Thomas Hession of Georgetown, has received a telegram conveying the sad news of the death at New Liskeard, New Ontario, of his oldest son William. The deceased, who was about forty years of age was Manager of the C. P. R. Hotel "Canada" at New Liskeard. He left his native town about twenty years ago and visited it once since then, about seven years ago. For a number of years, he had charge of the supplies for McKenzie and Mann and subsequently he secured a similar position under the C. P. R. Later, he became Manager of the Hotel, in which he had also a large financial interest. He was the eldest of what was originally a family of fourteen and there are left to mourn one sister Gertrude at home and the following brothers John in New Glasgow, Edmund who holds a position as Conductor in the Militia Department, at Ottawa, and well known to militia men in this province, Emmet in Milwaukee, James in the employ of the P. E. I. Railway at Georgetown and Stephen law student with McLeod and Bentley. One brother Fred was drowned about ten years ago and his mother passed away about seven years ago.

"Clearing the Decks" INASMUCH AS THIS STORE BELONGS TO YOU so far as it is a place to supply those things that you need conveniently right—and at a right price—inasmuch as this is the case you have a right to know all about what this sale means. You know that some time ago, looking forward to the constant enlargement of business which you have given us, we were compelled to buy the building we occupy—as well as the one next us. In the course of a few months we propose to occupy both buildings. This will necessitate many alterations and changes—To get the money for these—to "clear the decks" of every item of surplus stock. These are the reasons for the sale.
