Montrealer Wins Junior Golf Title

RIVERSIDE GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, Saint John, N. B., July 24 (CP)—Bob Hall, handsome Montreal youngster won the Canadian junior golf championship Saturday because he refused to become flustered.

The likable 18-year-old golfer from the Hampstead Club led a field of eight junior provincial amateur champions with a 36 hole medal score of 158.

That was good enough to give him a three stroke margin over Laurie Roland, from Vancouver's Marine Drive Club, who practically beat himself on the last nine.

Bob's 158 wasn't anything particular to shout about in the face of Riverside's par 70-140 for the full distance.

But the photogenic Montrealer took a cracking northwest wind and a full share of adversity in stride.

He played his best nine on the home stretch.

Roland's collapse after three steady nines was inexplicable. It wasn't so much a case of jitters as a sudden inability to do anything right, and tough old Riverside was quick to slap down the blond youngster.

Roland still shudders at the all-too-true nightmare of seven strokes over par for the last five holes. The debacle was complete when he blew himself to a six at the par three 36th home hole.

In third place behind Hall and Roland came an unheralded 16-year-old graduate of the cadette ranks at New Glasgow, N.S. He is Bobby Rae, low-headed, lug-eared and patiently awaiting further growth and poundage.

Defying the spanking nor-wester to blow him off the fairways, Bobby "Lugs" to his buddies helped himself to a rallying par of 40s on the last round and finished with 165.

One of the most disappointed competitors—outside of woful young Roland—was Don Pullen of Thomas, Ont., Municipal Club.

Don was rated a faint threat for the title relinquished by Bill Mawhinney of Vancouver Quilchena, now over the age limit of 18.

Don's widowed mother followed him on the last round but he could do no better than his morning 83 and had to take fourth place with 166.

Don Gardner, from Winnipeg's Charleswood Club, was one stroke back with 167 and Thane Cody, of the Doug Junior provincial champion and Doug Silverberg of Alberta, finished seventh with 168.

Bob Turner from Saskatoon Riverside, was so disgusted with a large 90 on the first round that he called it a day late in the afternoon round and refused to post a score.

Hall's victory in the junior was followed by Ontario's victory in the interprovincial team matches for the Willingdon Cup. The four man Ontario team posted an aggregate medal score of 601 for 36 holes, with Quebec only two strokes away.

The 158 score for Hall, a McGill University student was the highest winning score since the junior competition for the Buckingham Trophy was begun in 1938.

St. Louis Cardinals yesterday (Sunday) took over first place in the National League from Brooklyn Dodgers, trouncing the Dodgers 14-1.

The victory was the Cards' third straight over the Dodgers in the four-game series that ends Monday, and gave them a lead of half a game. Stan Musial paced the 16-hit Card bombardment with a homer, triple, double and single.

The Cards teed off on Luser Don Newcombe and Paul Minner for five straight hits and four runs in the first inning and were never headed.

The cellar-shackled Chicago Cubs stunned New York Giants with a double setback, 5-3, and 6-1. Right-hander Bob Rush and Doyle Lade turned back the Giants, with Dave Kosio and Larry Jansen absorbing the defeats.

Cincinnati Reds pushed over a run in the ninth inning of the second game to defeat Philadelphia Phillies 4-3 and sweep both ends of a double-header, after romping off with the first game, 10-1. A single by Jim Bloodworth, a passed ball and hit by Dixie Howell sent in the winning run in the night-cap.

Pittsburgh Pirates came from behind twice to sweep a double-header from Boston Braves, 4-3 and 7-6. For the Pirates, Ralph Kiner belted his 27th homer in the first inning of the nightcap after Johnny Hopp tripped and scored on a wild throw.

Great Racing Again Witnessed At Night Program Saturday

Attendance records for a night racing meet went by the boards Saturday night at the exhibition track when a crowd estimated at over 5000 crowded into the brilliantly-lit racing enclosure to again witness stirring racing duels, duels that added to the swelling list of upset victories recorded so far this season, with some of the favorites going down to defeat during the pulsating action.

Bettors that poured over $17,000 into the pari-mutuels during the waning saw the biggest single day of the season when Speedwell Guy, driven expertly by "Ike" Moreside, captured the No. Seven event to pay off $105.70 for each two dollar ticket to win and $24.20 for place tickets, while the other unexpected victories also returned big profits to the long-shot wagers.

Speedwell Guy's victory was the most thrilling one, but right from the very first mile when Winnie's Last started things off with an unexpected win, the big crowd were treated to the type of racing that has been the vogue here all season long.

Yes, we would say that this season's racing tops all other years in nearly every department. The uncertainty that has surrounded the outcome of the races, and especially when one takes into consideration the fact that in a good many instances the same group of horses are meeting weekly, has been terrific and although we have not kept a record of it, cases are pretty far apart where trotters and pacers have been able to put together successive winning summaries.

Old Home Week's racing program is now the matter of just three weeks away. Indications now are that the entry list will break all existing records and it is likely that before the final heat has been run many other records, such as attendance, type of racing, to mention a few will also have gone by the boards.

