There passed away on Sept. 2 1935, at her home in Poynette, Wisconsin, U. S. A., Mrs. George C. Townsend formerly Christine MacKay, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hector MacKay of DeSable. About fifty years ago she went to Denver, Colorado, U. S. A. where she married George Townsend. They later moved to Poynette, Wis. where they both lived up to the time of her death.

Mrs. Townsend had been in failing health for about two years and dspite all that loving hands and medical skill could do for her recovery, she passed away on the above mentioned date.

She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her husband, two daughters, Mary and Grace, two sisters, Mrs. Abijah Burns, Lower Freetown; Mrs. John C. MacNevin, DeSable; three brothers, John of Balfour, B. C., James and Hector on the homestead at DeSable, besides numerous other relatives and friends of P. E. I. and elsewhere.

PHEASANTS MOLESTED—Complaints have reached R.C.M.P. Headquarters that certain parties are suspected of shooting Ring-necked Pheasants at Brackley Beach. Shots were heard a few days ago in the woods across the bridge and numbers of pheasants observed running and flying from the woods, and seeking shelter in nearby fields. A number of these birds were liberated by Robert Shaw and his son Gordon, near Shaw's Hotel, Brackley Beach, two years ago. 9 hens and 4 cock pheasants are known to have survided the past winter and it is estimated that at least 30 birds are frequenting the vicinity of the Hotel this fall. Pheasants are protected under the Game Act and heavy penalties enacted for anyone found hunting same. No shooting is allowed in the woods across the bridge at Brackley Beach, and Mounted Police have been instructed to keep a close watch on the welfare of these game birds. It is hoped that sportsmen will cooperate with Mr. Shaw in his efforts to establish those beautiful game birds in this Province.

Mrs. A. R. Buntain has returned from visiting her three sisters, and other relatives and friends, in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Buntain had a wonderful trip, and a most enjoyable time, seeing many new and varied things, in the big city. But she finds it pleasant to return to the leisurely old "Island" and her home in Kensington.

FURNERAL SATURDAY.— The funeral of the late Thomas Hammond Pierce was held yesterday afternoon. A short service was held at his late residence by Rev. Mr. Pierce. Funeral services were held from Brackley United Churcrh and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Christie and Rev. Mr. Pierce. The pall bearers were: Honorary, Isaac Bryenton, John Roper, George Younker, Frederick Newson; Active, S. L. Hardy, V. MacMillan, W. Younker, E. Sellick, S. Good, R. Bryenton. Interment was in Sherwood Cemetery and the services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Christie and Rev. Mr. Pierce.

The death occured in Brighton, Mass of Mrs. Frederic Walton, formerly Miss Margaret Jenkins, of Vernon River. Mrs. Walton was well known in Kensington as she had spent many holidays here and formed many friendships. She leaves a sorrowing husband, and one daughter, Mrs. Fulton McKay and two little grand children, George and Peggy a brother, Mr. Samuel Jenkins, and sister, Mrs. Locke Jones, reside in Pownal, also three other sisters, living in the United States. The late Mrs. J. W. Campbell, K.C.; Mr. George Barbour, M.L.A., and Mr. Aneas Gallant, M.L.A. S.

PRITCHARD, MARSHFIELD — Rev. J. A. Pritchard, Presbyterian Minister at Marshfield, Mt. Stewart, Harrington and Highfield, leaves for his new charge, Springhill, N. S., today. He preached his farewell sermons on Sunday, and last evening was entertained at a farewell social in the church at Marshfield. Both he and Mrs. Pritchard were presented with a farewell address and a magnificent auto rug and purse. They will be greatly missed in the community where they have endeared themselves, and devoted their time and attention to the interests of the respective congregations.

WEDNESDAY

—RETURNED FROM NEW BRUNSWICK—Mrs. Bessie Howatt returned to Summerside last Thursday after spending a delightful visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Sutherland of Chipman, N.B., and other friends in Hampton, St. John and Fredericton. Mrs. Howatt's many friends are glad to hear that she is spending the winter in Summerside.—S.

