Moncton Hawks In 5-1 Victory Over Saint John Beavers

MONCTON, N.B., Jan. 26 —(CP)—Moncton Hawks tonight combined a smashing 5-1 win over Saint John Beavers and a convenient 7-4 triumph by Halifax Crescents over Truro Bearcats to move within a single game of the league-leading Truro team.

Cramming the bulk of their scoring fury in a lightning-fast first period when they collected four markers while their opponents were racking up a single goal, Hawks outclassed Beavers in every department for two periods, then held off a determined third-period attack.

Little Frank Imonti starred for Moncton, collecting a pair of goals and two assists as he found his scoring stride on a line with Buck Whitlock and Swede Paulsen.

Imonti not only played a stout offensive game but also produced new defensive power for a line that had been noticeably weak in that department. Pitted against Beavers' high-scoring line of Jackson, Wade and Nicolle, the little Moncton winger's back-checking was a big factor in keeping the high-scoring trio pointless.

Imonti moved up to the first line to replace veteran George Bell, kept on the sidelines by a heavy cold.

Decks Are Cleared For Real Fight In Olympic Hockey Feud

By JACK SULLIVAN

ST. MORITZ, Jan. 26 — (CP) — Battle lines in one of the most complicated disputes in Olympic history were drawn more tightly tonight with the arrival of Avery Brundage, president of the United States Olympic Committee and a key figure in the feud over which of two teams should represent the United States in the Olmpic hockey tournament.

The arrival of Brundage, who promptly reiterated that the U.S.-O.C. is "through" if its authority to select American Olympic teams is challenged, virtually completed the cast for another act in the bitter, long-drawn controversy.

The big guns of the International Ice Federation, world governing body of amateur hockey whose stand so far has opposed that taken by Brundage, are scheduled to arrive Wednesday. They include Walter Brown, United States, vice-president of the Amateur Hockey Association of the U.S.; George S. Dudley, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association; and J.F. (Bunny) Ahearne of Britain.

Dudley, who strongly supported Brown when the A.H.A. was admitted into the I.I.H.F. last year in place of the Amateur Athletic Union, has said that he personally favors the I.I.H.F. staging an independent tournament if the U.S.-O.C. refuses to approve the A.H.A. entry as the official U.S. Olympic representative.

So far Brundage has refused to counters gn A.H.A. application forms. Under Olympic rules the National Olympic Committee of each country, in this case the U.S.-O.C., must approve all applications.

Brundage in refusing claims said that the A.H.A. is "tainted by professionalism." His committee favors the entry sponsored by the A.A.U. and the National College Athletic Association. However, the A.A.U. no longer is a member of the I.I.H.F. and the Swiss organizing committee insists that only the A.H.A. entry will be recognized.

The dispute must be resolved before the games start Friday. Decisive action may be taken tomorrow when the executive committee of the International Olympic Committee meets.

Marty Barry Quits Crescents

(By The Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, Jan. 26 — Marty Barry quit tonight as coach of Halifax Crescents in the Maritime Senior Hockey League.

Barry explained: "I found that with handling St. Mary's Juniors and Crescents, I could not be with the boys on all the trips and it was not fair to them."

Manager Gerald Hanrahan will probably act as coach for the remainder of the season.

S'side Juveniles Take 8-6 Victory At Summerside

The large number of fans who witnessed the game of hockey between the Summerside Kinsmen and Kensington Juveniles on Wednesday night were treated to the best hockey of the season.

On a perfect sheet of ice the Summerside team had to come from behind to eke out an 8-6 win. The game was exceptionally clean and hard fought. The crowd was in a state of excitement all the time as the play see-sawed from end to end, as each team executed some very clever passing plays coupled with speed. The Kensington team opened the first period fast and soon had the Kinsmen hemmed in behind their own line.

T. Pendergast opened the scoring at about the three minute mark. This score seemed to be the tonic the Kensington team required and before the period ended they had built up a 4-1 lead.

The second period was the complete opposite as the Kinsmen really pulled open the throttle and before the period ended the "Dynamite Twins" Grady and Schurman had put their team ahead to the tune of 6-5.

The third period was extremely fast and both teams threw defensive hockey to the winds in attempting to add to their scores, Summerside adding two and Kensington one. Final score, Kinsmen 8, Kensington 6.

