Valley; Edna, Mrs. Everett Haslam, Springfield; Esther, Mrs. Richard Elliott and Myrtle, Mrs. C. J. Crewys, Medford, Mass.; Howard, Fredericton; Leslie, Harry, Golding of Elliotts; Frank on the Fredericton Homestead. Of a family of fourteen the following sisters and brothers survive: Nettie, Mrs. Archibald Stetson of Fort Saskatchewan; Rev. Samuel Howard, Victoria, B.C.; Rev. Benjamin Howard, Saskatchewan; and Frank Howard, Cornwall, P. E. I.

Her funeral was held from her late residence on Sunday, January 10th when a large number of relatives and friends gathered from far and near to pay their last respects to their departed friend. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Morrison of Breadalbane who based his remarks on "God is Hope." He spoke of the abiding faith and steadfastness of the deceased friend, and of her hope in Christ as her Saviour. His message was both comforting and impressive. During the service a favorite hymn of the deceased "Softly and tenderly Jesus is Calling" was sung. Interment was in the family plot at Fredericton. In the Sweet Bye and Bye" was beautifully rendered at her graveside by Rev. Mr. Morrison.

The pall bearers were all grandsons. Messrs. Sheldon and Whitfield Abbott, Arthur and Hyatt Haslam, Millar and Lorne Weeks.

The floral tributes were beautiful and bear silent testimony to the memory of the departed

POWNAL

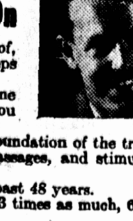
L. A. C. Walter Grant spent last week end in Pownal with his wife and little daughter Betty Anne.

Misses Lois Weatherbie and Dorothy Ings were visitors to the city on Saturday.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Ings recently, the occasion being Mrs. Ings' birthday. Also celebrating their birthdays with her were Mrs. Walter Grant and Mr. Elliott Robertson. A number of friends were also present and a delicious supper was served by the hostess assisted by Miss Dorothy Ings. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in games, music and dancing. After bouncing the birthday participants, the guests departed for their homes, wishing all three many happy returns of the day.

Pownal Y. P. U. met Friday evening January 29th at the home of Mr. John Jones, The Christian Culture Convenor, Etta Ross let the Devotional period, which opened with Hymn, Break Thou the Bread of Life. This was followed by a reading by Dorothy Ings and hymn For the Beauty of the Earth. Scripture reading was by Rev. Mr. Ross. Readings on the topic were then given by Mrs. Walter Grant, Mrs. Harold Acorn and Elliott Robertson, followed by a short talk by Mr. Ross. Hymn Have Thine Own Way Lord, closed the devotional period. After a short business period the remainder of the evening was spent in contests and games. Meeting closed with Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem.

The Cough That Sticks
The Cough That Hangs On



This is the kind of a cough it is hard to get rid of, the kind that bothers you during the day and keeps you awake at night.

Why not get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and see how quickly it will help to relieve you of this coughing condition?

It acts promptly and effectively, going to the foundation of the trouble, loosening the phlegm, soothing the irritated air passages, and stimulating the bronchial organs.

"Dr. Wood's" has been on the market for the past 48 years.

Price 35c a bottle; the large family size, about 3 times as much, 60c, at all drug counters.
