2,600,000 FRENCH CASUALTIES IN WAR
NEW YORK, August 9. — Marcel Knecht, member of the French high commission to the United States, in an address at the annual convention of the Knights of Columbus said 1,300,000 French soldiers had been killed and 1,300,000 wounded in the war, and that "the 'pollus' were wonderfully cheered by the arrival of the Americans."
The Rev. J. Arrese of Paris, the "fighting priest" who accompanied M. Knecht to the convention, was cheered by the delegates. Father Arrese has been wounded three times in battle.
The following supreme directors were elected for the ensuing year: William P. Larkin, New York; Wm. J. E. Hart, St. Louis, Mo.; and John F. Mulligan, Thompsonville, Conn.; Luke Martin, Green Bay, Wis.
A Serious Matter
There is a delicacy about mentioning piles. And yet so many suffer needlessly who could be readily relieved and cured if they only know about Dr. Chase's Ointment.
Men tell one another about this remarkably successful treatment. But many women pine away their health and vitality, dreading a surgical operation and not knowing how easily they can be cured at home by Dr. Chase's Ointment.