Referees: S. Martin, F. Semple.
Stars of game, L. Schurman, B. Grady, R. Kennedy.
Summary:

First Period

1—Kensington, T. Pendergast (R. Kennedy)

"SERVICE FOLLOWS SALES"

The City Hockey League should close its schedule tonight at the Forum on a high note for it marks the first time this season that the old rivals Prince of Wales and Saints have come to grips, and despite the fact that it will be a case of the top team meeting the lower one, fans are wondering just how the encounter will turn out.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

And they have plenty of reason to wonder for in the past two seasons when the Welshmen's hockey stock has been at a low ebb they have risen up on both occasions to hand trouncings to the wearers of the red and white and the strong well-balanced Saints of this season still bear those beatings in mind and perhaps are taking tonight's encounter more seriously than any they have engaged in so far.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

It was last year that the Welshmen, given little or no chance, came through with a 6-1 victory over the team that was later to win the Maritime intercollegiate hockey crown and who knows but history may repeat itself when the two face each other tonight. Prince of Wales will be in there seeking to perform just that, and among their large following yesterday were many who were willing to gamble that such might be the case.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Coach Johnny Squarebriggs just after sending his team through a light workout last night, stated "it should be quite a hockey game." That was as far as "Snag" would go on the matter but it was easily discernible that the coach expected his fast-skating charges to hand out their best performance when opposed against their athletic foes of long standing.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Interest in the game throughout the City and surrounding districts was at a high level yesterday and indications point to another record crowd being on hand to view the tussle. The last three games of the league have produced crowd-pleasing, wide open, rugged hockey that has left the fans looking forward to the succeeding encounters. Possessed of a band of fast skaters, probably every bit as fleet-footed as the Saints, Prince of Wales have all the requisites to give the league leaders a tough battle of it all the way, and if determination and the will to win can turn the tide of battle in their favor the Welshmen will add another upset to the long string they have already turned in against the Saints.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Congratulations of the highest order are due to George Hawkins and the other members of his rink for their magnificent victory in the Quebec International Bonspiel. Short of practice sessions compared to the high class teams they were facing, their performance stamps every member of the team as high class curlers and in addition to that they have brought decided curling honor to the Province by their winning of the Lieutenant Governor's trophy, the highest prize to be attained in the bonspiel that annually attracts rinks from all over the Dominion and parts of the United States.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Summerside hockey fans should witness a stirring battle of the ice lanes tonight at the Crystal Rink when Walter Lawlor's Navy hockey team travels to the western capital for an exhibition joust with the Summerside team that has been making such a good showing in the City League here. On the last occasion the two squads met Navy came through with a victory but only after the stiffest of opposition, and tonight playing on home ice and before home fans it would not be a bit surprising to see the Summerside boys come through with a victory.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Lack of condition on the part of the Summerside team has been a contributing cause to their City League defeats. Tonight's game in addition to providing plenty of entertainment should also provide the Summerside team with much needed competition, competition that will put them in the best possible shape and aid them greatly when they hit the playdown trail in the City Hockey League against an opponent yet to be decided.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Navy players will leave from in front of the bus stop at four o'clock tonight and all members are asked to take note of the time.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Convalescing Johnny "Fixit" Williams returned home from hospital yesterday after a bout with "old man appendix" and his many friends will be pleased to know that "Fixit" has come through a tough battle with flying colors.

Saints - P.W.C. Game Tonight Expected To Be Hard-fought Encounter

Team "A" In Tie For Queen Square School League Lead

Team A tied for the lead yesterday afternoon in a regular encounter in the Q.S.S. Hockey League by turning aside the cellar dweller "C" team in a close 3-2 game. It was the losers sixth straight loss, while the winners earned their fifth decision.

The victors won mostly on the efforts of the Gillis, Beagan and Howatt line which accounted for two goals.

Play was ragged but featured many exciting moments. "Whiff" McDonald opened the scoring when he beat Tulle from close in. Baegan and G. McDonald scored for the winners in the opening stanza to give them a one goal lead. They increased this to two goals, while Cliff Ready was in the sinner's bin for tripping, with Cliff Gillis doing the honors. In the last frame Cliff Ready and Red Cheverie combined for the second tally of the losers with Ready doing the sniping.

SUMMARY

1st Period.

1—Team C — C. McDonald.
2—Team — Baegan.
3—Team A — G. McDonald (Connor).
Penalties—None.

2nd Period.

4—Team A — Gillis (MacLeod).
Penalty—Ready.

3rd. Period.

5—Team C — C. Ready (R. Cheverie).
Penalties—None.

Pell Mell Loses Bout At Boston

BOSTON, Jan. 26—(AP)—Ironfisted Charlie Fusari, 148 1-2, of Irvington, N. J., thrilled an almost capacity 13,283 boxing crowd, Boston's largest of the season, by knocking out Gus (Pell) Mell, 150 1-2, of Montreal, in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-round bout on an all-star program tonight.