LAID TO REST—The funeral of J. Edward Doyle was held Saturday morning from his late residence, Mermaid, to St. Martin's Church, South Shore, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Hara, C.SS.R. after which the remains were interred in the family plot. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Father O'Hara, C.SS.R.

FISH CO. PRESIDENT HERE — Mr. A. H. Brittain of Montreal, President of the Maritime National Fish Ltd., arrived in Charlottetown yesterday. He had hopes for an improvement in the fishing industry even though immediate prospects are not as bright as they might be. The great difficulty facing the industry now is the unsettled state of the salt fish market, he said.

CARD TOURNAMENT—The first game of a new series of five games was held at the Holy Redeemer Hall last evening. There was a very large attendance. The gents' first prize was won by Joseph Gallaut; the second by F. Connors; Ladies' first, Margaret Lappin; Ladies' second, Mrs. John Wedge. —Mr. Leopold Compton, well known citizen of Summerside, P. E. I., spent the weekend in the city with his sister-in-law, Mrs. R. H. Hutchinson, and Mr. Hutchinson, Weldon street. Accompanied by Mrs. Compton, he will leave today by motor on his return home. Mrs. Compton has been spending the past three weeks here with her sister, who has been confined to her home through illness but is now much improved in health.—Moncton Times.

Friends throughout the city will be shocked to hear of the death of Mr. Edward Byrne who passed away in the City Hospital Sunday morning. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow (nee Julia Cahill), four daughters, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. Richard Gorman of New York and Agnes and Mrs. Paul Peters of Sydney, N. S. Two sisters, Mrs. Patrick Mullins and Mrs. Joseph MacLeod of this city. The funeral takes place this morning from his late residence at 8.50 to St. Dunstan's Basilica, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

On Friday, Oct. 12th, Mr. Charles A. Stevenson, an aged and highly esteemed resident of New Glasgow entered into rest. He had been ailing for a number of years and his passing was not altogether unexpected.

Mr. Stevenson was a son of the late George Stevenson and his wife Mary Proctor, early residents of the district, who predeceased him by quite a number of years. He is survived by two brothers, James C. and George H., both of New Glasgow, and two sisters, Janie, Mrs. Chas. French of New York and Martha, Mrs. J. L. Stevenson of New Glasgow.

The case against George Gallant, one of the four men charged with theft of ten cases of lobsters from the warehouse of Andre Paturel, was concluded in the Summerside Police Court yesterday and the accused sent up to the Supreme Court for trial.

Chief of Police Kinch gave evidence yesterday morning covering the investigation of the theft and the subsequent finding of the lobsters in Charlottetown. Officer White who assisted in the search, corroborated the Chief's evidence.

Emile Arsenault's case then came up and after hearing the evidence, the Magistrate discharged the prisoner as there was not sufficient evidence to connect him with the theft, but he was held as a material witness on a bond of $500 for himself and two sureties. The other two prisoners, Harry Perry and Elmer Gallant will come up for trial this morning. George Gallant was admitted to bail for the next Supreme Court in $2,000 with two sureties of $1,000 each.

Mr. L. G. Lewis prosecuted for the Crown and Mr. W. E. Darby acted for Emile Arsenault.

In the removal by death of Mrs. Charles MacKinnon, the Churchill district lost a much esteemed resident of the community. The deceased, whose maiden name was Bessie Rogerson, was a native of the district, in which she spent her entire career of seventy-two years. She passed into rest during the slumber of the night, while her spirit returned unto God who gave it. Mrs. MacKinnon was a truly devout Christian woman, and a member of the Church of Scotland, being brought to Christ and the Church during the fruitful ministery of Rev. Daniel MacLean. Besides her husband she left to sorrow for her demise, four sons, John Allan, Gordon, Daniel and Archibald; two daughters, Maggie Bell, Mrs. Colvill, of New Haven, and Katie, Mrs. Finlay MacFadyen, of Riverton, besides three sisters resident in Lowell, Mass., another at Cornwall, Mrs. Kate Frizzell also two brothers, James D., of Cornwall, and William K. on the homestead at Churchill. Her remains were laid to rest in the family burial plot at Argyle Shore cemetery awaiting the resurrection of the just. Rev. Mr. Ayers of the United Church was the officiating minister, Rev. Dr. Lowry being absent from the Province.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED — Sympathy is being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallant in the death of their little daughter, at two months old. The little girl was one of twins. She was laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery.—S

