International League opens Season today

NEW YORK, April 15—(AP)—The International League, baseball's oldest minor circuit, opens a wartime season tomorrow just as it has done in peaceful times. Having come through two wars unscathed, the league plans to carry on as far as possible through the third in its usual way, and so far there have been few indications of changes.

Newark's 1941 champions are looking for only about 10,000 first-day customers, in contrast to last year's 12,000. Even though the city commission has proclaimed a half holiday for municipal employees and service men will be admitted free, however, in nearby Jersey City, where many of the regular customers also are working on defence jobs, Mayor Frank Hague says: "We had 60,000 last year and we can do it again."

Actually, 61,850 tickets—a minor league record—were sold for last year's Jersey City opener, although only about 34,000 fans were able to crowd into Roosevelt Stadium, which seats 25,000. About the same conditions probably will prevail tomorrow when the rebuilt Little Giants start off against Montreal Royals, 1941 playoff winners.

Only other warlike notes at present are the absence of a few players who have gone into the armed forces, the military touches planned for the opening-day ceremonies and the scheduling of an all-star game at Buffalo, the night of July 8. Proceeds of this game will be given to the United States and Canadian Red Cross.

Here is how the opening-day program shapes up:—
 Buffalo at Newark: probable attendance, 10,000; probable starting pitchers Mike Roscoe vs. Al Gerhauser.
 Montreal at Jersey City: 60,000; Mex Macon or Ed Alberta vs. Bobby Coombs or John Wittig.
 Rochester at Baltimore: 7,500; Hutchins on vs. Ray Roche.
 Toronto at Syracuse: 8,000; Tom Drake vs. Charles Barrett.

Four of the clubs under the campaign under new managers and all of them are loaded with new players. In most cases, the first-day lineups aren't the ones that will be on the field in a couple of weeks, for major league parent clubs still are sending down players who have had spring trials.

HALIFAX, April 15—(CP)—Montreal Oilers swarmed through Dalhousie University of Halifax for a 50-21 victory in the first game of the Eastern Canada basketball finals here tonight. The second game in the best-of-three series will be played here tomorrow night.

The Halifax squad fought gamely but was outclassed by the speedy Montreal squad which showed a much superior brand of team play, and capitalized on all the breaks going.

The first half ended with the visitors leading by 21-14, with play fairly even throughout. Dalhousie faded in the final half, as Oilers sank baskets after basket on swift breakaways, while the locals could not seem to find the range around the basket.

Wins Undergo Shakeup For Tonight's Sixth Game Of Stanley Cup Series

DETROIT, April 15—(AP)—Detroit Red Wings, who seem to be coming apart at the seams with hockey's prized Stanley Cup within their grasp, underwent a thorough shakeup today for tomorrow's sixth game of the best-of-seven series with Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Red Wings, winners of the first three games but then twice victimized by the revived Leafs, called up three reserves from Indianapolis of the American League to oppose the Leafs who have thrived since Hop Day revised his lineup.

Coach Eddie Gozdzell, masterminding for Detroit since the suspension of Manager Jack Adams from the bench, today named Harwood, plans to use forwards Gus Giesebrecht and Joe Fisher and defenceman Doug McCall in place of Eddie Bush, Pat McReavy and Adam Brown.

If these changes meet with the success Toronto has enjoyed since

Rookie paces Giants to win Over Brooklyn

NEW YORK, April 15—(AP)—In his second day as a regular major leaguer, young Willard Marshall hit the jackpot—a homer with the bases loaded—to give the Giants a 6-4 victory today over Brooklyn Dodgers.

The outfield youngster, fresh up from Atlanta and so highly regarded earlier in the spring that his name does not appear in the National League's annual book of promising prospects, connected for his big blow off Kirby Higbe to highlight a fifth-inning outburst that gave the Giants all their runs.

Elmer was no fiddle at Cincinnati to Pittsburgh Pirates who knocked last year's leading National League hurler from the box with a five-run outburst in the first inning, made it two straight over Cincinnati, 6-2.