Mell, a slugger in his own right, was down twice in the third under Fusari's terrific rights to the head. The Canadian's second trip to the canvas came just as the bell sounded and he was still groggy coming out for the fourth.

Despite his sorry condition, Mell tried to slug with the Jerseyite and the latter put him away for the full count with two deliberate right smashes to the jaw.

That exciting slugfest stole the spotlight from the 12-round unanimous decision that Johnny Cesario, 146 1-2, of Boston gained while defending his New England welterweight title against rugged Bobby Zollo, 147, of Providence, R. I.

Junior welterweight champion Tippy Larkin, 146, of Garfield, N J., had little difficulty out-speeding and out-punching Joe Demartino 148 1-2, of Fairfield, Conn for a unanimous 10-round verdict.

In the opening 10-rounder, Jackie Weber, 136, of Pawtucket, R. I., battled to a unanimous but fairly close decision over Jack (Spider) Armstrong, 133, of Toronto, who was in action for the 390th time in his 18-year professional career.

The crowd provided gross gate receipts of $39,716 and a "net" of $31,238.

NOTTINGHAM, England, Jan. 26 —(AP)—Kid Tanner, British Guiana featherweight, was outpointed tonight in an eight-round bout by Frankie Williams of Birkenhead, England.

Himself quite a baseball player in his playing days when he performed at second base with Abegweit teams, in later years Johnny has taken a keen interest in the development of younger players both in hockey and baseball and these in particular will welcome his return back to good health and it won't be long before he will be again bending his energies towards aiding the youngsters in their athletic endeavors.

Sugar Robinson III, Bout Is Postponed

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 26—Illness of Ray (Sugar) Robinson, welterweight boxing champion has caused postponement of his 10-round fight with Ossie (Bulldog) Harris of Pittsburgh here Tuesday, matchmaker Jim Murray reported. Robinson, in New York with a severe cold, was forced to cancel by doctor's orders.

It's Prince of Wales versus Saint Dunstan's in tonight's City Hockey League encounter at the Forum and judging by the interest that the clash of the two colleges has aroused among the fans it is expected that last Thursday night's record season attendance will go by the boards when the teams face each other for the opening whistle.

Undefeated so far this season the strongly-knit Saints are not taking tonight's game in any easy manner, In the past Prince of Wales teams have always proved stumbling blocks to the red and white clad crew and this season despite lack of experience the Welshmen have a club that possesses worlds of skating ability, are aggressive and in the minds of many may contain the ammunition necessary to dump the Saints.

And if they can a two way tie for first and second places will result in the league standings. That would necessitate sudden death games to decide playoff positions. The Saints will want none of that while the Welshmen would glory in causing just such a situation. So it can be seen that the game is important to both squads and both will be out there battling from gong to gong with all the spirit the two squads muster when opposed to each other, not only in hockey but in whatever branch of athletics they meet.

Game time is scheduled for 8 p. m. sharp and again fans are reminded to comply with the no-smoking rule.

Milton Hornets Defeat Brackley

On Saturday night the Milton Hornets defeated the Brackley Rovers 9-6 in the opening game of the Central Queen's Hockey League. The game was hard fought but cleanly played. The Rovers put up a stiff fight but, minus two or three of their regular players, were unable to keep pace with the Milton forwards. Nineteen-year-old Calvin Easter, top scorer of the night, played a snappy game at centre getting four goals and two assists. George MacKay of the Rovers turned in a dashing game on defense, scoring three goals in the last period.

Lineups:

Brackley: Goal, Hilson Hughes; defence, G. MacKay, L. Younker; forwards, B. Ford, H. Hughes, F. Hughes, S. Shaw, A. Younker, F. Stewart.

Milton: Goal, K. Coles; defence, R. Coles, R. Crabbe, B. Billings, H. Coles, A. Peters; forwards, H. Cruwys, S. Cruwys, V. Gillespie, C. Easter, L. Andrews, G. Hooper.

KENTVILLE, N. S., Jan. 26—(CP)—Kentville Wildcats staged a smashing comeback in the closing minutes of a Valley Senior Hockey League game here tonight to overcome a three-goal deficit and defeat Wolfville Red Wings 11-8.

