SAYS DR. CRIPPEN HAS CONFESSED.

QUEBEC, Aug. 6.—Everybody connected with the Crippen case was in a fever of excitement yesterday. Inspector Dew is still wondering how the fact that Crippen had admitted in the presence of himself and two other police officials that he killed Belle Elmore had become known.

The jail officials are angry because for some reason or other Inspector Dew has manifested a sudden distrust of their methods.

The attorney general's department is annoyed because its reputation for discretion is impugned, and the minor officials are all busy disclaiming that they have any responsibility in regard to the revelation. It can, however, be stated emphatically that the statement that Crippen had admitted to Inspector Dew that he killed his wife was made bona fide to certain newspaper men by a high official of the provincial attorney general's office.

In the meantime, while the police are busy denying a confession of murder, it is an undisputed fact which even the prison officials do not deny that since the day when Crippen was reported, correctly, to have admitted killing his wife, the elaborate precautions taken by Inspector Dew regarding his safety have been increased. His guards are changed frequently. He is allowed neither to shave himself nor to be shaved. If he were shaved, the inspector fears he might jerk his neck against the razor edge and thus inflict a mortal wound.

He is allowed no pointed table utensils with his food. He is under the incessent watch of his guards, who never take their eyes off him for a minute. His manner is rather less easy than it was and he manifests an ever increasing anxiety to get back to England.

"What's the use of delay?" he asked Inspector Dew today, when the latter took to him another cable from Arthur Newton, the London solicitor, who has undertaken his defence. "I am not objecting to go back. Why can't you take me at once?"

And then the inspector devoutly wished he could. "I'd start tomorrow if I could," he told Crippen.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The Herald's Quebec correspondent sends the following:

Dr Hawley H. Crippen, whose flight across the sea with Miss Ethel Clare LeNeve for a time baffled the police of two continents, has made a statement, it is persistently reported here tonight, telling how his wife, Belle Elmore, met her death. Inspector Dew and every law officer connected with the case have denied giving out the information. Nevertheless, the report is current and is supported with corroborative details.

This statement, the authenticity of which is vouched for on unimpeachable authority, is said to have contained full details as to how Belle Elmore died in Hillhrop Crescent, London. Dr Crippen declares, it is said, that the death of his wife was not the result of murder. His share in the tragedy, as described by himself, will give a totally new aspect to the tragedy when the story is told in court, and will, result, it is asserted in some startling revelations. That at any rate is the declaration made from a high source. From the same quarter it is said that Dr Crippen has made this statement:

"I will make no complete statement here but when I am taken back to England I shall tell my story from the beginning and then you will understand that I am not guilty of murder and that I told the truth when I stated I was not a fugitive from justice."

Inspector Dew, of Scotland Yard, is an angry man. He has from the first been astounded at the assuidity and resourcefullness of Canadian and American reports in dealing with the case, but their achievements today have fairly taken his breath away. That cablegram, the contents of which he fancied were known only to himself and Dr Crippen, should have been published word for word, while the main facts of a statement made to him by Dr Crippen have also become public property, aroused his ire as well as his amazement.

There have been several explosive outbursts of anger on the part of Inspector Dew, but they have done no more than raise a smile. The inspector is a well set up Englishman, with heavy black mustache. He talks with a lisp, which became all the more pronounced today, as he angrily repulsed a reporter who asked about the Crippen statement.

Inspector Dew feels as though Crippen's conviction is an absolute certainty, his remarks intimating that he had something to substantiate his confidence. "Crippen will be a dead man in two months." Inspector Dew has grimly predicted. In sharp contrast stands out the assertion that Dr Crippen made in his cell in the provincial jail: "My fight will not be made here. It will on the other side."

EMPEROR OF BRITISH SUGGESTED AS NEW TITLE OF KING GEORGE.

LONDON, Aug. 6—A discussion has arisen over the form of memorial for the late King Edward, in view of the government's decision to favor local memorials. Lord Strathcona, interviewed by the Mail, said although he could not speak officially he very much hoped the proposed memorial would develop into one which would enable every part of the empire to be represented. He was certain Canada would be only too glad to join in raising a memorial worthy of the great and good monarch.

The Express suggests "Emperor of the British" as the new title for King George.

The Canadian Associated Press learns that recently there has been a very large increase in the number of life policies on King George at

APPLE CROP OF AMERICA.

NIAGARA FALLS, August . — C. P. Rothwell, of Martinsburg, W. Va., secetary of the international apple shippers' association, submitted his annual report today on the condition of the apple crops on August 1st, compared with the same date a year ago. "If present prospects are maintained," he says, "the country will have plenty of apples of better than average quality. The Pacific States will produce one of the heaviest crops ever harvested."

Canada, not including Nova Scotia, shows a decline of thirty per cent. The New England group shows an increase of about forty per cent. Upon the question of quantity the situation is decidedly better than a year ago. New England, New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, all promise much better quality.

