Guardian's Great Campaign Is Now Open--Boost for Your Favorite Now

Names of Candidates Nominated Published To-day for First Time--Subscribers Should Vote for Their Favorite Now While Most Votes are Given Nominate Someone To-day.

The Guardian's great circulation drive officially opens this morning. Interest in the great campaign is increasing daily and the publishers of the Guardian have had many words of congratulation on the splendid enterprise which they have undertaken to increase the already large circulation of the paper.

Many people have already entered the campaign and those who are thinking of entering should not delay a moment longer. Now is the time to get started while the big votes are given. Those who have not nominated a candidate should do so today, and either him or her win the big $1,250.00 prize, or one of the other valuable prizes. There are many splendid awards and cash commissions to those who enter the big drive and are active throughout.

The Studebaker is now on display at A. Horn & Co's show room and you are invited to call and see this splendid car. It has many new features this year and is a prize worthy of real good earnest effort. Someone will win this fine car and that someone may just as well be you. Perhaps you have been thinking of entering the campaign, but you are still hesitating for some reason. Don't hesitate any longer. You may be the very one to win the Studebaker. Why not make up your mind now. A day now may mean the difference between success and failure at the end. Phone 2000 and get details. Promptness is a virtue. DO IT NOW.

Many Splendid Prizes.

There are many great prizes in the big campaign. The second grand prize is a $1,385 Maxwell Touring car. The Maxwell is one of the most beautiful cars on the continent. It is also one of the real good cars on the market today. Colin H. Stewart the Maxwell dealer is now displaying this splendid car in his show room. Summer drive candidates are all invited to see it and inspect it. Then the next thing to do is to win it.

The Ennis and Co. piano, purchased from Miller Bros. is also on display now and will be a splendid reward for someone. The Chesterfield, richly upholstered in the Gispay at Holman's Ltd., Summerside and is undoubtedly one of the most attractive awards of the campaign.

Next comes the Radio-phonograph. This splendid $138 set has been purchased from The Rogers Hardware Co. It is doubtful if a more attractive award could be offered. Everyone throughout the world is interested in Radio just now and someone is going to win a beautiful set in The Guardian's Drive. This fortunate winner will be able to "listen in" on the great concerts, addresses, sermons and all big events, broadcasted from the big sending stations.

Then there is $100 worth of merchandise from Prowse Bros. Ltd., store. The winner will have his or her choice of goods to the value of $100--a splendid prize indeed.

A Kitchen Cabinet is the next prize and then a sewing machine. And everybody wins as all who continue actively in the campaign will receive 10 per cent commission on all the money they collect.

The time to enter the big drive is now. Every day lost means that you will have to work that much harder later on. The big vote schedule is in effect now and the first period of the drive comes to a close Sept. 30. Candidates should make the most of every advantage and secure every possible vote and subscription before next Saturday night. Don't lose out on this first period vote--real effort put forth this week may be the means of your winning a much better reward. Someone will win the Studebaker--a wonderful prize for such a few weeks effort. And that someone might just as well be you. Make up your mind this very moment to win, then get busy. Everyone knows about the great circulation drive--now and candidates will find it easier each day to get subscriptions as their friends become more interested and enticed in the campaign.

Moslem Troops are Concentrating Along Dead Line of Neutral Zone

Concluding Lectures at St. James' Hall

"Wilfrid Ward" and some Problems of 'Democracy'
Ablly Discussed Yesterday by Dr. Stewart.

Two splendid lectures by Dr. Stewart yesterday afternoon and evening at St. James' hall upon "Wilfrid Ward" and "Some Problems of Democracy" concluded the series which have created a precedent along the lines of high class intellectual entertainment in Charlottetown. The lectures all of which have been thoroughly enjoyed will be remembered with keen pleasure by everyone privileged to be present. Rev. Mr. MacKinnon last evening, at which there was a particularly large attendance.

