D. A. McKinnon and of your never failing goodness and courtesy. We, the undersigned therefore, being a few of the multitude of your friends and admirers beg your acceptance of this bracelet watch, as a slight token of our love and esteem and as a recognition, however inadequate of all we owe to your kindness. That your future may be as bright and beneficent as your goodness merits and promises, is our most sincere and hearty wish." The address which was signed by a large number of ladies in this city had on its cover Mrs. McKinnon's monogram artistically executed in script by L. W. Watson. The monogram will also be engraved on the back of the watch.

The presentation was made during a five o'clock tea and came as a great surprise to Mrs. McKinnon, who expressed her thanks to the donors in fitting words. Peter Tulin of Farmington, Marion County, West Virginia, U. S. A. asks for "information regarding Lawrence Tulin who was a sergeant in the British Army, and on finishing his time in the service was given a post in charge of a sawmill on P. E. Island belonging to the British Government. It was about the time of the Crimean War when he went there. The saw mill he was in charge of is believed to have been the only one on the Island at that time and was worked by the soldiers. His brother in Scotland last heard from him in the year 1853. It is possible you may be able to give a little information about him as to where and when he died. It is believed that he left no kith or kin on the Island; and—being his nephew—and his nearest relation I should like to know what property he had there, and how it was disposed of."
