

PRINCE EDWARD STARTING TO-DAY
BLACK WATCH

ALL TALKING SUPER THRILLER

A British Captain Vag who played with women for bigger stakes than battles. A beautiful woman risked an empire for love.

with VICTOR McLAGLEN MYRNA LOY DAVID ROLLINS

CAPITOL STARTING TO-DAY

The CRIMSON CITY MYRNA LOY MILIAN-HYAMS SOUIN-MATHEWNETZ TUCKER - MAY WONG

Pitiless, Palpitating Love Story of Nan Toy! Glimmering Melodrama of East and West!

ALSO SECOND LAST "DIAMOND MASTER" AND HERMAID COMEDY

usual spirit of courage and determination, she nevertheless continued to move around and carry on her work until about a week before her death. But little by little her supply of reserve energy gave way and on the above mentioned date her gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight.

Besides a sorrowing husband Mrs. Matheson leaves to mourn her loss an adopted daughter, formerly Miss Effie Johnston, now Mrs. Charles Larter, Hampshire, to whom she was for quite a number of years, all that a kind and devoted mother could be. The deceased was one of the family of three brothers and six sisters. The surviving brothers in the family are John McLeod, Minn., U. S. A.; and Alex B. McLeod, Hantsville, and the sisters are Mrs. John Nicholson, Wood Islands and Mrs. Malcolm Cummings and Mrs. Angus Campbell, both of Dartington. Another sister, Mrs. George Morrison, Bradalbane, passed away a few years ago, while another brother, Donald McLeod, and a sister, Miss Effie McLeod predeceased Mrs. Matheson by quite a number of years. The deceased was twice married. Her first husband, Mr. George Johnston, Boston, Mass., passed away quite a few years ago.

Mrs. Matheson was a lady who was well and favorably known throughout the whole countryside. To her home all worthy comers always found a hearty welcome and no one needing aid ever called upon her in vain. In times of sickness and sorrow no one could be kinder and more thoughtful than she was. She was a loyal member of the Presbyterian Church at Brookfield, and was always ready to help on in every department of the work. Her place in the Sanctuary was never vacant except for some good reason. She will be much missed in all of the different spheres of life, but especially in her own home and in the work of the church. But even so knowing that she has already entered into that "rest which remaineth for the people of God." None could be so unkind as to wish her "unbound spirit back into bound again."

The end came quietly. Death had no terrors for her. She knew that Lord and Master, Whom in life she had delighted to serve and to honor would be with her in the swellings of Jordan. This being so for her, there would be no darkness or gloom. Her passing was one of sweet peace.

The funeral, which was a large one, was held on the afternoon of Thursday, August 8th. The service was conducted by Rev. R. Hensley Stavert. After a short service in the home, a regular funeral service was held in the Brookfield Church. The pall bearers were Messrs. Joseph McPherson, Malcolm McLeod, Gordon McLeod, Douglas McPherson, Alex. McPherson and Eliph Howatt. Interment was in the Brookfield Cemetery.

DUNCAN McRAE

One of the oldest and most respected citizens of Westville, in the person of Duncan McRae, passed away on Sunday, Dec. 22nd, at 3 o'clock. He had been in poor health for some years, but was able to be around until a short time ago when fast falling strength kept him to his bed. When once his strong spirit could no longer compel his frail body to do his bidding he did not linger long. On Sunday the time of his departure came when as Mr. Godfrey said in the funeral address "Angelic hands, unloosing the vessel laden with the merchandise of Heaven, from its moorings pushed it off from the wharf out to midstream where the roaring tide bore it quietly out to the ocean and on the other side." There were no regrets in his life so he went peacefully and confidently to his reward. It may well be said of him he fought a good fight, he finished the course, he kept the faith henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness eternal in the heavens. His death was just like his life—a triumph of faith.

He late Mr. McRae was born in Granton, on November 6th, 1851. The greater part of his long life was spent in Westville, N.S. where he earned the reputation of being a man of christian character and sterling qualities, a man who was always courteous, chivalrous, courageous and the champion of every good cause. He identified himself with the Carmel Presbyterian Church and became an Elder in the session of the congregation, which position he occupied at the time of Union movement; he elected to remain with the Church of his father and retained the Eldership in the United Church, bringing the same qualities of loyal devotion that characterized his early life. In his passing a prince of Israel has been removed. But though dead he speaketh in the many lives that has been influenced by his life of unselfish sacrificial service lived in the companionship of the Master. The deceased was twice married. His first wife was Margaret MacLeod, who died in 1901. By this wife he had five children, three sons: William, of Truro, N.S., George, of Stellarton, an Elder in Sharon United Church; Maxwell, of Sun

In Memoriam

MARION SMITH

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Smith, Rocky Point, was sadly bereaved when in the early hours of Christmas morning death visited their home and claimed their little daughter Marion, at the early age of eleven years. Marion was a sweet and lovable child and will be sadly missed in the home and in the school where she was exceptionally bright. Her sweet smile won a place for her in the hearts of all, both old and young, and her passing at such an early age leaves a sadness in the home that time alone may efface. Everything possible was done for her during her illness but God claimed her for His own and her gentle spirit returned to Him who gave it and Who said, "Suffer little children to come unto Me and forbid them not for so such is the kingdom heaven."

