SENATOR DOMVILLE WIRES THE MIKADO

St. John, May 30.—(Special)—On Monday Senator Domville cabled the Emperor of Japan as follows.
To the Emperor of Japan, Tokio.—Congratulations unparalleled bravery intelligence. (signed) Senator Domville.
An answer was received yesterday as follows.
Tokio, May 30.
Senator Domville, St. John, Canada.—The Emperor is much satisfied with your kind telegram. (signed) Minister Imperial Household.
Senator Domville once before congratulated the Mikado and last year Miss Domville was honored by being decorated with a Japanese Imperial order.

J. T. MELLISH returned last night from Sackville.
HARRY JENKINS, Pownal returned last night from the mainland.
Mrs. HENRY DUNCAN, Royalty returned last night from a trip to Montreal.
Hon. S. E. Reid, Commissioner of Agriculture, came to the city last night.
FRED McDONALD, city, has secured a position with the New England, Milling Co., Dover, N. H., and left for that place yesterday.

Among the Mount Allison students returning to the city last night were Miss Mellish, Miss Davison, Miss Cox, Miss Wellner and Miss Thomas.
Many friends will hear with deep regret of the death of Christian B. McLean, aged 20, son of the late John A. McLean, City, which took place early yesterday morning. The deceased had been in gradually failing health for some months but he bore up manfully and with true Christian resignation till the end came. The late Mr. McLean who was a favorite with all his acquaintances was a member of No. VIII Army Medical Corps and No. 3 C. A., and before his illness was Assistant Secretary of the Y.M.C.A. in which he took a deep interest. There are left to mourn a mother, four brothers and one sister, who have much sympathy in their bereavement.

LUMBER ROW ON ST. JOHN RIVER

American Booms Stop the Boundary River—New Brunswicker Cuts Booms—Shots are Fired, Boats and Supplies Cut Adrift.

St. John, May 31.—(Special)—The conditions on the upper St. John River are becoming serious.
An American lumber company at Vanburen has erected booms in the river which prevent the free passage of logs and New Brunswicker operators strongly oppose these proceedings.
Levi Pond is contractor for log driving at that place and on Sunday while going up river he cut away one of the booms in order to get past.
At the next boom he was met by a number of American lumber men who had rafts. One shot was fired but nobody was hurt.
Mr. Pond's party was warned and he laid up for the night.
During the night his boats with supplies were cut away and allowed to drift down stream. Mr. Pond at last accounts was determined to force a passage and was today to make another attempt. Conditions look serious.

ACCIDENT IN MONCTON YARD

MONCTON, May 31.—(Special)—While engaged shunting in the I. C. R. yard here this afternoon brakeman Fred Isaacs met with a frightful accident. He attempted to board a moving train of box cars when he slipped and fell beneath the wheels which crushed his right leg at the thigh and right arm at the shoulder.
It is feared the injuries will prove fatal.

A NORTH WEST TOWN SCORCHED

WINNIPEG, May 31.—(Special)—The business section of Waukegan, a town on the Canadian Northern between Port Arthur and Winnipeg, was destroyed by fire this morning at a loss of $200,000.
Nineteen houses and two stores were burned.

THE WEATHER.

TORONTO, May 31.—(Special)—Moderate winds, fine, not much change in temperature.
THE TEMPERATURE.
Much milder weather prevailed yesterday.

THE WONDERS OF THE BODY.

Its mechanism, like delicate machinery, by even a slight cause is so disarranged as to be practically useless. A headache is no trifling matter because the stomach, kidneys and liver are sure to be affected. To cure the cause of headaches and prevent new attacks, use Ferrone; it aids the stomach by supplying nourishing blood, vitalizes the nerves and brain instantly. Ferrone braces—gives tone—elevates your spirits. No such health bringer known. Fifty cents per box of fifty chocolate coated tablets at all dealers.

CZAR NICHOLAS SUMMONS HIS IMPERIAL COUNSELLORS

To Decide What to Do—Togo's Victory Strikes Russia with Amazement—The Japanese Admiral's Report of the Fight Shows The Russian Fleet Practically Destroyed—Rojestvensky a Prisoner, Wounded but will Recover.