Eight men faced the usually steady Georgian before he went to the showers in the face of three singles, a walk and two doubles. Ray Starr, 35-year-old veteran of the minors, relieved him and, spacing four hits, allowed only one run, Bob Elliott's eighth-inning homer.

The Cardinals bunched six of their eight hits in two innings—the fourth and sixth—to defeat Chicago Cubs 4-2 at St. Louis. Frank Cresp, the leadoff man, and Harry Gumbert, the pitcher, were the only cards to go hitless.

Boston Braves made it two straight over the Phils at Philadelphia, gaining a 6-2 victory behind the effective pitching and batting of Jim Tobin.

Port Arthur And Ottawa Open Allan Cup Series In Dominion Capital Tonight

By Alan Harvey

 OTTAWA, April 15—(CP)—The usual clamor preceding a hockey championship series mounted to near-record proportions tonight as Port Arthur Bearcats and Ottawa Royal Canadian Air Force Flyers polished off final practice manoeuvres preliminary to tomorrow's opening of their best-of-five Allan Cup final series.

Tickets were so scarce rink officials inaugurated a rationing system, allotting two to each customer.

Port Arthur, their 12 regular players averaging only 22.6 years, brought the brass club of Jack Cain and Walter Murray will start on defence with Len Pinke in goal.

Coach Touhey said he planned one change in the lineup which he brought Flyers 17 victories and a tie in their last 18 starts and built them into a real threat to bring Ottawa its first senior championship since Cliffside won in 1908. Hank Blade, an Ottawa boy, will replace Alf Kunkel at left wing on Flyers' third line. He will be partnered by Johnny Acheson at right and Vic Haneberry at right wing.

Milt Schmidt and Woody Dumart, big guns of the Kraut line, will work on the first-string unit with George Snell. The Pickles MacNicol-Buddy Heilner-Al Campbell second line will remain intact. Jack Cain and Walter Murray will start on defence with Len Pinke in goal.

Generals and Terriers resume Series tonight

WINNIPEG, April 15—(CP)—Portage La Prairie Terriers, the hottest goal-getting team ever to represent the West in the O.H.A. Memorial Cup hockey final, and Ottawa Generals, the pride of the east, tonight planned their strategy for the second game here tomorrow night. Both are confident of victory.

Coach Charlie Conacher of Generals gave his 15 players a pep talk and afterward said: "I think my boys are more acclimated now to the rink and conditions. We have a good chance of winning the best-of-five series." He said that in the opener of the best-of-five series Generals tired more quickly and "our passing was very bad."

Yanks whip Senators for Second straight

NEW YORK, April 15—(AP)—Joe DiMaggio hit a homer, a double and a single and drove in five runs today at Washington to give New York Yankees a 9-3 victory over the Senators—their second straight triumph of the young American League season.

The defeat spoiled the return to Washington of Bobo Newsom, making his first start since the Senators got him back after five years of wondering about the whereabouts of the former pitcher. He was on the hill during the Yankees' splurge for three runs in the fourth and four runs in the fifth.

The Nats gave Spud Chandler a pounding, finding him for 11 hits, but he was steady in the tight spots and was pulled out of trouble by three double-plays—in two of which he had a part.

Right-hander Joe Dobson, who wound up his 1941 season with seven consecutive triumphs, started off in impressive fashion at Boston by hurling Boston Red Sox to a 3-1 triumph over Philadelphia Athletics with a six-hit performance.

An interesting game of hockey was played in Victoria, B.C., Sunday between the Victoria "Beavers" and the Crapaud Suicide Squad.

The score was 3-1 for Victoria. The first period opened with no score, but in the second period Ferguson scored for Crapaud, the goal was followed by a goal for Victoria when David Boswell tied with a neat tally.

During the last period, Victoria scored twice making the score 3-1. The Victoria goals during the third period were scored by David and Alan Boswell. The following is the line up.

Victoria: Goal, George Sturdy; Defense, Kenneth Miller, Harold Boulter, Forwards, David Boswell, Alan Boswell, Lyman Wood and Frankie Miller.

Crapaud: Goal, George Sturdy; Defense, Hubert Harvey and Fred Norton; Forwards, Ralph Iosbter, Harry Ferguson, George Nicholson and Billie Wood.