There were many floral tributes laid on the casket showing the high esteem in which she was held. She leaves to mourn besides her heart-broken parents, one sister, Thelma, and one brother, Howard, to whom sincerest sympathy is extended.

The funeral was held Thursday, December 26th, and was largely attended. The service at house and grave was conducted by Rev. M. Scott Fulton of Zion Presbyterian Church and the remains were tenderly laid to rest in West River Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Gordon Taylor, Irving McDonald, Willie King, Art and Harold McKinnon, and George McPhee.

MRS. H. R. LOCKERBY

On Monday, December 9th, there passed peacefully away after an illness of several weeks, Mrs. H. R. Lockerby, of Fortune Cove, at the age of 82 years. The deceased, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hillman, was born in Hamilton, in 1848. As both her parents died when she was six years old she lived throughout childhood with her aunts, the Misses Jane and Margaret Ramsay. In 1888 she married H. R. Lockerby; and in 1896 she and her husband and little children moved from Hamilton to her late home in Fortune Cove.

Throughout life the deceased maintained a pleasing and an attractive personality. Her attitude toward any question arising in the home, in the social or religious life of the community always was: is this or that view right, is this or that for the uplifting of character, for the advancement of the moral or spiritual life of the community or persons interested. Though naturally reticent and unassuming, her unselfish service of labor and love in the home and community, her ideals for purity of thought and action in all avenues of private and public life leave an impress for broader Christian attainments not only in the church she so faithfully served and dearly loved, but among all who intimately knew her. The funeral service, held at her home on December 12th, was conducted by Rev. W. J. Fowler, pastor of Alberton Presbyterian Church, as assisted by Rev. A. S. Weil, pastor of Alberton United Church. Apart from favorite hymns rendered by the choir "Crossing the Bar" was sweet and impressively sung by Miss Gertrude Meggison. The impressive service was radiant with Christian sympathy, consolation and assurance of the fuller life of harmony and peace in Christ. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Fred Clark, J. W. Forsythe, James Clark, Lester Wallace, George Meggison, Murray Gordon. Floral tributes: Crescent the family; Wreath, the Fraser Memorial Church; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Meggison; Spray, Kenneth, Earle and Billy Leard; Crescent, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lockerby; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lockerby. Besides a sorrowing husband the deceased leaves to mourn their loss, two daughters and two sons, namely: Mrs. Russel Leard, Fortune Cove; Miss Pearl Lockerby, at home; John Erskine, Westwood, New Jersey; Russel, at home; also one brother, Edward Hillman, of Sydney, C. B. To these their many friends extend sincere sympathy.

JAMES ALFRED RODGERSON

There passed peacefully away on Tuesday Dec. 3, 1929 at the home of Mr. George Rodgerston, Southport, P. E. I., his brother James Alfred Rodgerston, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rodgerston of Plaisid East, P. E. I., at the early age of 23 years.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving brother one sister and two brothers, Isabel of Charlottetown, George of Southport, Lee now in England, who are all heartbroken over the death of their brother. His brother Willie predeceased him just two years ago. Alfred was a bright, lovable boy, never known to complain. A favorite with young and old. He was able to attend to his work till three weeks prior to his death when he was stricken with a severe cold from which he did not recover. Despite medical aid and tender nursing he gradually grew weaker and weaker until the end came suddenly on the above mentioned date. He was a member of the United Church and was attended during his illness by the Rev. Mr. Brown. But while the loss is great, yet knowing that he has passed forever beyond all suffering and pain, none would be so unkind as to call him back again.

MRS. FINLAY MATHESON

On the evening of Tuesday, August 6th, Mrs. Finlay Matheson, a very highly esteemed resident of Dartington, passed peacefully away at her home at the age of 73 years. The deceased had apparently been in her usual fairly good condition of health until some four weeks before the coming of the end, when she began to fail quite rapidly. With her

Central Guardian

LOST—ONE LADIES fountain pen without cap. Ring 468L. 971-1-8-2

IN PATON'S EASTERN WINDOW are displayed a large showing of tweeds suitable for my ladies gowns. 100.

