A TRAVELLING man just returned from the eastern section of the Island reports that some grain is still out in stock in different parts. Flowers have also been gathered in some sections. THE statement which appeared in these columns in our last issue to the effect that the Rev. Mr. MacArthur, preached the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church, Pictou, vacant, was not correct. All the reference he made to Mr. Moss' probable resignation was to call a congregational meeting at a future date. Mr. Moss has been working too hard and needs a rest; beyond that, it is uncertain whether he will resign or not. It can be stated with reasonable certainty that Mr. Moss' congregation and his numerous friends throughout the country would be delighted to learn that he has no intention of leaving St. Andrew's congregation. Eastern Chronicle.

"THE Proud Prince," Valse lente, by Manuel Klein, the composer of "Mr. Pickwick." This number was written for and played during E. H. Sothers' magnificent production of "The Proud Prince," with great success. "Vestertoughts," by Victor Herbert, one of the most popular compositions of this distinguished composer. It is a dreamy reverie eminently attractive and pianistic. "Laces and Graces," a dainty little novelty by John W. Bratton & Gustav Salzer. It is said to rival in charm Mr. Bratton's "In A Cozy Corner." "The Smiles that Won't Come Off," Nat M. Willis, the comedian is making a big hit in "The Son of Rest," with this funny song by Standish & Silberburg. "Just for Tonight," an impassioned love song by F. O. French; used by concert singers all over the country. "The Mermaid of the Nile," an oriental intermezzo by Silvio Hein, promises big as a popular novelty.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co. Dear Sir,—A few days ago I was taken with a severe pain and contraction of the cords of my leg, and had to be taken home in a rig. A friend told me of your MINARD'S LINIMENT, and one hour from the first application, I was able to walk, and the pain entirely disappeared.

THE FEAR OF HUMBBUG

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach trouble because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That's all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50c per package.