"Big Jim" Pendogast, at present recovering from a hip injury comes in a step behind as granted but a total of four bingles to a crew that last year just failed to win the three-Province junior crown.

The second game was another pitchers' battle, Smith, stylish left hander of the winners granting but three safeties while Donnie MacLean of the Knights was just a step behind as granted but a total of four bingles to a crew that last year just failed to win the three-Province junior crown.

Knights Lose Close Games To Dieppe

Charlie Ryan's Knights of Columbus junior baseball squad lost both ends of a double-header bill to Dieppe Cardinals in exhibition games played at Dieppe, N. B., yesterday afternoon. Scores were 4-2 and 3-0.

A big crowd of fans saw the two junior squads wage close-knit tussles all the way, with Harris, on the negotiation list of Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League, tossing a four-hitter at the locals in the opener while Phil Murphy, Knights moundman was granting but six.

The district weather forecast looked over the course and said bright weather with winds up to 25 miles an hour from the north-west should puff the craft along.

First finish line appearance is due for sometime Monday. No former winner of the race was in the fleet that started but the 1947 third-place Onward III was off with the others.

The Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron, whose seven entries came here for the race back home, are co-sponsors of the sail.

Carrying the Royal Nova Scotia burgee are these craft: Cygnnet, cutter, D.C.G. Innes; Katiwake, ketch, H. T. Balshaw; Scrapper, sloop, Dr. G. K. MacIntosh; Eskasoni, schooner, J. C. Mackeen; Wanderer IX, D. R. Turnbull; Kadiac, schooner, J. Fetter; Glisse, sloop, Royal Canadian Navy.

The race ends inside the break-water in Halifax harbor.

20 Yachts Off On 366-Mile Race

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., July 24 (AP)—A mated breeze and a perfect summer day Saturday sailed with more than 20 yachts on a 366-mile race to Halifax, home for several of the entries.

The district weather forecast looked over the course and said bright weather with winds up to 25 miles an hour from the north-west should puff the craft along.

First finish line appearance is due for sometime Monday. No former winner of the race was in the fleet that started but the 1947 third-place Onward III was off with the others.

Upsets Begin Early

Winnie's Last, going to the front in the early part of the opening dash, was a bit too good for the other six entries in the first heat of the night coming under the wire a length to the good over the fast-coosing Joandale with Miss Playfair, recovering from a disastrous break winding up third among five closely-packed horses.

That was only the start, however. In the Number Two event after Buddy Budlong had got away to a flying start to lead the dash, he was overtaken by the pole Bonnie Dale, trotting steadily in the stretch to win by herself, but the remainder of the field finished as thick as flies around molasses with Buddy retaining his second slot over Tim O'Shaunko and Speedwell Guy.

Speedwell Guy's fine effort in that mile was more or less overlooked but he proved it was no fluke as Driver Moreside took him on the back side the first lap around to make every post a winning one. But although he did lead all the way it was a spectacular kind of finish. Bonnie Dale making her bid at the three-quarters quarters, jumped it off to fall far back but Buddy Budlong and Baron, trotting a storm took up the challenge. The trio finished so close that a photo was needed to split them, with Speedwell a nose to the good over Colonel MacKinnon's Baron, and Buddy third just inches behind. As mentioned before the payoff was $103.70 with Baron paying $18.30 to place.

Feature Split Up

Dashes number three and eight, the feature events of the program turned into hard-driving nip and tuck battles. In the first heat Wilkin went to the front at the first turn to remain there, beating off Nell Kalmuck's closing drive; Wait N'See, trotting very fast was third, a step behind in the eighth event it was Vella la Vella under the wire first. Before the half had been reached Vella had paced around the field to go to the front. Strung out pretty well the first part of the mile, the field of five had bunched up at the seven-eighths pole had been reached, but in the race down the stretch Vella had too much pace left. Wilkin still being a length behind at the wire with Josedale Hoosier third, Nell Kalmuck fourth and Wait N'See fifth. Wilkin's first mile was in 2:10, equalling the fastest mile paced here this season.

Neck And Neck Finishes

Classes numbers four and nine produced the best competition of the evening as the eight starting pacers came down to the wire in neck and neck finishes both trips. Dale B., an added starter, came through the centre of a packed field twenty yards from the wire to win his first heat from fast-closing Billy Conn, Miss Knox and Ola Budlong, the latter leading most of the way. But in the second heat it was Miss Knox. Improving with every start Miss Knox was content to trail until the stretch had been reached.

PARISH PICNIC

At TRACADIE WEDNESDAY July 27th

Don Vary of Brantford took his afternoon round but contributed a valuable two-under-par 33 on the second nine in the morning and finished that round with 71.

George Eluck of Windsor Roadland posted 77-81, with two low nines of 38 each.

The New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island team, politely taking last place as hosts for the occasion, was led by T. K. Stewart with 156 score, a morning 80 and afternoon 75.

Ontario's winning 601, for that Province's 10th championship, was 23 strokes off the record 578 set by British Columbia at Hamilton in 1948.

Every man on the Ontario team had a share in the victory. Farley, the Toronto Scarborough veteran, shot a consistent and dependable 72-74 and was off the fairway only once.
