

Settlement Complete With Insurance Companies

ALL GOODS SALVAGED WILL BE ON SALE FRIDAY AT 9 a. m.

No Goods on Approbation

PROWSE BROS. LIMITED

Dr. M. CUMMING

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE FOR NOVA SCOTIA

Says: "Get the most out of your hay fields and plan to cut your hay early. . . Science and practise support the use of salt for the best curing of hay."

"Use Malagash Hay Salt"

EARLE FISHERIES, CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

One insertion 10c per line of 8 words
 Four insertions 35c per line of 8 words
 Eight insertions 70c per line of 8 words

Teachers Wanted

TEACHER WANTED FOR HUNTER RIVER SCHOOL. Supplement $150.00. Apply to W. D. Whitlock, Secretary, Hunter River. 403-7-6-61.

WANTED—PRINCIPAL AND ASSISTANT FOR LONG RIVER SCHOOL. Amounts voted $100 each.—J. M. Constable, Sec'y. 492-7-9-31.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED FIRST OR SECOND CLASS TEACHER FOR NORTH MILTON SCHOOL. Protestant preferred. Settlement $140.00. Apply C. E. MacKenzie, Sec'y. 514-7-9-31.

TEACHER WANTED—A FIRST CLASS TEACHER WANTED AS PRINCIPAL FOR THE O'LEARY SCHOOL. Male preferred. Supplement $200.00. Apply to R. H. Jelly, Secretary. 477-7-8-31.

WANTED—TEACHER FOR MILLYVALE SCHOOL. Male preferred. Apply James Cousins, Bradalbane, R. R. No. 2. 409-7-6-41.

WANTED—FIRST OR SECOND CLASS TEACHER FOR LOWER MONTAGUE SCHOOL. Male preferred. Supplement $100. D. J. Stewart, Sec'y. 404-7-7-41.

WANTED—3rd CLASS TEACHER North Granville No. 128. Sup. $75. Apply J. S. Barygoose, Bradalbane, R. R. 1. 487-7-7-31.

For Sale

FOR SALE—HAPPY THOUGHT range used one year. Range in splendid condition. Write A. M. Gare of Guardian. 452-7-7-31.

FOR SALE—30 STICKS HARD pine, 30 feet long, 5 1/2 in first class condition. Spruce flooring, pine ceiling, quantity of scantling 2 inch planks at $2.00 per hundred.—Apply Kensington Rifle Range. 489-7-8-61.

RESIDENCE FOR SALE—238 Cumberland Street. Tenders for the purchase of this desirable property will be received up to 12th July inst. by McLeod & Bentley, Solicitors. 390-6-61.

BUILDING LOTS FOR SALE. Several very desirable lots for sale on easy payments on Gerold and Birchwood Street. Apply to Palmer & Palmer. 178-6-26-141.

FOR SALE—CHOICE ROLLER Mill Flour, $4.00 per 100 lbs. Also 10.00 ft. 3 inch spruce plank H. E. Crosby, Bonshaw Mills. 420-7-6-41.

FARM FOR SALE, WITH OR without crop, 40 acres fronting on Brudenell River, 2 miles from Georgetown. Well cultivated suitable for vegetable raising. Also convenient for fisherman. Apply John Delorie on premises. Address Georgetown. 511-7-9-641.

FOR SALE—TWO NEWLY freshened cows.—Gordon Carr, Oyster Bed Bridge. 506-7-9-31.

FOR SALE—HOLSTEIN COW four years old, freshened one week, 143 Esher St. 604.

FOR SALE—ONE FORD CAR speedster type. Apply to Everett MacRae, Bonshaw. 517-7-9-21.

Central Guardian

SUMMONED TO OTTAWA—Mr John A. MacDonald M. P. for King's left yesterday afternoon in response to a summons from the Prime Minister.

FUNERAL POSTPONED.—The funeral of the late J. J. Bethune has been postponed until tomorrow afternoon awaiting the arrival of his son and daughter.

VERNON SERVICES—There will be service on Sunday next (11th instant) at Cherry Valley at 2:30 p. m. and at Vernon River at 7 p. m. Rev. F. B. Boothroyd will preach in both Churches. Sunday School and Bible Class as usual.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA Hunter River Circuit. Services Sunday, July 11, North Wiltshire, 11:00 a. m. Wheatley River 3 p. m. Hunter River, 7:30 p. m. R. H. Baxter, minister.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral of the late J. J. Bethune will take place from his late residence tomorrow afternoon not today as leaving the house at 2 p. m. thence by motor to Hartsville cemetery for interment.

