WEDDING BELLS—The following wedding is copied from the Sun, of Viscount, Sask., dated Dec. 24th, and the groom is a son of the late Mr. Alex. Hamilton, New Perth, P.E. I.: At Viscount, Wednesday, Dec. twenty-second, at eleven o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Winters was the scene of a pretty event when about thirty relatives and friends gathered to witness the marriage of their eldest daughter, Margaret Beatrice, to Mr. John St. Clair Hamilton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. E. Dewdney, of Prince Albert, Sask. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of white satin over embroidered net trimmed with pearls. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss C. Beaton. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a wedding breakfast at a well laden table. The bride and groom left at three o'clock to drive to the home of Mr. Donald McLean to attend the marriage of the bride's brother. From there they proceeded to Colonsay, where they took the midnight train for Regina, Calgary and other points. The bride's traveling suit was of dark brown broadcloth with black picture hat and furs. The young couple received many pretty and useful presents including a cheque for one hundred dollars from the bridegroom's mother. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace and pendant set with pearls.

... is a man of industrious spirit also a man of high ideals. The carpenter Mr. Joseph Doucette of Rustico is deserving of much credit for his excellent workmanship and only the best of materials were used. Messrs John Carr and Benjamin Carr of Kensington were the plasterers and certainly completed a work that will meet with the approval of any experienced inspector of the trade. Last but not least is the painter Mr. William Sutherland of Kensington who is one of the most accomplished and up-to-date painters and decorators on P. E. Island. It is to be hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and family will enjoy their new home. The members of the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches of Hunter River united in a week of prayer which proved an uplift and blessing to all, the power of Christ touching each heart and lifting them to higher ideals.—Com.

S., was over on a business trip to Scotchfort recently. He reports times good in New Glasgow.—S.

BOYS CONFERENCE—A very enthusiastic "Boys Conference" was held in Victoria on Jan. 7, 8, 9, with an attendance of upwards of seventy boys from the surrounding communities. The meetings were conducted by several of P. W. C. Students all members of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Charlottetown. The first meeting was opened at five o'clock with a bean supper given by the young ladies of the Victoria Study Club. After the supper a series of short speeches were made by the young men, and then a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the young ladies for their kind and generous treatment of all present. After singing the National Anthem the meeting adjourned to meet again at 7.30 in the Methodist Church, where a public meeting was held, opened by the pastor Rev. G. M. Young. After addresses on "What is a Hero" by Mr. S. Proffitt and "What the Boys of Canada are doing" by Mr. N. McEwen, short addresses were given by Rev. J. S. McKay and Rev. A. Hurn. The meeting closed by singing "A Better Day is coming," followed by the Benediction. Another session was held on Saturday from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m. in the Hall. This meeting was for the boys exclusively. On Sunday there were two more special meetings for the boys one at 10.30 a. m. the other at 2.30 p. m. and 7 p. m. Another public meeting was held, which was very largely attended. Addresses were given by Mr. A. Gillis, and Rev. G. M. Young. After a few words from Messrs Simpson, Nicholson, McEwen, Proffitt and Gillis, all the young men joined hands in a large circle and sang "Blest be the Tie that Binds." The conference then closed by singing the "National Anthem" followed by Benediction by the pastor, Rev. G. M. Young.—V.

Swamped

When a man's efficiency is on the decline—when after a long day of effort the mass of work still stares him in the face—it's time to find out what's wrong. Frequently a lack of certain necessary nutritive elements, in the daily diet, lessen mental and physical activity. A prime factor in efficiency is right feeding. No food supplies in such splendid proportion, all the rich nourishment of the field grains, for keeping the mental and physical forces upbuilt and in trim, as

Grape-Nuts

Made of whole wheat and malted barley this famous pure food supplies the vital mineral salts, often lacking in the ordinary daily diet, but imperative in building sturdy mental, physical and nervous energy.

Then, too, there's a wonderful return of power for the small effort required in the digestion of Grape-Nuts, which, with cream or good milk, supplies complete nourishment.