FRANK BOUTILIER CAPTURES RACES

NEW GLASGOW, Aug. 6—A good attendance signalized the opening day of the Maritime circuit races at the Union Trotting Park here yesterday. The races were of the bruising sort and to Frank Boutilier of Halifax went the distinction of driving the winners of each class. It was easy driving with Mary Cromwell in the 2.20 trot and 2.23 pace. She lost the opening heat through a mistake on the home stretch and Prince Louie got a mark of 2.18¼ by winning it. After that it was Mary Cromwell only and the longer she raced the better she seemed to go. She goes clean legged jogs on the trot and when turned for the word is on her pace like a bird. She is a beautiful mare, racy looking and quite an addition to the Halifax race horses.

In the 2.17 trot and 2.20 pace, Boutilier did not have such an easy ride, but his game little provincial bred trotter carried him safely through, though he had to employ all his skill as a teamster to stall off the Island mare Queen Marie. Wolverton landed the opening heat with Alice A. and after that took things more leisurely.

Queen Marie was first to the wire in the second heat, with Orphan Girl the contender. Then Orphan Girl made it three straight, closely pressed by Irving's mare.

Tomorrow three races are scheduled and it promises to be the most sensational day's racing ever seen in New Glasgow. Frank J. Power is officiating as starter and associated with him are James A. Fraser, New Glasgow, and D. McKay, Sydney, as judges. The summary:—

2.17 TROT, 2.20 PACE; PURSE $300.

Orphan Girl, b.m., by Ferron (Boutilier)	4	2	1	1

LEWISVILLE STORE, IN THE HANDS OF THE SHERIFF, BURGLARIZED.

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 6—William Taylor's store, Lewisville, was burglarized last night. Entrance was effected through a window, but it is not known how much stuff was taken. Taylor's stock was under seizure by the sheriff for debt.

MASSACHUSETTS TRAINING SHIP AT HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, Aug. 6—The Massachusetts auxiliary training ship Ranger arrived this evening from the Azores. The Ranger has been absent two months on a cruise to the Mediterranean.

FISHERIES REGULATED BY OTTAWA.

KINGSTON, Aug. 6—Over-exploitation of the Canadian, and particularly the Ontario fisheries, which, if followed, will lead to a seriously depleted condition, has decided the Dominion Government to establish a federal fishery so that Ontario will soon have two sets of officers, provincial and federal.

"SPANISH PRISONER'S SWINDLE" IS STILL BEING WORKED.

OTTAWA, Aug. 6—The department of external affairs has been notified by the British Ambassador at Madrid that the time honored old fraud, known as the "Spanish prisoner's swindle," is still being exploited in various portions of the British dominions and the public is warned against it.

The methods of the swindlers remain unchanged. A letter is received by the intended victim stating that some person, often a long lost relation, is dying in a Spanish prison, and wishes to bequeath his fortune to the addressee on condition that the latter will adopt his only child. A sum of money must, however, first be sent to defray the preliminary lawyer's fees, the child's journey to Canada, etc.

COMMISSION IN ANTIGONISH

SYDNEY, August 4—The members of the royal commission left Friday via the Bras d'Or lakes to Baddeck, and thence to Grand Narrows, where they entrain for Antigonish, Dr Robertson, Hon J. N. Armstrong, Rrv Dr Bryce and T. Bengough left last night for Antigonish, where Dr Robertson is to lecture before the summer school of science tonight. The other members of the commission, Messrs Forsythe, Simpson, Murray, DeSerres and Professor Sexton, went to Baddeck this morning by the steamer Marion. The members expressed themselves as much pleased with their visit to Cape Breton. Before leaving last night the members of the royal commission were entertained at a banquet by J. S. McLennan at his residence, "Petersfield," Westmount.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS KITCHEN.

MEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 6—Huddled up in a corner of the kitchen, his head bent under him in such a way that it had shut off his wind and strangled him to death, the police last night found Edward M. Pearce, of Chester Street, after they had broken in the door of his house. The man had not been seen by neighbors since Monday, and it is believed that he met his death on that day.

Medical Examiner Durrell, who viewed the body, gave the cause of death as strangulation, it being his opinion that the man fainted and fell in such a way as to shut off his wind and while insensible died.

Pearce's wife and family are summering in Maine, and as yet the police have not been able to learn their address to notify them of the accident.

NO CALL FOR MEN FROM WEST

MONTREAL, Aug. 6—While optimistic reports are being sent out from the west as to the crop possibilities it is not expected that there will be any difficulty in handling the grain in the west this year, either by the railways or by way of securing enough men to garner the harvest. In fact, it is expected that the demand for harvesters from Eastern Canada will be much less than for years past, possibly not more than half of the 25,000 who were called for on one or two big years.