CAVENDISH CONGREGATION.—Rev. J. S. Bonnell, B. A., B. D., of Saint John, N. B., will preach in Stanley at 11 a. m. Subject, "A Young Man's Sin," and at North Rustico at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Judah—the Betrayer." This will be Mr. Bonnell's last service in the congregation this summer.

ATTENDING PRESBYTERIAL.—Mrs Hugh Sharp of Summerfield, Miss Fannie Stewart, Kensington and Mrs Daniel McKay, French River, Mrs Robert Douglas, Kensington and Mrs Frances Sharp, Kensington are among the visitors attending the Presbyterial in Zion Church.

ORWELL SERVICES—Communion services will be held in the Church at Orwell Head on Sunday, July 11, at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Preparatory service on Saturday at 2:30 p. m. The thanksgiving service will be held on Monday the 12th at 10 a. m. to be followed by the Annual Meeting of the Congregation.

HARTSVILLE SERVICES—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed at the close of the service at Hartsville in the Presbyterian Church at Hartsville on Sunday, July 11th. There will also be service at 3 p. m. Preparatory services are being held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. W. E. Genge, D. D., of Kensington is to assist at some of these services.

AN ERRONEOUS REPORT.—The Montreal Star of the 5th instant says that from information received by Prince Edward Island it learns that "a provincial general election will take place in this province in August, that Premier Stewart will lead the Conservative forces and will later enter the federal administration." The Guardian is authorized by Premier Stewart to say that a provincial election during the present year has not even been thought of and that he has no intention of deserting the provincial field.

AT ROTARY—The monthly meeting of the Rotary Club was held yesterday. Rotarian F. M. Stewart in the chair. The guests present were W. J. Reid, Middleton, P. E. I., Rotarians A. S. Allen, Rev. J. Sydney Bonnell and James Barnes of the St. John Club, Rotarian Thomas Coleman of St. Stephen, N. B., Rotarian James E. Aikens of Tobique, Ohio, and R. D. Donaldson of New York. A feature of the program was a report of the International Convention at Denver given by the delegate from the Club, President J. A. Webster. President Webster gave a most interesting review of the proceedings, touching on the high lights of the memorable gathering and particularly stressing the remarkable hospitality shown by the people of Denver, and especially by Prince Edward Islanders who were resident there. The President welcomed to the Club after an absence, Rotarians R. Harold Jenkins, W. Chester S. MacLure, Col. D. A. MacKinnon and also Rotarian Charlie Gallagher who is able to be around again after his recent accident. The musical program comprised an excellent solo by Mr. Leigh Dingwall. The Secretary read a letter from Fred C. Kimber, Secretary of the Sydney Club, inviting the Rotarians to spend their summer holidays in Cape Breton and attend a summer carnival which was to be held during practically the whole of August.

THE MARKETS

(Canadian Press)
 OTTAWA, Ont., July 8.—Commissions and prices and Canadian egg markets are generally unchanged. Toronto dealers are offering for ungraded eggs extras 32, firsts 28 to 29, seconds 23 to 24. Prices for foreign extras 36, seconds 28 to 29. Montreal—a better consumptive demand is reported. Dealers are paying delivered extras 27 to 28, firsts 23, seconds 20 to 21. Winnipeg country shipper selling extras 27, firsts 25, seconds 18. Prices to retailers extras 34, firsts 32, seconds 29, Saskatchewan—Country shippers are selling extras 29, firsts 21, seconds 16. Prices to retailers extras 32, firsts 30, seconds 25. Edmonton country dealers are making sales extras 25, firsts 23, seconds 15.—Prices to retailers extras 36, firsts 32, seconds 26. Vancouver producers are selling extras 30 to 32, firsts 28 to 30, seconds 20 to 28. Prices to retailers extras 35, firsts 33, seconds 31. St. John dealers are paying producers extras 31, firsts 28, seconds 25 and selling extras 32, firsts 29, seconds 26. Prices to retailers extras 36, firsts 33, seconds 28. Halifax, N. S., dealers paying country shippers extras 35, firsts 30, seconds

