DUCHESS MAKES APPEAL FOR BLUE JACKETS' COMFORTS.

OTTAWA, Nov. 17.—An appeal has been issued by Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught for funds to purchase oilskins and rubber boots for the five thousand British blue jackets who, under Rear Admiral Hornesby are doing duty with the Atlantic Squadron. With winter coming on such supplies are greatly needed.

Her Royal Highness would be very grateful if those wishing to subscribe would send their donations to Government House addressed to the Lady-in-Waiting so that she may be able to forward to the Admiralty the articles required. She feels that she has only to make known those needs of our sailors on the Atlantic coast.

NO THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 17.—The desire of the Saskatchewan conference for the establishment of a theological college at Saskatoon in connection with the Saskatchewan University was refused this afternoon by the Methodist Board of Education, the Board deciding that it could not at the present time grant the request, while fully sympathizing with the reasons for which the request was made.

—WHAT IS ROWDYISM?—Labor writes: There has been recently, quite a lot of controversy going on in Tignish, about certain young men, mostly clerks and those who are working for the public. Now, I am going to state some facts, which I hope will clear up all misunderstanding and doubts. These young men are accused of disorderly conduct on the streets. It appears that on Saturday night, Nov. 7th, a concert was held, but for certain reasons was never finished, owing to the fact that a crowd of old timers put things very much on the rough with the result that the show was broken up and the audience advised to go outside. Outside there was the general cursing, swearing and the yelling "Hold my coat" attractions. During the melee some one of the crowd of onlookers said "Let's sing 'It's a long long way to Tipperary.'" The song was sung by nearly all the boys, including the rowdies. It had great effect on them, and they having no further and to leave. Then as a parting volley we sang "God Save the King." Now the point is: was the singing of these patriotic airs rowdyism or not? Again the general opinion seems to be that all the boys who sang these airs were in the general mix-up in the Hall, and of the putting the concert on the rough. I hope I have made myself clear about the matter, and furthermore, I challenge contradiction.

—MT. CARMEL.—The farmers of Mt. Carmel and neighborhood are well rich through their fall work especially ploughing which has been retarded by the late harvest. Mr. and Mrs. Andre Arsenault of Mt. Mr. Graham speaks in glowing terms of the Island and the work it offers to men of all classes. Best wishes for his future success will follow. Mr. Graham when he departs for Maine next week, the school is progressing favorably under the skillful management of Miss Macgregor. Residents are looking forward to a concert in the near future which will no doubt prove as entertaining as in previous years. Miss Mary Wigmore has returned home after spending a few days in Clinton. Miss Nina Woodside has returned after spending the week-end in Clinton.