BARN BURNED—A large barn belonging to John McGuirk at Dromore burned to the ground yesterday destroying a valuable grain and hay crop and farm machinery. Volunteer fire fighters had difficulty in saving the house. No livestock was burned. Origin of the fire was not known.

CAR STOLEN — A Nash sedan belonging to Hubert Robertson, Chestnut Street, was stolen from in front of his residence between seven and eight o'clock last night. The City Police were investigating, but at 2 o'clock this morning had not located it. It is thought that it was taken out of the city.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Edward Byrne was held yesterday morning from his late residence Sydney Street, to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Keefe. The pallbearers were Messrs. Maurice Griffin, Reg Connors, James Power, Carl Kelly, Will Clarkin and Fred Moore. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Father McCardle.

Captain George Tanton and his sister ,Mrs. Bogan left on Tuesday morning on return to their home in Baltimore. Captain Tanton had not been home for many years. They were the guests of their brother, Mr. Roy Tanton and Mrs. Tanton of St. Eleanors.

They are the children of the late Albert and Julia Tanton who were life long resident of St. Eleanors.

EARLY MORNING FIRE—Firemen responded to an alarm sent in from the residence of Gerald D. Burgoyne, 20 Park Street, shortly after 3 o'clock this morning. The blaze, which was in the attic of the house, was not of a serious nature, but the firemen were handicapped for a time in locating the seat of the fire by the dense clouds of smoke.

ST. ANDREW'S JUNIOR RED CROSS RALLY—An excellent demonstration of Junior Red Cross objectives was given in St. Andrew's Parish Hall on Monday evening, October 28th, by Junior Red Cross members from Mt. Stewart, St. Andrew's, Savage Harbour, Cherry Hill, Head of Hillsboro, Conway and Glenroy Schools assisted by Miss Catherine MacLean, who showed the moving picture of crippled children's work. Rev. Fr. George MacCormack presided and the program was under the direction of the teachers present.

MALE CHORUS REHEARSAL—The Charlottetown Male Chorus held its first rehearsal of this season last evening in the Legion Hall under the very capable directorship of Mr. Harold Shepherd, organist and choir director of St. Paul's Church. This local musical organization has a membership of 41 and now includes all of the city's best talent. This season promises to be the best since the inception of the chorus in 1932. At an enthusiastic re-organization meeting last week the following executive was appointed: president, Dr. T. E. E. Robins; vice-president, J. A. Bentley; secretary, Mac MacKinnon; treasurer, Lyle Robson; executive, P. D. Williams, James Power, George Johnston, Peter Small.

In the passing of Major M. Galbraith the city has lost one who has long been identified with musical activities in this city.

The deceased was for forty-two years employed in the mechanical department of the C. N. R. and after his retirement on the Provident Fund lived quietly at home.

Music was his hobby, and his early training wth his father, the late Robert Galbraith, organizer of the first band in the city, was thorough. In his early life he was ever sought and willingly gave his best as a performer at concerts and entertainments in aid of churches and charitable organizations. He was a cornetist of marked ability and has performed at different times in every band in the city.

When the League of the Cross Band was organized some forty years ago, the task of teaching was undertaken by the late Major Galbraith.

He leaves to mourn the following to cherish his memory: Cowan D., of the C. N. R., city; Walter E., engineer on a government boat, Halifax; Harry, of the C. N. R., Halifax; Robert of this city; Mrs. Aeneas Hennesesy, and Mrs. Forest McDonald of this city. His wife, Maria Ferguson, predeceased him many years ago.

