HYMENAL - A pleasant and happy event of special significance took place on Wednesday morning October 24th, 1919 at St. Peter's Church, St. Peter's Bay, when the Pastor, Rev. Father McAulay, with nuptial Mass, united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Sophia Jane McInnis, daughter of Mrs. John George McInnis of St. Peter's and Mr. John Francis McInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Plus McInnis of the same place. Miss Clotilda McInnis, sister of the bride, made a charming bridesmaid, while the groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Ronald Joseph McInnis. The bride was handsomely dressed in a tailored suit of blue with taupe hat and fur neck piece. Following the wedding ceremony the happy nuptial party motored to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous dinner awaited them, there being a large number of guests present to extend hearty congratulations. Appropriate remarks for the occasion were made by Rev. A. McAulay and others. In the evening a grand wedding reception was held at the home of the bride where about 250 guests including a number of friends and relatives from Charlottetown assembled to participate in the festivities and to do honor to the man and dainty good things which had been more than amply prepared upon a most elaborate scale. Everybody entered enthusiastically into the spirit of the occasion, the evening passing pleasantly and all too hurriedly in dancing, song and music. The bride looked very winsome in a pretty sand satin suit, Mr. Donald of the Bay very kindly contributed to the enjoyment of the evening by entertaining the guests with a number of select and interesting recitations. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque, and to the bridesmaid, a set of pearl prayer beads, the gift to the bridesmaid being a set of gold cuff links. The bride and groom were the recipients of many and valuable presents both in money and various other useful articles, too numerous to mention, all of which testified to the popularity of the contracting parties. The happy couple left the following day on a short wedding trip followed by the hearty wishes of their numerous friends for a happy and prosperous wedded journey through life. Until recently the bride was the capable teacher at Southampton, Kings Co., and while the groom is the popular and obliging station agent at Morrell. The Guardian joins with their many friends in extending best wishes.

WEDDING BELLS - An event of more than ordinary interest took place in St. Dunstan's Cathedral on the 8th inst., when Mr. Ferrain LeBlanc was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Mary S. Gallant, of this city, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Maurice MacDonald. The groom was ably supported by Mr. John J. Gallant, of Hunter River, while the bridesmaid was Miss Mary LeBlanc, of Dorchester, sister of the groom. After the wedding ceremony was performed, the happy couple repaired to the residence of Mr. R. MacDonald, Brighton Avenue, where they partook of a sumptuous breakfast, after which they departed for Hunter River to the home of Mr. Peter Gallant, brother of the bride, where an enjoyable evening was spent, with dancing, music, etc. Thursday morning the happy couple departed for their future home in Dorchester, N.B., bearing with them the best wishes of their many friends.

FAIRVILLE PASTOR HOME - Rev. Thomas Marshall returned home to Fairville, accompanied by Mrs. Marshall on the Montreal train on Thursday. Rev. Mr. Marshall has been in England for the past two months, where he has made quite an extensive trip, returning in time to attend the meeting of the missionary board of the Methodist church in Toronto, he being the representative of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Methodist conference. After the sessions were over Mr. Marshall returned to Fairville where he will take up his pulpit work on Sunday. During Mr. Marshall's absence in the old country Mrs. Marshall was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Seaman, in Montreal. - St. John Telegraph.

WEDDING BELLS - An event of unusual attraction took place at St. James' Church, Freetown when Miss Margaret Lower, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Power, of Emerald, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Devine, one of the railway employees of Hunter River section. As the bells of the wedding march gracefully and skillfully played by Miss Kathleen McKenna, cousin of the bride, rang forth the wedding party entered the church where Rev. Fr. McQuaid although the hour was early was on the alert and in readiness to celebrate the Nuptial Mass and perform the ceremony. During the Mass hymns suitable to the occasion were beautifully sung by Mrs. Peter A. McMahon and Mr. Tabanus McKenna. The bride looked charming in a tailored suit of blue with taupe hat while her sister Miss Katherine Power also became dressed in blue, acted as bridesmaid, Mr. Alfonso Devine brother of the groom was groomsmen. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of only the immediate relatives being invited. As the time was limited speeches had to be cut short. Mr. Power father of the bride on behalf of bride and groom thanking all present for the numerous and beautiful presents received and Messrs. Eddie Smith, of Charlottetown and Harry Young, of Emerald, and Peter T. Power, Station Agent at St. Peter's, who in cars decorated with flags for the occasion, conveyed the wedding party and their friends to the church. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful coat, to the bridesmaid an ivory manicure set and to the groomsmen gold cuff links. Mr. and Mrs. Devine left for a short trip to Boston and other cities amidst showers of rice and confetti and the good wishes for a long and happy journey through life.
