Papers Not Keen To Hurt People

GLOUCESTER, England, Nov. 25—(CP)—Justice Humphreys trusts the press and he so expressed himself at the Gloucester assizes when a solicitor asked that certain references to the health of his client should not be published.

"My experience of the press," said the judge, "is that they have no desire to injure any person. They desire only to publish to the public only such information as will interest them, and I leave it to their discretion, which is always admirably exercised."

Hitch Occurs In Strike Negotiations

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25 — A jurisdictional difference between two unions today blocked completion of United States Government efforts to speed emergency relief ships to strike-bound Alaska.

Peace negotiations started again between coastwise shippers and one of the striking west coast unions.

The Union hitch developed shortly after Col. O. F. Ohlson, manager of the Government-owned Alaska railroad, detailed plans to move fresh food, passengers and general cargo to the northern territory aboard ships chartered by the authority of President Roosevelt.

Ohlson said the International Longshoremen's Union declined to sign a working agreement pending an adjustment of two different methods of hiring stevedores involved.

Scores Policy Of Indifference

LONDON, Nov. 25 — (CP-Havas)—Alfred Duff Cooper, secretary for war, scoring advocates of a British policy of indifference toward continental affairs, declared in a speech here tonight: "In the doctrine of isolation there is no solution—only surrender or destruction."

"I would never support our rearmament if I thought it gave any country in the world the least cause for alarm," he added.

"All the world knows, and even the opposition is finding out, that our rearmament is the minimum of what is required in order that we may defend our own shores and carry out our international obligations."

GRAIN

(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

WINNIPEG, Nov. 26—Private advices that frost covered a larger section of Argentina than had been generally anticipated accompanied fractional rises in wheat prices on the Winnipeg grain exchange today.

Futures values closed 1-8 to 5-8 cent higher, November and May at $1.08 1-8, December $1.06 3-8, and July $1.06 5-8, after a session in which 1,000,000-bushel export sales enabled the market to resist heavy profit-taing.

Steadiness prevailed in the cash-grains section. In quiet trading, coarse grains prices were firm, with the exception of rye which was under light liquidation throughout the session.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 26—(AP)—Wheat futures advanced 1-2 to 1 1-2 cents in a steady market today, December closing at $1.20 and March selling at $1.14. The market opened slightly dearer but gave way moderately.