THURSDAY

Mount Hope, King's County, and surrounding communities were deeply shocked when it was learned that Weston Alexander, dearly beloved son of James and Mary McLeod, had passed away on Sept. 27th at the early age of 14 years.

P. W. C. DEBATE—Section B Debating Society held its weekly debate on Wednesday, October 30th. The president, Neil Price, occupied the chair. The subject for debate was "Resolved that the pen is mightier than the sword." The Pro side was upheld by James Hamill (leader), Marjorie Cameron and Marjorie Paquet. The Con side was supported by Percy Lannigan (leader), Jack Matthew and Viola Farquharson. The vote resulted in a draw. Comments on the debate were made by the critic, Arthur Reynolds, and by the Honorary President, Mr. Blanchard.

MAN RESCUED FROM DROWNING—Police reported yesterday that George Hughes had heard cries for help coming from the waterfront near Bruce Stewart's wharf Monday night, had rushed to the deck of the tug Amla tied up there and thrown a rope to Captain Wysner, struggling in the water. He was pulled to safety with the help of the crew of the Amla.

ENJOYED HOLIDAY—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bigelow of Norwood, Rhode Island, accompanied by their son Dr. Bruce M. Bigelow, Director of Admissions of Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island, left yesterday morning by motor for their home after a most enjoyable week spent visiting Mrs. Bigelow's sister, Miss Christena Macmillan and brother, Mr. James A. Macmillan of Charlottetown. This is Mr. Bigelow's first vsit to Prince Edward Island.

Elmer Gallant and Arthur Perry were sent up for trial to the Supreme Court by Magistrate E. H. Strong, K. C., at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing in connection with the theft of ten cases of lobsters from the factory of Andre Paturel, and for which theft the two prisoners were charged. The trial had occupied the attention of the court since Monday.

Four men had been charged wth the theft. One, Emile Arsenault, was discharged but held as a material witness on $500 bail and the two mentioned above were sent up for trial.—S

—WEDDING BELLS — A very pretty wedding took place at St. Marys' Church, Indian River, on the morning of Oct. 16th, at 8 o'clock when Miss Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gillis of Indian River was united in the holy bonds of Matrimony to Mr. Leo Gabriel, son of Mrs. Emma Brennan of Darnley. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, beautifully rendered by the organist, Mrs. Edgar Hickey. Rev. R. F. MacDonald performed the ceremony and also sang the Nuptial Mass. The choir, of which the bride was a member, sang very sweetly during the ceremony. The bride looked charming in a dress of white satin with bridal veil. Her sister, Miss Catherine acted as bridesmaid and wore a dress of canary crepe with hat and shoes to match. Each carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Ronald MacLellan. After the ceremony and receiving the good wishes of the large number present, the bridal party left for the home of the bride, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast awaited them. About fifty guests partook of the delicacies arranged in Mrs. Gillis' usual good style. After music and the wedding reel had been enjoyed the bridal party left on a short honeymoon, after which they will reside in Darnley, carrying with them all the good wishes for a long and happy wedded life. Previous to her marriage, she was tendered a generous shower by her neighbours and friends. She received many useful articles, including glassware, silverware, linen, in fact everything that furnishes a well-equipped house. The choir members read a nice address and presented her with a silver cake plate and glass fruit bowl in remembrance of her services with them. All join in wishing them all the felicitations of the day.

The annual meeting of the Caledonian Club was held in the Board Room, City Building, on Monday evening, Oct. 28th. The President, Clansman W. R. Shaw occupied the chair.

There was a good attendance of members present, and a considerable amount of business was brought before the meeting. The minutes of the last quarterly meeting were read and adopted, and after the passing of several bills, the usual routine of business was carried out.

Ex-Chief J. G. McFadyen referred briefly to the great loss the Club had sustained by the passing of our esteemed Clansman, Ex-Chief James Paton, and as we meet here this evening to transact the usual business of the Club, we are made painfully conscious that a most valuable and highly esteemed brother Clansman is not present with us at this meeting. We certainly miss from us not only the kindly presence but the help and wise counsel of Clansman Paton.