This does not mean that there is not a big amount of wheat and other grain in the west to be harvested. It does, however, intimate that the crop this year is not sufficiently large to keep pace with the inrush of farmers and laborers, with the result that the men already on the spot will be more nearly able to handle the harvest than in any season during the past decade.

Reports received by the various railways interested are not as yet sufficiently definite to warrant exact calculations, but they are sufficiently explicit to make it apparent that this season will not be one in which the phrase "bumper crop" will be worn threadbare. There is no fear that the word failure could be applied to the crop, but threre is not the slightest doubt that the supply of labor and cars will be ample to meet the demands.

In this connection an official of the Canadian Pacific stated today:—

"With the apparent condition of the crop and the large number of settlers and laborers who have flocked into the country during the present year, it is not expected that the demand for harvesters will be so great this season as it has been in the past and will be very much less than last year."

Lloyds. Policies are taken for two years.

MELBOURNE, Aug. 4 After a long debate in the house of representatives, the bill amending the conciliation arbitration act passed without a division. The measure extends the power of the arbitration court to every industry and provides for compulsory preference to trade-unionists.

WANT MRS. LONGWORTH TO STOP SMOKING.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Aug. 6—Without a dissenting vote, the four Christian Endeavor societies of this city voted today that a public request be sent to Mrs Nicholas Longworth, asking her to give up the cigarette habit. It was pointed out that the influence of an ex-president's daughter would count a great deal with the younger generation in America.

The action of the societies was the climax of a warm discussion, following the reading of a paper on narcotics. Society leaders who sponsored the cigarette habit were severely assailed.

AIRMEN'S STRIKE IN GERMANY.

BERLIN, Aug. 6—For the first time in history, a strike of airmen is threatened. The trouble is becoming here in consequence of an ordiance prescribing conditions under which aeroplaning may be conducted in Berlin and province of Branderburg.

ONTARIO LUMBER JOBBER CONVICTED, OF FORGERY AND THEFT.

STURGEON FALLS, Ont., Aug. 6—John Heroux, who has a wife and four children in the township of Field, north of Sturgeon Falls, was sentenced to three years in Kingston penitentiary by Magistrate Bradford here today, on charges of forgery, perjury and theft.

Heroux was a jobber for J. B. Booth, and organized a cunning system of fraudulent time checks forged by his clerk, Herman Lavoie, under his orders.

IOWA "INSURGENTS" CARRY PRIMARIES.

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 6—Republican Iowa wrote herself vigorously progressive today at a convention which was in uproar most of the time.

Senators Cummins and Dolliver and the insurgent delegation at Washington were enthusiastically endorsed.

The new tariff law was branded as a failure in the light of the party pledge of 1908.

President Taft received only a lukewarm endorsement.

A sop to harmony was flung out in the endorsement of the administration of Governor Carroll.

FUNERAL OF REV. W. J. McCAUGHAN, IN BELFAST, ATTENDED BY CROWDS.

BELFAST, Aug. 6—Rev. W. J. McCaughan's funeral was one of the most remarkable ever seen in Belfast. At a crowded memorial service in May Street chapel the lord mayor was present as well as the moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. Several ministers conducted the services, whereat eulogistic speeches were delivered. The funeral procession was over a mile long, including 250 clergy of all denominations, members of the corporation and public bodies. The route to the cemetery was lined with sympathizers despite the incessant rain.

BLIND LAWYER WRITES BRIEFS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6—Raymond G. Brown, totally blind since he was eight years of age, began this morning his duties as an assistant to Henry A. Wise, United States District Attorney. The appointment was made three months ago, upon the endorsement of a number of the leading members of the local bar and upon the recommendation of the officials of Harvard University.

Mr. Brown was graduated from Harvard. He has taken the full law course, and is credited with possessing an unusually retentive memory that takes the place, to a large extent, of vision in the important matter of handling legal notes.

His present assignment is to handle the briefing work in the office of the chief. He has an aid who reads to him the various authorities and the documents that are needed for his work. Then, relying upon his memory and the sort of notes that his blind training has enabled him to makel he sits down in front of a typewriter and proceeds to grind out the finished product with as much apparent ease as many a man with two good eyes might.

LAKE AINSLIE OIL OPERATIONS.

HALIFAX, Aug. 6—Oil has been struck at Lake Ainslie and the promoters of the company operating there are correspondingly happy.

The fluid was struck on Aug. 1st, and A. G. Baillie received a sample last night. It will be sent to Ontario for official analysis. It was got at a depth of 1,190 feet and F. H. Stover, the president of the company, who is conducting boring operations, wires that all the conditions are satisfactory and that the deposit is a large one. He is very sanguine as to the outcome.

This demonstrates without a doubt that oil exists at Lake Ainslie, but developments will demonstrate as to its commercial value.