HAMPTON—United Church services for Sunday, Jan. 12th, are as follows:—Bonslaw, 11 a. m. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at this service. De Sable, 3 p. m.; Victoria, 7 p. m. James P. Kaye, minister.

STANLEY BRIDGE AND NORTH RUSTICO—Divine worship in connection with the United Church Sunday, Jan. 12th, Stanley Bridge at 11 a. m., and North Rustico at 3 p. m. Rev. E. S. Bishop, minister.

ANGLICAN SERVICES—St. John's Church, Crapaud, January 12, 1930, Evensong, 7:00; Springfield, Saint Elizabeth's Church, January 12, Holy Communion, 11:00.

ON BUSINESS TRIP—Colonel D. A. MacKinnon, D. S. O., and Mr. Chester W. S. McLaure leave this morning for St. John, from which port they sail by the steamer Duchess of Richmond on their annual trip to England in connection with the Hudson Bay business.

QUEENS COUNTY COURT—The two sessions of the Queens County Court yesterday were occupied by the case of L. P. Tanton vs. the City of Charlottetown which came before Judge Stewart. Mr. W. E. Bentley, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. K. M. Martin on behalf of the city. The witnesses examined were Messrs. J. G. McPherson, A. Bowman Brown, James Eden, George F. Nicholson, W. A. Smith, George Gardner. The case was adjourned till Friday.

CORRECTION—Rev. D. V. O'Meara asks the Guardian to correct a statement in the press from an Eastern correspondent that he had resumed his pastoral duties. The period for which he agreed to serve the Central Parish expired on November 30th, last, and, as he is still under the care of his medical advisers he is obliged to decline pastoral responsibilities during his convalescence.

More Promotions

MONTREAL, Jan. 8.—Following upon the appointment of R. L. Burman as vice-president in charge of traffic, and H. H. Melanson as assistant vice-president, C. W. Johnston was today named general passenger traffic manager of the C. N. R., with headquarters at Montreal.

Cecil W. Johnston, who is one of the most widely known of Canadian traffic officers, was practically born into the railway service, his father, F. A. Johnston, having spent more than half a century with the Canadian National Railways and its predecessor, the Grand Trunk.

Twelve thousand new automobiles were registered in Poland in 1929, an increase of nearly 50 per cent over 1928.

Russia has appropriated $250,000,000 toward the development of cotton growing in the Turkestan desert.

About one-fifth of all automobiles exported from America in 1929 went to the Far East.

Life Insurance Co., Montreal, and two daughters, Mrs. Chester Cooper, Murray Harbor, P. E. I. and Mrs. John C. Rice, Westville. His second wife, who survives him, was Catherine Sutherland, a trained nurse, and her devoted attention did much to relieve his last illness of pain and distress. By his second wife he had one son, Lawrence, of the Sun Life Ins. Co. Halifax, N. S. Besides these there is one brother, Rev. W. L. McRae, of Vancouver, B. C. The sympathy of their many friends goes out to these sorrowing ones at this time of bereavement.

The funeral services held on Tuesday, Dec. 24. A short service, conducted by Rev. W. S. Godfrey was held at the home on West Street, at one o'clock. A service was held in the United Church at 1:30 when Mr. Godfrey was assisted by Rev. C. O. MacInosh, of Sharon United Church, Stellarton who offered prayer. The service was well attended in spite of the inclemency of the weather, by a large number of the Session and members of the United Church, with many friends from sister congregations of the town and neighboring towns.

A Teaspoonful to a Cup! Its meat and drink to you. Before going out into the cold, or after coming in, steaming hot "OXO" makes such a warming, delicious drink. And it's ready in a minute—so simple, so inexpensive, so invigorating! Quickly removes fatigue.

Dalhousie Graduation List

The names of the following Prince Edward Island students appear in the Christmas pass lists of Dalhousie University, Halifax.