Tokio, May 31.—(Special)—It is now certain that Rojestvensky is a prisoner of the Japs and is in hospital suffering from wounds in the forehead, legs and back which while serious will not prove fatal.
Admiral Volkensam is supposed to have perished.
St. Petersburg, May 31, 5.35 p. m.—The seriousness of the situation created by the complete destruction of the Russian fleet seems to be fully realized at Tsarko Selo where the Emperor has assembled practically all the members of the imperial family to decide on the course to pursue.
A series of conferences are proceeding which will determine not only the question of peace but whether it is advisable to yield to the popular demand for the immediate convention of a National Assembly.
Some of the members of the imperial family are understood to be urging His Majesty to retrieve the situation by making a common cause with the people against the bureaucracy.
Lodz Russian Poland, May 31.—(Special)—A conflict between strikers and Cossacks occurred here today.
The soldiers were stoned by the mob who were trying to bring out some weavers who were at work, whereupon the troops fired, killing two men and wounding six.
A condition almost approaching anarchy exists here, the strikers seemingly having supreme control.

Tokio, May 31.—(Special)—Admiral Togo telegraphing today says the naval battle fought from the afternoon of May 27th to May 28th in the vicinity of Okino Islands and extending to the vicinity of Orient Islands is called the battle of the Sea of Japan.
Togo also reports that Vice Admiral Enquist was captured with Rojestvensky and that the prisoners will exceed three thousand.
WASHINGTON, May 31.—The Japanese legation tonight received the following cablegram from Tokio: "Fifth report from Togo received afternoon, May 30: The main force of our combined fleet, upon accepting surrender of the remaining Russian main force, near Liancur rocks, on the afternoon of May 28, as already reported, stopped pursuing and while in the disposition of surrender our ships found in the southwestern direction the Admiral Ushakoff, a coast defence ship. Thereupon Iwate and Yakumo were immediately despatched in pursuit, and invited her to surrender, but she refused and was sunk at 6 p. m. Her crew of over 300 men were rescued.

"The cruiser Donitiori Dunskoj was also found in the northwestern direction at 5 p. m., and was immediately overtaken and fired on vigorously by our fourth division and second destroyer fleet. She was attacked that night by the second destroyer flotilla and the next morning was found aground on the southeastern shore of Ureung Island, off the Korean coast.
"Our destroyer Sazanami captured toward the evening of May 27 in the south of Ureung Island, the Russian destroyer Diodovy, wherein were found Admiral Rojestvensky and another admiral, both severely wounded, together with eighty Russians, including staff officers from the Russian fleet, which was sunk at 5.20 p. m. on May 29. They were all taken prisoners.
Our cruiser Chitose, while cruising to the northward on the morning of May 28, found and sank another Russian destroyer. Our cruiser Niyitaka and destroyer Murakumo attacked also at noon on May 28 a Russian destroyer which finally went aground.
"According to the prisoners the Oshliabla sank about 3 p. m. and the Navarin also was sunk. The Almaz on May 27th, was observed in a disabled and sinking condition, but her final fate is yet unknown.
"The full particulars regarding the injury to our ships are not yet in hand but so far as I could ascertain, none was seriously injured, all being still engaged in operations. The whole casualties are not yet known. Casualties of first division are little over four hundred. Prince Yorhito is in excellent health. Admiral Mitsu is slightly wounded.

"Sixth report received on the afternoon of May 29th: Loss of Okinawajima and Navarin confirmed. Sisoel Volkil also definitely reported to have sunk on the morning of May 28."

PROCEEDINGS IN PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA, May 31.—(Special)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier said today that the Government would probably not be able to go on with the Autonomy debate until Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.
The House spent the whole day in passing the supplementary estimates and finished all but two items. The main estimates will be taken up next week.
Mr. Prefontaine announced that the Government would do the dredging required for the extension of St. John harbor facilities.
The House adjourned till Monday.

DEATH SENTENCE BRIEFLY STAYED

MONTPELIER, May 3.—(Special)—Governor Bell today granted a reprieve to Mrs. Mary Rogers, under sentence of death for the murder of her husband Marcus Rogers. She was to have been executed on Friday.
Governor Bell says he will not again interfere with the course of the law but wishes to have settled any doubt concerning Mrs. Rogers' constitutional rights.
It is not believed that clemency will be exercised. The case will now be brought before the Supreme Court.
