IN MEMORIAM

MRS. FREDERICK K. PIDGEON

At her home in Clifton, New London, on Saturday morning, Nov. 1st, after a lingering illness, borne with christian patience, she passed peacefully away Jennie, beloved wife of Frederick K. Pidgeon in the thirtieth year of her age. Why one so young, so bright and full of promise should be taken from her loved ones, seems hard for us to understand, but when we believe that God is too wise to err, too loving to be unkind, we can rest assured that all things will work together for good for those who are bereaved of a loving wife and mother. There are left to mourn, her sorrowing husband and little son Frederick Fulton, also her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. Currie, five sisters and one brother. The funeral was held from St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, French River, on Sunday P. M., and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. T.

When Your Cough Hangs On, Mix This at Home

The best cough remedy that money could buy, can easily be mixed at home. It saves money and gives you the most reliable, quick-acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of stubborn coughs and chest colds, giving immediate relief, is astonishing. Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 bottles of Pinex. Pour this into a 10 oz. bottle, and fill up with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. It's no trouble at all to mix, and when you once use it, you will never be without it. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children really like it. It is surprising how quickly this loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and soothes and kills the inflamed membranes. At the same time, part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes, and helps the lungs throw off the whole trouble. Even the most severe coughs which follow colds, are promptly cured. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles. Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.