- Faculty of Arts: Helen Champion, O'Leary—passed Latin 1, Greek 2, (sec. 1) French 2, (sec. 1) English 9, History 8 (sec. 1) Geology 1, (sec. 1); Edith Allen, Summerside—passed Latin 2, French 2 (sec. 1), English 2, History 1, Mathematics 3 (sec. 1); H. Bramwell Chandler, City—passed Latin 2, Greek 1, English 2, History 1, Economics 1, Philosophy 1; Gladys Farquharson, City—passed Latin 2, French 2, English 2, (sec. 1) History 1, Philosophy 1; Robert Hogg, City—passed Latin 2, French 2, History 1 (sec. 1), Mathematics 1; Willard Picketts, Wilmet Valley—Elementary Greek (sec. 1). Passed Latin 2, History 1, Economics 1; Lauchlin McDonald, Kilnuir—passed Greek 2, French 2, Philosophy 2, Biology 1; F. L. Whitehead, City—passed Elementary French, Physics 20, Chemistry 2A, Zoology 3; R. L. Dewar, City—passed French 1, Chemistry 1; Mary McMillan, York Point—passed French 2, English 2, Geology 10, Commerce 1; E. S. Ebers, City—passed German 1 (sec. 1) English 2, (sec. 1), Mathematics 2, (sec. 1), Mechanics 2 (sec. 1), Physics 3, (sec. 1), Chemistry 2, (sec. 1); H. A. Ebers, City—passed Economics 4, Political Science 2, (sec. 1), Psychology 2, Mathematics 7, Geology 1 (sec. A) Geology 10, (sec. 1); J. H. Buntain, Rustico—passed English 2 (sec. 1), Physics 1, (sec. 1), Chemistry 1A, Biology 1; Mary Ramsay, City—passed English 1, Biology 1, Fine Arts; F. W. Sayre Chandler, City—passed English 5, Chemistry 2; E. M. Pound, Long River—passed English 5, History 8 (sec. 1), Physics 1 (sec. 1), Chemistry 2, Zoology 3 (sec. 1); R. T. Donald, Balfie—passed English 8, (sec. 1), English 10, (sec. 1), Economics 5 (sec. 1), Political Science 7, (sec. 1), Geology 1, (sec. 1); G. Charles McDonald, Cardigan—passed English 20, Physics 1, Biology 1; Wendall McDonald, City—passed English 20, Chemistry 1A (sec. 1), Biology 1; H. E. Yeo, City—passed English 20, Mathematics 1, Physics 1, (sec. 1), Chemistry 1A, Biology 1 (sec. 1); W. S. McNutt, City—passed History 2, History 5, (sec. 1), Political Science 3, (sec. 1), Political Science 7; E. S. Geddings, Murray Harbour—passed Political Science 2 (sec. 1), W. B. Woolner, Rustico—passed Political Science 2; J. M. Boyer, Crapaud—passed Philosophy 2; Stuart Docherty, Cardigan—passed Mathematics 2, (sec. 1), Mathematics 3, (sec. 1), Physics 3, (sec. 1), Chemistry 2, Mechanics 2, (sec. 1), Mechanics 3, Mechanics 4, (sec. 1), Mechanics 5, (sec. 1), Surveying 2, (sec. 1).

Eastern Guardian

ADDED PROPERTY—Messrs. Field and son, Peters Road, purchased the middle third of the Johnston farm at that place and had Surveyor McDonald of Hermitage, some days ago, endeavoring to find its boundaries.

POTATO FARMS—Up around the South East there are parties looking up potato farms for purchase for next year's crop. It is evident that commercial seed potato growing will be on a very large scale next summer—probably the largest ever. There is every encouragement for investment in this branch.

FOXES—Mrs. Frowse, formerly Miss Stewart of the Harbour house, is quite deeply into fox-raising. She has 33 foxes of the best breeding, many of them having been sold under option to well-known breeders in the early summer, who knew of their blood lines. She has moved the ranch to the River, where she is now located.

LAND PURCHASE—Mr. J. L. McKinnon, merchant at Peters Road, has recently purchased from the Johnston farm running along the Bennis Road, on Lot 63. He had Mr. McDonald, of Hermitage, surveying it and getting the division line marked out, but owing to bad weather and lack of more definite information the work was not completed. Mr. McKinnon, besides being a merchant and farmer is largely into silver foxes, and of the best quality too. He has lately acquired some of Humphrey's stock, the blood that cleaned up everything recently at the Royal show at Toronto.

NEW HOTEL—Miss Stewart, now Mrs. Prowse, who for many years kept the popular hotel at the Harbour known as the Stewart House, has sold out and purchased outright, the Canadian Bank of Commerce building, at the River, and has turned it into a new hotel at that place. The tical Anatomy, Anatomy 1, Histology, Embryology, Physiology 1; F. L. McPhail, Clyde River—passed in Practical Anatomy, Anatomy 1, Histology, Embryology, Physiology 1, Biochemistry 1; G. D. Murchison, Clyde River—passed in Practical Anatomy, Anatomy 1, Histology, Embryology, Anatomy 1, Histology, Physiology 1; G. P. Tanton, Summerside—passed in Practical Anatomy, Anatomy 1, Biochemistry 1; W. R. Wright, Bequeque—passed in Practical Anatomy, Anatomy 1, Histology, Embryology, Biochemistry 1, Distinction in Physiology 1.