Many expressions of deep regret were heard from different members and a committee was appointed to tender to the relatives of our late Clansman, the sincere sympathy of the members of our Club.

The following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year:

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Florence Nicoll of Somerville, and Mrs. Sadie Ritchie of Annapolis Royal, and four brothers, John A., and Douglas Buchanan of Somerville, Jack of Lewiston, Me., and Monty J., of Seattle.

—WEDDING BELLS—The marriage took place on Wednesday, October 9th at St. Mary's Church, Indian River, of John Evans of Irishtown and Miss Katherine MacLellan of Indian River. Rev. R. F. MacDonald tied the nuptial knot. The bride, who was gowned in blue velvet with accessories to match was attended by Miss Elizabeth Arsenault of Tignish who wore blue crepe. The groom was supported by Walter MacInnis of Summerside. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower by her friends and received many valuable and useful gifts, among them a tea set from St. Mary's Choir of which she was a member. The happy couple will reside in Irishtown.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER — A generous shower was tendered Miss Mildred Harrington, who is soon to become the bride of Mr. Emmet Hammel, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dwyer, Charlottetown. The bride-to-be was led to the chair, where a carriage of useful and beautiful gifts was wheeled in by little Miss Craig and Master Buddie Dwyer, who were prettily dressed as bride and groom. The gifts were then opened and numerous witty verses were read, which caused much laughter and amusement. The evening was quickly passed by with music, songs and dancing. A pleasing feature of the evening was a step dance by Mr. Peter Craig, which was heartily enjoyed by all. At the conclusion of the evening, all left for their homes wishing the prospective bride and groom many years of success and happiness.

Paving contractors beat old man winter last night when the last pavement of a 51 mile stretch connecting Charlottetown and Summerside with Borden was completed at Kensington at 8:20 o'clock. Shrill whistles of the paving plant and steam rollers sounded, workmen cheered. It meant the completion of a permanent highway commenced last Spring which gave hundreds of men employment throughout the summer. The Charlottetown-Summerside-Borden highway was built by three contracting firms. The Warren Paving Company on the Borden end finished yesterday filling in over a bridge at Dunk River. The Standard Co., working on the Charlottetown end also finished yesterday. A small stretch at Hunter River, the last foot was rolled last night after dark at Kensington by The Standard Paving Co.

—SURPRISE PARTY — The ladies of the Baptist Church, Summerside, gave a surprise party for Mrs. Robert Palmer on Monday evening at her home in honour of her birthday. There were a large number present and Mrs. Palmer was presented with a beautiful set of table linen besides many other lovely gifts. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and other diversions. S.

—RESIDENT OF BEDEQUE PASSES—Mr. Moses DesRoches of Bedeque, who was brought to the hospital in a very serious condition on Tuesday passed away on Wednesday morning. Mr. DesRoches had been in indifferent health for about twelve months, but was up and about until a few days before his death. He was 52 years of age. Much sympathy is extended to his widow who is left to mourn. S.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB MEET—W. E. Massey presided at the regular weekly meeting of the Y's Men's Club held last night. R. L. McClure and J. A. Haslam were guests. Reports on the telephone bridge and bowling were given by W. E. Massey and Ernest Bell. A Hallowe'en dance in the Oddfellows' Hall under the auspices of the Club last night was largely attended. Music was furnished by Elliott's orchestra.

—ANNUAL MEETING — The 42nd annual meeting of the Summerside Branch, 215, C.M.B.A., was held on Tuesday evening in the hall with a good attendance. Mr. Alban Gillis, president, very capably presided. After the business of the meeting had been accomplished auction forty-fives were played followed by a short entertainment and refreshments. The prizes winners at cards were: Ladies, Miss Jean Wedge; gentlemen, Alban Arsenault; freezeout, Miss Beatrice Doucette. S.
