HAMILTON TEACHER APPEALS AGAINST MAGISTRATE'S RULING
HAMILTON, Ont., Dec. 9.—C. V. Lange, who is acting for the school teacher fined $10 by Magistrate Jells last week for severely punishing a child, entered an appeal today at the request of the teacher. Through the Board of Education and the Teachers' Council have gone on record as favoring an appeal. These bodies have not taken action and will not do so now that the teacher has appealed on her own initiative.
The case will likely be heard on December 16, when the Nunc. Division Court is in session, and Judge Gault will preside.
