I WAS NEVER SO EMBARRASSED

-FOR I KNEW THAT ACID-INDIGESTION WAS DISTRESSING TO ME AND OFFENSIVE TO OTHERS

BUT NOW—I JUST ALKALIZE THE EASY PHILLIPS' WAY.

The quick way to alkalize is this: Take two teaspoons of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia 30 minutes after eating and drinking. Or when among others—take two Phillips' Tablets that come in a small flat tin you carry in purse or vest pocket.—You do it unnoticed. Relief is almost immediate. "Gas," nausea, acid breath and other offensive symptoms leave.—That "stuffed" feeling and pains from "acid indigestion," cease to annoy. You feel great. This is the way, we believe, more doctors use than any other when alkalinizing upset stomach.

Women Consider Home Economies

(By The Canadian Press) TORONTO, Nov. 5.—National co-ordination and direction of home economies extension work in Canada, in regard to publications and research, through the 2,300 branches of Women's Institutes in Canada is the suggestion of the national convener of the home economies committee, Miss Esther Thompson, Winnipeg, superintendent, Manitoba Women's Institutes. Miss Thompson has asked Women's Institute superintendents and directors to meet in Toronto prior to the 10th biennial board meeting and convention of the federated Women's Institutes convention in this city Nov. 16-22, to draw up a tentative plan to present to the board for approval before being submitted to the Institutes. Lt. Colonel Moore Recall War Efforts

The following communication appeared recently in the Daily Colonist, Victoria, B.C. The author, Lieutenant Colonel Moore, is a former Islander and a brother of Mr. S. C. Moore of this city:

Sir,—Just before the return of that day which we dedicate to the memorial of the sacrifice made in 1914-18 by our men of British Columbia who fought for our sakes overseas, and either came back "medically unfit", or failed to come home at all, may I have space for this word, not for myself alone, but on behalf of any other officer and N.G.O. employed during the war on the executive staff of this military district? That staff had the onerous duty of mobilizing, training and dispatching overseas some 55,000 officers and other ranks, and though themselves mostly regular soldiers with service in many cases in other wars, and asking from the first for service at the front, were not allowed by the authorities at Ottawa to go with the C.E.F.

The undersigned who held the appointment of A.A. & Q.M.G. here throughout the war, writes this after consultation with some of the few survivors of that war-time staff to give an assurance of welcome at our homes to any returned soldier "up against it"—some headed on cheerful—and whether of the B.E.F., C.E.F., Anzacs, South African Union, Indian, or any other Great War service, with no distinction as to race, creed or nationality. Armistice Day, or any day, they are always welcome—if only to a bite and a sup, and a word of cheer. Pensions, work and wages must go through official channels, but good will and friendship are man to man.

For our younger Canadians may I have room for this? Extracted from "Music Everywhere," pages 33 and 34. The line on the rock at Thermopylae reads: "Stranger, go tell the Lacedaemonians that we lie here in obedience to their commands." For our brave boys and girls it must be varied: "Go tell our families and friends we gave our lives—a free will offering for Canada's freedom."

Greater love than which no man can show—and therein gave also an exemplification of the highest that human love can touch, in following the divine pattern of that perfect love that give itself freely and finally, in that matchless sacrifice made by the Saviour of the World.

Still stands his cross from that dread hour to this Like some bright star above the dark abyss; Still, through the veil, the victor's pitying eyes Look down to bless our lesser calvaries.

Well, What are we doing about it?

Laugh all you please at the silly contents of this booklet. But you may not laugh at this, its last word. For those men on your streets today—war's derelicts—are the remnant of those same boys and young men like yourselves that your fathers sent overseas for your sakes, with this assurance—"Go to it, boys! We'll see you taken care of when you come home!" That promise, made on your behalf—not on Armistice Day only, but every day of your life—is up to you to fulfill.