Sport Echoes from Prince County

We take due note of the follow-up comments of the S.D.U. commentator regarding the game played between the Summerside All-Stars and the St. Dunstan's team. The pronouncement now is that "the All-Stars elected to play it rough, and the Saints responded in like manner." Now, since the S.D.U. writer has been very nice about the whole thing, we'll take his word for it that that was the way it was. As for us, when two teams start shoving each other around we have quite a bit of trouble, probably due to our inexperience, in telling just who "elected" and who "responded." There is always the chance that we have missed the butt end in the ribs that may have been the overt act which started the whole affair. We'll let you in on a little secret, however. We like to think that the other fellows have started the dirty work, and that our boys are slashing, butt-ending and cross-checking strictly in self-defence. The devastating fact that the S.D.U. writer's comment "conveys the opinion of the whole student body" really bowls us over. We, who are not sure whether anyone agrees with our comments or not, cannot hope to stand against such unanimity as this. Not having the appetite for odds that Horatius and some of the other old heroes had, we surrender immediately.

The writer says, "It is the general opinion of the students." Let us tell you something about those "general opinions." Two hockey teams, (to hide their real identity we shall say that they came from the towns of A and B) were playing a game when a puck went towards the B net, danced dizzily along the goal line and slithered out again. The light did not go on. The A players claimed it was a goal; the B players maintained that the puck had at no point crossed entirely over the line. As for us we couldn't be sure. The puck had travelled too fast for us to tell whether it had gone inside the line or not. But we listened to the argument that went on between the fans, and do you know that it was "the general opinion" of residents of A that the goal had been scored; on the other hand, it was "the general opinion" of B inhabitants that it was no goal. Since that time we have looked upon "general opinions" of this kind with a certain degree of suspicion.

The S. D. U. writer is high in praise of the St. Dunstan's - Navy game, and rightly so. He writes: "It had everything—speed, clever passing plays, good defensive work, and excellent goal-tending", all of which we, having seen the game, heartily endorse. The writer could have gone further, however. It also had some of the most beautiful left hooks and right crosses that we have seen outside of a prize ring. And we, barbarian that we are, found that it added an extra little bit of enjoyment to our evening's entertainment. Somebody, the Navy no doubt, "elected to play it rough", but brother, how those red-clad warriors from S.D.U. "responded."

All kidding aside, fellows, we think you have a team up there at S.D.U. of which you have every reason to feel proud. Of course, it hurts us Westerners a bit to see MacDonald, Mahar & Co. come tearing through our defence with the speed and dash that is a part of their play, but we can't help admiring them too, and when they stack up against St. F. X. boys, or whatever college team is in the finals with St. Dunstan's, we Prince County fans will be rooting as hard as you for S. D. U. and for a continued lease of the glory and honor they have brought to Prince Edward Island.

Don't get us wrong though. If we're in the semi-finals with you, and it looks now as if we might be, we're going to throw everything we have at you for the glory of Summerside and Prince County. We haven't decided just how we'll "elect to play it" yet, but you can be sure it will be in a way that will keep your boys hustling every minute of the game. So be at your best, hombres, or you'll find that "responding" is going to be a pretty tough chore before the series is over.

In last Friday's juvenile game at Summerside the second goal credited to Layton Schurman in the press report should have been given to Joey Schurman.

Crescents Stage Late Rally To Hand Truro Bearcats 7-4 Defeat

HALIFAX, Jan. 26 —(CP)—Coming with a four-goal rush in the last nine minutes of play, Halifax Crescents tripped king-pin Truro Bearcats 7-4 tonight to protect their third place in the Maritime Senior Hockey League and give a leg up to second-spot Moncton Hawks. Hawks rattled Saint John Beavers 5-1 to advance within two points of Truro.

Crescents were wallowing on the short end of a 4-3 score at 11.05 of the third period when they suddenly came to life to snap off their losing streak at five games.

Chick Charlton shot the equalizer and a moment later centre Jimmy Gray was chased for holding the puck. Instead of switching to a defensive game to meet the impending Truro ganging attacks Halifax drove into Bearcats zone and Rock Sullivan cashed Charlton's pass for the winning goal. Windy O'Neill and Billy Hannon added two more for effect.

Truro dressed only 10 players and late in the second period goalie Dutch Mumford had to retire when he was gashed in the face in a mix-up at his doorstep.

To allow Mumford time to get stitched up, play, in the second period was called after 17 minutes and the three-minute shortage was tacked onto the third period.

Truro held a decided edge until Halifax's splurge late in the game and it was the handy leg work of netminder Gummy Gilfoy that kept their shots out of the cords.

SUMMARY

First Period.

Dal. Tigers May Be Seen In Action Here

Dalhousie Tigers, entrants in the Nova Scotia section of the Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League may be seen in action at the Forum here next Tuesday night in an exhibition encounter, it was learned last night.

Desirous of getting competition from outside teams Saints, present holders of the Maritime intercollegiate crown failed in arrangements to bring St. Mary's juniors here for a game Thursday night of next week and the only available date Tigers could meet the local squad was next Tuesday.

A definite decision on the matter should be forthcoming shortly.