20. Jobbing extras 38, firsts 34, seconds 30. Charlottetown, P. E. I., wholesalers paying country extras 28, firsts 26, seconds 22. Jobbing extras 33, firsts 30, seconds 25. Montreal—The inquiry from foreign buyers for Canadian grain on the Montreal market yesterday was fair, but as the prices bid were generally out of line with the market, little business was done. Exporters were bidding fifteen cents per bushel over the Winnipeg July option for No. 1 northern wheat, 9 1/2 cents per bushel over for No. 2 and 4 1/2 cents over for No. 3. There was a disposition to bid with sellers asking 1 1/2 cent to one cent per bushel more. In sympathy with the easier feeling in the Winnipeg market for oats today. Prices on spot for car lots were reduced 1 1/2 cent per bushel. Even at the lower level buyers showed no disposition to operate. No 2 Canadian western were quoted at 61 cents, No. 3 C.W. at 56 cents, and extra No. 1 feed at 56 1/2 cent per bushel. Prices for all grades of spring wheat flour were well maintained under a fair export and local trade. The feature of the trade in winter wheat flour was the demand from the British West Indies and considerable business was transacted. Local business was fair and prices were steady. The millfeed market was decidedly more active than it has been of late under a good demand from local and country buyers. Prices ruled steady. The demand for standard grades of milled wheat was limited and prices were unchanged. The egg trade was small but the undertone was steady. Fresh extras were quoted at 37 cents and firsts at 33 per dozen. The receipts were 1948 cases. Owing to a better consumption of new crop potatoes, the demand for old stock was limited but prices were steady. Old crop New Brunswick whites quoted $2.25 per bag of 90 lbs in bulk. Extreme dullness again marked the butter trade, there was some demand from speculators on day for No. 1 pasteurized creamery at 33 cents to 33 1/4 cents per pound which prices holders would not accept. The receipts were 498 packages. The export trade in cheese was quoted at the majority of the foreign bid being out of line with exporters views. The local trade was unchanged and sellers of western No. 1 white and colored were asking 18 1/4 to 18 3/4 cents per pound and eastern grades were quoted at 17 3/4 cents per pound. The receipts were 10,978 boxes. The trade in beans was limited and the market was quiet. Car lots of choice white handpicked were asked at $2.25 per bushel, and smaller quantities at $2.25 to $2.45 per bushel.

FILMS DEVELOPED AND PRINTED
 PHOTOGRAPHS ENLARGEMENTS
 CRASWELL STUDIO
 137 Great George Street

Central Guardian

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICE AT HAMPTON.—On Sunday, July 11th the service in the Public Hall at Hampton in connection with the Presbyterian Church in Canada will be at 7:30 p. m. A hearty invitation to all.

PRESBYTERIAL MEETS.—The Prince Edward Island Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society in connection with the Presbyterian Church in Canada met in Zion Church Hall yesterday at 10 a. m. Three sessions were held. There was a large representation from the presbyterial societies. An extended report of the presbyterial will appear in tomorrow's issue.

PERSONALS

Mr Harry Stewart, Hermitage was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Mr and Mrs Charles MacLennan from Quincey, Mass., are visiting friends in Hartsville. Mr MacLennan's old home.

Mrs Wm. V. Bears and family of 59 Wallace St. West Somerville, Mass., is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs W. F. Morrison of F-ederton.

Rev. W. J. Domville of Petticoat is spending a well-earned vacation on the island, are visiting friends in a native of Cape Wolfe this Province.

RENNIE'S ROAD SCHOOL

The semi-annual school examination at Rennie's Road was held in the school on Wednesday, June 30th at 2:30 p. m. A large number of pupils and rate payers being present.

The children were examined in the different subjects by their teacher, Miss Margaret McPhee and showed by their ready and accurate answers that they had been carefully and diligently instructed. At the close of the examination, Miss Caroline McDonald read an address, and Miss Ivey Andrews

Queen Hotel
 Since taking over this Hotel we have spent many thousands of dollars in repairs and improvements. It is now the finest Hotel of its class in the Maritime Provinces. It appeals to those who want a comfortable Hotel and splendid table and excellent service at a moderate price.
 Rates from $3.00 to $4.00 per day.
Charlottetown Hotel Co., Ltd.
 Proprietors
 MISS L. McQUAID, Manager.

IN MEMORIAM
 MISS ELLA A. PALMER.

The death of Miss Ella A. Palmer, 148 Queen Street, Charlottetown, on the 5th instant, removes from our midst one who will be sadly missed, not only by her relatives and friends but by many others because of her rare musical talents. She was a young lady of quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally a quiet and reserved disposition and while never a young Boston Conservatory of Music, and while there had the advantage of studying under several eminent teachers. As a younger woman she was an active participant in the social life and Church work of Charlottetown, but always her chief interest lay in musical circles in which she was for many years a leader. On her return from Boston she made the teaching of vocal and instrumental music her life work. Many of Miss Palmer's pupils who became noted singers and pianists in different parts of the world attributed their success entirely to the thorough and painstaking tuition of their talented teacher. Miss Palmer was for several years leader and director of St. Paul's Church Choir and also taught in the Sunday School. Deceased was naturally