At the conclusion of Dr. Stewart's lecture last evening, a vote of thanks moved by Judge Stewart and seconded by Mayor Jenkins, was tendered to him. Mayor Jenkins also moved, seconded by Mr. W. L. Cotton, a warm vote of thanks to the ladies of St. James' Guild for taking the initiative in securing the services of Dr. Stewart. Rev. W. O. Mulligan on behalf of the Ladies Guild, fittingly replied and stated that she hoped to secure Dr. Clarence Fraser of Halifax for a second course of University lectures after Christmas.

At the afternoon lecture yesterday, Dr. Stewart said that he proposed that afternoon to make his audience acquainted with an English essayist, biographer, and magazine editor who was far less known than he should be--Wilfrid Ward, who had died just six years ago, had rendered an immense service to his age in interpreting the "Oxford Movement" and the "Catholic Revival." He was the official biographer of it in the published list next Monday, so that your friends will know that you are an active candidate and in this way will be able to help you.

Let your motto be Hustle Hustle.

(Special to The Guardian.) BELFAST, Sept. 22.—The Sussex regiment left Londonderry this afternoon with its destination it is understood the Near East. An advance party of the North Staffordshire regiment, the Okech battalion of which is at Constantinople travelled by the same steamer.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—The French cabinet decided that in view of the refusal of the British to withdraw their forces from Chanak on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles the efforts of the French government should be directed toward preventing war between Turkey and Great Britain. To this end it was agreed immediately to send Franklin Bouillon to Smyrna. M. Bouillon was the negotiator of the agreement reached at Angora between the French and the Turkish Nationalists. He will urge upon Mustafa Kemal Pasha the necessity of remaining in Asia Minor until the peace terms are decided upon.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Lord Curzon, British Foreign Minister announced today that the Allied Conference here is drafting the terms of the invitation to the Near East peace party which will be sent to Constantinople. The leader of the Turkish Nationalists.

The invitation it was announced contains broad outlines of the terms on which the Allies have agreed as a basis of peace. CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 22.—Aircraft attacks on a large scale probably will be resumed at the conference and place for the British and Turks, with the Turks reported bringing up heavy artillery and hurrying their shock troops from Smyrna toward the new front. The British have assembled powerful aircraft squadrons behind their lines and are ready to loose them the minute Mustafa Kemal's forces cross the deadline in Asia. The border of the neutral zone, violation of which means war.

Tanks are being rushed to the Near East. The Moslems are assembling in great strength along the deadline according to reports filtering back but the British troops backed by the guns of the fleet are ready for any eventualities.

Turks reported to be advancing.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Kemalists are reported advancing toward the neutral zone and France has despatched General Bouillon to Kemal Pasha to endeavor to persuade him to halt until a peace conference can be held.

Britain and France's estrangement

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The British government announced they will not withdraw from Chanak under any circumstances. The British government considers that allied unity has been jeopardized by France who has made peace with a former common enemy behind the back of Britain in spite of Anglo-French conventions and the original terms of the armistice.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Great Britain has refused categorically to withdraw her troops from Chanak, and has so informed the French government. This was definitely stated in official British circles tonight, in reply to a persistent report in French quarters that the British forces would probably be retired on the other side of the straits.

Great Racing Programme For Exhibition Week

About Sixty five Fast Horses Waiting to Compete in Next Week's Big Exhibition Racing Meet put on at The Charlottetown Driving Park.

Interest is steadily gaining as the dates of the Exhibition horse races approach. Discriminating horsemen have come to the conclusion that we have the best fields of entries at any race meet given in the Maritime provinces this year.

