Velvet Gowns are in Great Vogue.
While there is little distinctly new in the fashioning of this seasons gowns the combinations of materials satisfy every desire for novelty. Velvet is decidedly the vogue for gowns, coats, separate skirts, and shirt waists, and velvet in and corduroy yield almost as graceful results. Little decoration is needed in gowns of these rich materials. For separate fancy waists the fashionable materials are peau de soie, satin, Louise panne velvet, and tafeta, the color harmonizing with the material of the costume with which it is worn.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION CANAL TREATY
Given Last Night At The Lansdowne Hotel Cape Traverse
TO SERGEANT MUNCEY LATE OF SOUTH AFRICA
Sumptuous Banquet, Elaborate Decorations Coupled with Eloquent Addresses Make An Event Long to Be Remembered.

The reception at the Lansdowne Hotel given last evening in honor of the of the return from South Africa of Sergeant S. W. Muncy was a very brilliant affair, and a success in all respects. The spacious Hotel was filled with a company of young people who enjoyed themselves with music song and oratory. All the settlements from Bedeque to Crapaud were represented. The decorations were most appropriate and consisted of Welcome Home under an arch composed of Union Jacks and evergreens.

A sumptuous banquet was served at which Mr. Norman Carruthers presided. At the head of the table sat the father of Sergeant Muncy, having at his right his son and Mr. Roy Lee. After an elaborate menu prepared in Mrs. Crosby's best style had been disposed of the following toast list was taken up:
The King—National Anthem.
Our Guest—Sergeant F. W. Muncy and Private Roy Lee.
This Canada of Ours—Dr. J. C. Jardine and Mr. Ephraim Bell.
Our Army—Mr. E. Bell.

The Press—Mr. Reubin McDonald of the Patriot and Mr. F. R. Newsome of THE GUARDIAN.
The Ladies—Messrs. A. W. Doyle and John Robertson.
Our Host and Hostess.
All the speakers made reference to the South African heroes who had fought and won, bringing credit upon Canada and especially to this Province. Reference was made throughout the speaking to the part taken in the campaign by the guests of the evening, also the anxiety in regard to Sergeant Muncy's condition when wounded.

After the banquet a delightful dance was indulged in by upwards of seventy couples. That all enjoyed themselves was attested by the fact that it was well on the way small hours of the morning when the tripping of the "light fantastic" ceased. The singing of Auld Lang Syne brought the festivities to a close and the company dispersed, voting the festival one of the most enjoyable affairs held at Cape Traverse for many years.

FITTING MEMORIAL PLACED
To a Former P. E. Island Pastor, Impressive Memorial at the Unveiling.

On Monday last occurred the unveiling of the monument erected in Bay View Cemetery, Ont. to honor the memory of the late Rev. Wm. Woodman. The ceremony was an impressive one and was participated and witnessed by a large concourse of the deceased pastor's many friends.
The proceedings were opened with singing hymn 601, followed by prayer by Rev. Dr. Clark, after which Mr. James Lennox unveiled the monument, with a few well-chosen remarks in which he stated that the memorial was erected by popular subscription among the friends of the late rev. gentleman, and while the monetary value of the same was not large, he hoped the sentiment and regard in which it was erected was as great as if it were an article of much more wealth. Mr. Lennox also regretted the absence of Rev. T. S. Campbell, that gentlemen having been a close personal friend of Mr. Woodman and one of the chief promoters of the Memorial.
Mr. Henry Atkey of Oxenden, who was an associate of Rev. Dr. Woodman in the work on the circuit for many years, paid a glowing tribute to the memory of his late friend and eulogized him as a faithful servant of the Lord. Methodist Hymn 8155 was rendered after which Rev. W. Kitching spoke of the grand work of the deceased, hymn 532 was sung and Rev. Dr. Clarke concluded the orations with a reminiscence of Mr. Woodman's many years of labor in the service of the Savior, after which he pronounced the benediction.
The monument is the work of J. C. Cook, of Warton, and is a beautiful stone. The inscription is well executed and reads:

"In Memory of William Woodman, died July 18th, 1900, aged 70 years, 1 month and 20 days. A native of Devonshire, England."
"Servant of God well done
Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battles fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last."
"Erected in memory of Rev. Wm. Woodman by his many friends."
Those of the immediate family of the deceased gentleman present were his four daughters, viz:—Mrs. Dan. Currie, Warton; Miss Laura Woodman, Warton; Mrs. Sam. Wilson, Amabel; Mrs. Law, of Manitoba. On account of physical debility Mrs. Wm. Woodman, the widow, could not attend the unveiling. The only son, Albert, is in Boston, Mass.
CARD OF THANKS.
To the many friends who subscribed for and lent their aid in the erection of the beautiful memorial shaft in honor of the memory of our late beloved husband and father, and which was unveiled in Bay View Cemetery on Monday last, the undersigned hereby publicly beg to tender their sincere and most grateful thanks.
Mrs. Wm. WOODMAN AND FAMILY.
Warton, Sept. 3, 1901.
(The Rev. Wm. Woodman mentioned was a Methodist Clergyman, and was for many years stationed in P. E. Island where he married a Miss Brooks of White Sands.)
