NEW ANNAN MATINEE.—The big matinee at New Annan will be held on June 18th as first advertised in order not to interfere with the race at Upton on July 22. 3685-6-14-28.

EXPERIMENTING with mixtures peddled as fox feeds is bothersome and costly. Buy R-M. standard fox biscuit, Kibbio and meat meal from your local dealer and save money. 3678-6-14-28.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Miss Phyllis Stewart gave a little birthday party at the Green Lantern last week, for her 13th birthday. The children had a most delightful time and on leaving wished their hostess many happy returns of the day.—S.

VISITING PRIESTS.—Rev. Father McKenna of Lot 7 and Rev. Douglas McNeill, who is now assisting at Tynish parish, are visiting Rev. Dr. McLellan of Summerside for a few days.—S.

SLUGGERS WIN FIRST GAME OF SECTION.—On the Summerside School Diamond on Tuesday evening the Harris Sluggers played the day for the first section of the game of the first section of the Summerside Baseball League, and won with the good margin of 14-7. Considering the wet grounds, game was good and proved interesting as there was some argument about the players before the game was over. There was a good attendance of fans.—S.

FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED.—The funeral of Mrs. Bassett, which was held on Tuesday afternoon from her home in North St. Eleanor, to the cemetery at Lot 16 was very largely attended, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. J. B. Wilson conducted the service both at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Samuel Beaton, Ray Harris, Roy Tanton, Harry Cannon, Fred Cannon and Harlan Inman.—S.

QUIET WEDDING.—A quiet wedding was solemnized on Monday, June 13th, at the Baptist Parsonage, Summerside, when Rev. J. B. Wilson united in marriage Harry Doull of Carleton and Miss Bessie Crossman of Cape Traverse. The bride and groom were unattended. Mr. Doull is a well known resident of Carleton and his many friends wish him and his bride every happiness through life.—S.

Tryon and Vicinity

A large sized audience enjoyed one of the best plays of the season on Thursday evening, June 9th when the "Utopian Group" of the Tryon United Church presented "Red Acre Farm," a 3-act comedy drama.

The cast of characters was as follows: Josiah Armstrong (the owner of "Red Acre Farm"), Austin Smith, Amanda Armstrong (Josiah's wife), Alma Lea, Laura Armstrong (a poor weak sinner), Dorothy Woodside, Jannah Jones (a farm helper), Walter Wood.

"Junior" (adopted daughter of the Strutt's, Leah Lord, Nellie Armstrong (divorced from home), Margaret Walker, Harry Harcourt (profligate son of wealth), Archie Thompson, Colonel Strutt ("crawling Clifford"), Wendell Lea, Mrs. Strutt (the Colonel's wife), Retta Toombs.

Tom Busby (a travelling Merchant), Chas. Wright, Dick Randall (who seeks his fortune), Gordon Lord, Squire Harcourt (who holds the mortgage), Burpee Carr.

This play was full of laughter from start to finish and the different performers were masters of their respective parts and cleverly impersonated the character assumed. The specialties between acts were especially good.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Lund of Tryon are at present attending conference in Sackville, N. B.

Messrs. Asher Howatt, Oge Surenson, Calvin Howatt, George Robblee and Clayton Thomas, motored to Summerside and Kensington on Saturday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Whit Howatt of Victoria accompanied by Mrs. Stetford Mullins of Tryon West were recent visitors to the provincial capital.

It is regrettable that Mr. Fenton Howatt of Tryon Branch Roads has had the misfortune to lose another valuable horse, the second one this spring.

Mr. Frizzell of Bedeque, road supervisor, made a business trip to Tryon on Friday June 10th.

Gardening has been the order of the day for the past couple of weeks in Tryon, and although there is plentiful moisture, more warmth and sunlight are needed to make things grow. Both May and June so far have been cold, windy months, but here's hoping.

Mrs. Blanche Lea, who has spent the past winter in Charlottetown with her daughter, Mrs. Hiram Howatt, is now spending a month at her old home in Tryon. Her many friends are more than pleased to welcome her back again.

The Tryon branch of the Egg Circle held a very interesting and instructive meeting in the hall at Tryon on Friday evening June 10th. Mr. Lloyd Stordy of Tryon Branch Roads occupied the chair. Mr. Lightizer of the P. E. Island Co-operative Egg and Poultry Association was present and gave a splendid address, and answering the numerous questions concerning the egg circle asked by interested members. Mr. F. M. Nash, also of the P. E. Island Co-operative Egg and Poultry Association, was also present and gave some very helpful hints on the poultry business. Hon. Walter M. Lea of Victoria received their bonus on eggs shipped during the past year, which amounted to about seven cents on the dollar. Mr. William Anderson of Tryon is manager of the circle.—D.