Wednesday's Races

Take for instance the races which will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 27th. The 2.21 Class Trot has seven entries, among them being The Acrobat, 2.18 1/2 winner of seven races on six different tracks this summer, not to speak of several other winners in the United States; Mothers Boy, 2.20 1/4 winner of four races on two different tracks; Miss Belle Rico, 2.18 1/4, winner of three races this year; Brenton H., 2.18 1/4; winner of five races this year; Carrie B. Todd, 2.18 1/4; winner of two races this year and Alice The Great, 2.19 1/4; winner of one race this year. In addition, there was the Harry T. 2.15 1/4; who raced so well the 2.17 Trot last fall; Our Peggy 2.20 1/4; Don Bailey, 2.25 1/4; Batonette, 2.20 1/4; Radiant, 2.22 3/4, and several others, including one of the greatest trotters that ever stepped on a track in the Maritime Provinces--Mayor Todd, 2.15 1/2. Now can anyone ask for a better class of trotters than this? And yet it is remarkable that some people have said that our races this year were not going to be as good as other years. The above array which will surely start will provide one of the greatest if not the greatest trotting races ever held in the Maritime Provinces. Horsemen and those claiming to know something about racing say that Secretary Smallwood has achieved an absolute coup in his entries for this year.

The 2.25 Class Trot.

This class has another big entry list, no less than fifteen having paid their good $25 apiece to have a try at the $500 purse. They have journeyed from far and near and they are not coming for their health but to race horses. There will surely be twelve starters and these twelve have at least five horses among them that are very evenly matched. These are, we should say: Mothers Boy, 2.20 1/4; Mary Pickford, 2.20 1/4; Alice the Great, 2.19 1/4; The Acrobat, 2.18 1/2; Mac Todd, matinee record 2.19 1/4. In addition there are Radiant, second in 2.15 in one of the recent Matine races, James W. McKinley, 2.18 1/4, very fast but a trifle erratic; Don Bailey, who recently worked a mile in 2.20 quite easily; and several others. Brenton H., is also entered in this race but may possibly not start--reserving his effort for the 2.17 class.

The 2.40 Class Pace.

This race has fourteen entries including Miss Simmasie 2.19 1/4, Prince Wilkes, 2.20 1/4, Miss Louanda, 2.24 1/2, Nellie D. matinee record 2.20 1/4, Mayanda, trial 2.18 1/4, Francis C. trial 2.20 1/4, Chief Aubrey, matinee record 2.21, Peter Aubrey, trial 2.20 1/2, Winnie M. winner of three races this year, Babe Aubrey, trial 2.21 1/4, and others. This will make a real race from start to finish and who can pick a winner?

The other classes which will be raced are:

The 2.17 Trot.

There are eleven entries for this race. It will be one of the best of the entire series and will bring together one of the finest fields of trotters--and the most evenly matched field--ever seen in action here. Just glance over this list of entries: Miss Eldred, 2.18 1/4; Miss Belle Rico, 2.18 1/4; Brenton H., 2.18 1/4; Mayor Todd, 2.15 1/2; Alice the Great 2.19 1/4; Natalie Aquilin, 2.20 1/4; Colorado, 2.16 1/4; Carrie B. Todd, 2.22 1/4; Bavaria, matinee record, 2.16 1/4; The Yank 2.26 1/4. Can any sport lover expect to get together a better field of trotters for Maritime racing? We think not. Each of them has made true history during the past summer and each will strive to win. They will create enthusiastic approval from what will no doubt be a crowded grand stand.

The 3 Minute Trot which has thirteen paid up entries and all thirteen horses will also start. Every owner believes his horse has chances to win, and we believe he has. They are all evenly matched, have had excellent training, and will put up a good race.

Altogether there will be some sixty-five horses to compete in the events, giving an average field of ten horses. We cannot see why the races from the point of material and entry list should not be all that horse lovers could expect. Secretary Smallwood has labored unceasingly to bring together these horses which have come from various points in the Maritime Provinces and has in addition provided one of the greatest musical attractions ever brought to the province--the St. Patrick's Band of Halifax with over forty musicians. The enterprise of the directors of the Charlottetown Driving Park should meet with the enthusiastic endorsement of
