

BILIOUS HEADACHE QUICKLY REMEDIED

TAKE DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS TO-NIGHT—YOU'LL BE QUITE WELL IN THE MORNING

"My food soured after meals—I had acute acid-pains and gas rose from my stomach. My head ached, and I felt depressed, tired, nervous.

Hidden constipation caused my trouble but I corrected it with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Today I am "regular"—full of pep—digest well, feel like a new man."

Dr. Hamilton's Pills is probably just what you need—they are smooth—don't gripe—no inconvenience and a "sure-starter" for better health.

Cardigan Head And Vicinity

Mr. Thomas Sheppard, Cardigan Head, is spending a short time in the City.

Dr. A. A. Allan, Cardigan, was a visitor to Elliotville on Friday.

Quite a number of young people from the vicinity attended the concert consisting of a three act play and other specialties presented in New Perth last on Thursday night by the Summerville players under the direction of Mr. Joseph Murphy. The audiences were well pleased with the evening's entertainment and the members of the cast are to be complimented on their splendid performance.

Between acts the audience were entertained with some very interesting specialties. A recitation was given by Miss Mary Murphy, Step Dance by Mr. J. B. McMillan which was rather a treat to see this very aged gentleman stepping to the violin. Song—Under the Texas Moon by Mr. Albert Murphy and Miss Mary Murphy. At the conclusion of the programme Mr. Joseph Murphy in a few well chosen words thanked the audience for their good attendance and perfect order throughout the programme. All joined in singing God Save the King. Lunches were sold, and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly wiled away in dancing to the strains of Webster's Orchestra.

Mr. Thomas Curran, 48 Road, was a visitor to the City on Friday.

Mr. Jack Webster, Cardigan Head, was in the city on Friday as one of the contestants who took part in the Old Time Fiddling Contest put on by Kelly and McInnis.
