This scholarship is merited on behalf of kindness to patients, demeanor and neatness of person and work. ANOTHER DIVIDEND.—The shareholders of the General Fur Farms, Ltd., Charlottetown, are being made happy just now by the receipt of five percent dividend cheques. This dividend is paid out of returns just received from sale of pelts recently old in London, a part of shipment of one hundred pelts shipped January 14, 1919. Needless to say the shareholders are delighted and all the more so since it was only at Christmas that they received a dividend of three per cent. on last year's transactions. This is the fifth dividend which this company has declared since it was started only a few years ago, and speaks volumes for the honesty and good management of the company.

The community of Hampton was shocked and saddened to hear of the sudden and unexpected death of Mr. Wm. C. Inman which took place at his home on Monday evening March 11th. The deceased who had just entered upon his sixty sixth year had been enjoying his usual good health during the past few months. It was able to attend to his duties until about four days before his death, when he was suddenly stricken with a severe attack of acute indigestion. Medical aid was summoned, but in spite of all that loving hands could do his spirit took its flight to Him who gave it. The late Mr. Inman was an industrious farmer of a quiet disposition, honest and upright in all his dealings, and highly respected by all who knew him. He will be missed much by those who knew him best.

Besides a sorrowing widow who seldom left his bedside during his short illness, there are left to mourn six sons and three daughters:—Thomas in Winnipeg, Man., Fred in Victoria, P. E. I., Mrs. Donald Gordon, Appin Road, P. E. I., Charles, Beecher, Warren, Florence, Lily and Jack at home. Two brothers, George of Alberton, John T. of Hampton and five sisters, Mrs. Edward Harrington, fine Mile Creek, Mrs. Mary A. Inman and Mrs. Grace Sturdy, Victoria, Mrs. Carrie A. Farrar, Boston, Mrs. Annie Chandler, Hazelbrook also a large circle of relatives and friends are left to cherish his memory. The funeral services on Wednesday, March 13th, were conducted by Rev. T. S. MacKay. The respect in which he was held was shown by the large attendance at the funeral, there being upwards of two hundred sleighs in the procession. His remains were laid to rest in the Old Crapaud Cemetery. The sympathy of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. French, Charlottetown was shown by the beautiful casket of flowers which they placed upon the casket. The pall-bearers were: Messrs Wm. Inman, John Inman, Mark Inman, Peter Inman, Steward Inman and Harry Inman, all nephews of deceased.

The following is from the Winnipeg Telegram of March 10th. The death occurred on Sunday morning of Emma Craig, widow of the late Albert Craig, at her home, 122 Chestnut Street, of pneumonia, after a brief illness. The deceased, who was 67 years of age, came west from Emerald, Prince Edward Island, 10 years ago with her husband and family. She is survived by three children, Claud C. Craig, Miss Blanche Craig and Mrs. Arthur Fraser, all of whom are living at the family home. The funeral service will be held at Clark Bros. and Hughes' undertaking parlors on Tuesday at 2 p. m. and the interment will be made in Elmwood cemetery.

The many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. John W. Birt, which sad event took place on the morning of January 23rd at 6 o'clock a. m., after a brief illness of influenza followed by pneumonia. Deceased was very highly respected and only in her fifty-eight year. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband and nine of a family. The boys are Henry L. of Mount Mellary, Benjamin of Head Hillsboro, Abion E. of Berlin, N. H., Howard of Falconwood Hospital, and David and Eddie at home, and three daughters Mrs. Gordon Douglas, Head Hillsboro, Katie of Berlin, N. H., and Emma at home, besides a father, five brothers and one sister and a host of friends. The pall-bearers were John McDonald, Cameron McLaughlin, Owen Trainor, Lawson Douglas, John Handrahan, and Francis Donnelly.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION. On the evening of Tuesday, March 11th, a reception was held in Woodville church in honor of the following returned heroes: Gur. W. W. Stewart, Pte. P. C. Young, Seaman John Morrison, Seaman Daniel Emery. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The meeting was opened by remarks from the chairman, Captain Rev. J. C. Martin, after which the following program was enjoyed by all: Quartette, Mrs. J. C. Martin, Miss Eleanor Marchison, Mr. Wm. Martin and Mr. Wm. MacLaren; reading, Sadie Brown; chorus, choir; quartette, Mrs. J. C. Martin, Miss Louise Emery, Mr. Wm. MacLaren, Mr. Wm. Martin; solo, Captain Rev. J. C. Martin; reading, Ella Smith MacDougall; duet, Miss Eleanor Marchison, Mr. Wm. MacLaren; chorus, choir. Mrs. Alex. MacLennan acted as organist for the evening in her usual capable manner. Several short addresses of welcome were also given, and a well-worded address was read to the heroes by the chairman, after which each received a monogrammed fountain pen and address, which was presented by four little girls, Jean MacKenzie, Margaret MacNeill, Jessie Morrison and Eveline Emery. The young men replied in a very fitting manner, and Pte. Young in the course of his remarks took the opportunity to thank the Red Cross for their continued kindness to them while overseas. After the singing of the National Anthem a few minutes were spent in social intercourse.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Allen MacDougall and family in the loss of their eldest son and brother. Only about six weeks since he left home, having been drafted for Halifax. He took the influenza which ended in pneumonia and death. His father was at his bedside for nearly a week before his death. He wrote a letter to his mother telling her he was dying but not to mourn for him as his hope and trust was in the Lord Jesus Christ and made particular arrangements with his father concerning the funeral which was held on Friday the 14th and was the largest ever seen in this community, there being nearly 150 sleighs.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. D. MacLennan and Messrs Fletcher MacEachern, Neil MacEachern, Hugh MacDonald, John MacDonald, Adalbert MacDougall and Daniel Livingstone acting as pall-bearers. "Archy" as he was familiarly called was one of the sober, industrious young men of Nine Mile Creek and will be very much missed not only in his own home—from which he was seldom absent but in the community where he was so generally respected. Only twenty three years of age a long and useful life seemed to be before him, but an all wise God whose thoughts are not as ours saw it better to take him to Himself. It is ours to say "Thy will be done." Besides a father and mother his departure will be mourned by three brothers, Albert, Charles and Samuel and one little sister Mary, to whom he was very much attached. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

The Ram's-horn—able assistant to the Hot Spot, which makes Chalmers a great car

THERE has been so much favorable comment on the Hot Spot device of this great car is overlooked. The Ram's-horn completes the magnificent work of the Hot Spot, the main purpose of which is to fletcherize or "crack up" and heat the gas coming from the carburetor. Having done its work the Hot Spot passes the 100% conditioned gas on to the Ram's-horn. Now here is where an important job begins.

Gas is a peculiar thing. It "sticks in corners," "collects at any angle," goes back to its raw state unless it is handled quickly and scientifically.

So the Ram's-horn, as one might gather from the name, is without sharp corners, has easy bends and entices the gas smoothly into each cylinder. The inside of it is not a rough casting. It is as smooth as glass.

Note the drawing above. See that the distance from the Hot Spot to each cylinder is the same. That is the great secret of the Ram's-horn.

Most cars have a manifold that feeds gas into one cylinder, whatever is left over goes on into number two, the residue to number three and so on.

Cylinder number six is usually "starved" or gets "raw gas."

Thus you see why the Chalmers engine runs so smoothly, why it gets every last bit of power out of gas, why cold weather does not affect its starting, and why it runs cool on a warm day.

If you have not looked over a present day Chalmers you have an incomplete education on the modern motor car. For Chalmers now is considered one of the few great cars of the world.