Second Year Medicine: John M. McGowan, Kilnuir—passed in Bacteriology, Neurology, Materia Medica, Distinction in Practical Anatomy, Anatomy 2, Physiology, Biochemistry, Medical Psychology; Harold Mellish, Montague—Distinction in Practical Anatomy, Anatomy 2, Medical Psychology, Bacteriology, Materia Medica. Passed Physiology, Biochemistry, Neurology; Champion Holland, Sealton—passed Practical Anatomy, Anatomy 2, Physiology, Biochemistry, Bacteriology, Neurology, Distinction in Medical Psychology, Materia Medica; Henry Moyses, Central Bequeque—passed in Practical Anatomy, Anatomy 2, Physiology, Biochemistry, Bacteriology, Neurology, Medical Psychology, Distinction in Materia Medica; W. Stewart Woolner, North Rustico—passed in Practical Anatomy, Physiology, Biochemistry, Medical Psychology, Bacteriology, Neurology, Materia Medica.

Third Year Medicine: T. L. Farmer, Kinkora—passed in Pharmacology, Pathology 1; T. T. Monaghan, City—passed in Pathology 1.

Dalhousie Eastern Guardian bank still occupies its quarters in the building. The famed cuisine of the Harbour hotel is now being duplicated at the new River hotel. The Kenar House is still functioning, but under new management.

SUNDAY SERVICES—Rev. J. W. Williams will conduct services of Sunday, Jan. 12 as follows: Montague, 10:30 a. m., Murray River 3 p. m., Murray Harbor 7 p. m.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE—The regular monthly meeting of the Gasperaux Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence McFerron on the evening of Dec. 19th, their being ten members and fifteen visitors present. The meeting opened with the singing of Carry Me Back to Old Virginia. The committees were then heard from and new ones appointed. A sum of money was voted to give the school children a treat for Xmas and plans were made to give a birthday party to an aged lady of the district, also an address and presentation to Miss Matilda Steele, the retiring president, for her untiring efforts as president of our Institute for the past year. Miss Steele, although taken by surprise, replied in fitting terms to the occasion and thanked the members of the Institute for their gift. Five new members were enrolled and the meeting then closed by singing the National Anthem. The next meeting to be at the home of Miss Marie Steele.

S. O. T. MEETING—Diamond of the Desert, Division No. 6, Sons of Temperance, at Georgetown closed its last quarter of the year with a very successful meeting held in the Division room on New Year's evening. Brother James Easton was in the chair and after the initiation of three new members along with the disposal of other business, the newly elected officers for the coming quarter were installed by the Deputy Grand Worth Patriarch. They are as follows: Worth Patriarch, Rev. C. U. MacNevin; Worth Associate, Mrs. W. Hobbs; Conductor, Nettie Walker; Assistant Conductor, Frances Lavers; Chaplain, Captain Hutchinson; Recording Scribe, Elsie Lavers; Assistant Recording Scribe, Ella Ross; Treasurer, Mrs. Yorston; Financial Scribe, Lottie Jeffrey; Inside Sentinel, David Lavers; Outside Sentinel, Emma Llewellyn; Past Worth Patriarch, James Easton. This was followed by a very interesting program made up of the following numbers: Musical Selection; Reading, Mr. Yorston; Recitation, Mrs. Hobbs; Solo Samuel Jorston; Address, James Easton; Duo, Messrs. Ross and Jenkins; Reading, Rev. C. U. MacNevin; Solo Mrs. Bait Mair; Recitation, Samuel Yorston; Recitation, Mrs. Jenkins. Santa then appeared and distributed to all present, which he found on a well loaded Christmas tree. After this a very generous lunch which had been provided by the ladies was passed around. The singing of the National Anthem brought a very happy evening to a close. Diamond of the Desert Division, since being reorganized has been going for only four months and has made a very successful progress. It began with only seven members and now has an enrollment of twenty-eight with several accepted applications on the table. Present indications are that before long it will be back to the old strength that it boasted of eighty years ago. No small amount of credit for this progress is due to Brother Easton, who has been most untiring in his efforts on behalf of the order.—A.

Card of Thanks: The family of the late John Corrigan wish to express sincerest thanks to their many friends for kindness and sympathy tendered during their recent sad bereavement.

A bill for the control of tips in French hotels and restaurants has been passed by the French senate.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late John Corrigan wish to express sincerest thanks to their many friends for kindness and sympathy tendered during their recent sad bereavement.

A bill for the control of tips in French hotels and restaurants has been passed by the French senate.