Stock Markets At Glance
NEW YORK, Feb. 17 (AP)—Rail stocks trailed by scattered industrial specialties, negotiated another brisk rise in today's market after slightly irregular morning performance in which it looked as though they might duplicate their slip of the preceding session.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17 (AP)—Rye prices dropped about a cent and all other grains were weak today following a Washington report that a final contract between the United States and Cuba for importation of Cuban molasses and industrial alcohol had been signed.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 17 (CP)—Weakness at Chicago had an unsettling effect on rye prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today with declines at the low point, 14 cents under the previous day's close.

"Navy Veterans" of the Battle of the Atlantic

On almost any ship of the Royal Canadian Navy today you can find a group of seasoned veterans of the battle of the North Atlantic like these men. Among them are men who have been dive bombed, torpedoed, strafed, and most important of all, who have helped to sink submarines. Some have even had the much routed acoustic torpedo fired at them, but they're all here and smiling as they tell the story. They are left to right: Front row: Sig. Kenneth Smith-Main, R. C. N. V. R., of Verdun, Que., veteran of numerous convoys; A. B. Waller, Waycik, R. C. N. V. R., 22 of Sault Ste. Marie, who was knocked unconscious by the explosion of the first torpedo which hit the destroyer H. M. C. S. OTTAWA
