THE MARKETS

MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 12.—The foreign demand for Canadian grain here today was quiet but a moderate amount of business was done with domestic buyers in cash grain at unchanged prices. The demand for spring and winter wheat flour showed a slackening off but values were firm. The feature of the mill-feed trade was the weaker feeling that developed for middlings and prices were unchanged. The inquiry for standard grades of rolled oats was fair and prices were steady. A fairly active business was done in butter and values were firmly maintained. Receipts were 110 packages. Further weakness developed in the cheese market and prices were marked down another fraction which was attributed to the inactive demand. Receipts were 585 cases. Prices for all grades of fresh and storage eggs were well maintained under a good demand. Receipts were 709 cases. Beans continued scarce and many demands could not be met owing to inadequate supplies. Canadian beans were firm at $5.25 per bushel, with jobbers selling at 9 1/2 per lb. and yellow eyed at 9c. There was no change in the local potato situation. P. E. I. whites sold at 77c and green mountains at 85c per 90 lbs. in bags.

TORONTO.—Eggs receipts on this market are increasing. Dealers are quoting country shippers extras 56c; firsts 46c; pullet extras 41c; seconds 31c. The turkey market is also quiet and declining.

Eddie Hornby Transferred

Mr. Eddie Hornby, the well known and popular second teller of the Canadian Bank of Commerce has been transferred to the branch at Shelburne, N. S., and leaves for that town this morning.

Mr. Hornby besides his banking duties finds time to take an active part in athletics and besides being a crack bicycle rider for three seasons 1924, 1925 and 1926, a member of Queen Square baseball team which won the championship each of those years.

His first racing was two years ago, when he came out under the Abegweit colors while he was still a pupil at Queen Square School making a good showing. Later he represented the League of the Cross.

In 1923 while only fourteen years of age he captured the four bicycle races, junior and senior in the school sports, breaking the record for the quarter mile held by George Prowse, and again in 1925 Eddie broke the half mile record at the school.

At the Maritime Championships at Halifax in 1927 he won the half mile race and came within 1-5 of a second of breaking the record of 1:08 1-2.

In 1927 and 1928 he was a contestant in the Herald and Mail 45 mile road race, finishing eighth in 1927 and seventh in 1928. He now possesses seven cups and twenty-four medals and will no doubt add many more while on the mainland.

The Guardian wishes Mr. Hornby every success—further promotion in banking circles and further victories on the bicycle track.

ISLAND VETERANS' DEATH.—The death occurred at Cambridge, Mass., last week of Sergeant John T. Hume, a native of Pleasant Valley, P. E. I. In the Spanish-American war he served for three years in Cuba and the Philippine Islands with the U. S. A. troops. In April 1917, he enlisted in the World War with the 14th. Railway Engineers, sailing to Europe with the first troops to go from the United States. He served in two or three major engagements with the American Army, and two with the British forces, and received his discharge in April, 1919, with the rank of a first-class sergeant. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

THANKOFFERING MEETING.—The W. M. S. Thankoffering service of St. James Church was held last evening, the Minister, Rev. W. Bruce Muir giving a most interesting address dealing with the work accomplished by the W. M. S. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada during the past year. He also told of the many activities of the women in the Maritime Provinces and made a plea for young people to take up deaconess work for which such splendid training can be had in Toronto. Solos "Noel" by Miss Jacqueline Macdonald and "My Task" by Mr. Lyster McInnis added greatly to the pleasure of the meeting.

act, and the least we can do is to follow her example to the best of our ability.

Rev. Robertson Ballard writes: A world without Christmas! It is unimaginable. There is music in the very word. It echoes gladly in every corner of the land. The King in his palace, and the poorest subject in a back alley, make merry and are glad—for Christmas-time comes again. Almost everyone awakens on Christmas Day with a feeling that it is the first business of the human race to be happy for this one day of the year. Home is the centre of the universe to-day. However lowly that home may be, it is a gladsome thing to be there.

Happier Than at Any Time

It is among the loveliest certainties of Christmas that millions of people are happier than at any other time. The flowers of charity and compassion blossom into beauty in the most unexpected places. Kindness abounds, where, at other times, it is rare. For "Love came down at Christmas-time." And every Christmas means the re-awakening Love in the hearts and homes of myriads. Only the cynic doubts it. Only the heartless fail to rejoice that it is so.

In the mean streets that honeycomb all our cities, there is a gladness that is lovely to think about. A mighty conspiracy of cheerfulness radiates from the main thoroughfares and pierces the cheerless drabness of the back streets. "Alf, Sarah, and the little 'uns," in their tiny, tawdry home are out for a happy Christmas. If you could peep into their poor dwelling, you would wish them happiness, for it is hard to be jolly in a mean street.

Do you realise what it is to live in a "mean street?" To explore for yourself is an adventure worth undertaking. If you can tactfully gain entrance through the forbidding doors of the very poor, who hide their poverty in the darker corners of the city, you will return to your own home with a full heart and, maybe, an empty purse. If you cannot explore for yourself take the word of the clergy for the fact. They know the respectable poor and God's other poor.

Read over the list of presents which some of the poor children would like for Christmas. Do not stop to argue why they want them; it is sufficient to know that they do want them. Their stockings will be empty and their little hearts sore on Christmas morn if we fail them. For very many of them it will be literally all that they will have. For all of them it will mean the coming of blissful happiness into their poor stunted little lives. And John Masefield is right when he reminds us that

"He who gives a child a treat
Makes joybells ring in Heaven's street."

For the Heavenly Babe of Whom rich and poor alike think at Christmas-time, knew what it was to be poor, and to live in a mean street in Bethlehem, long years ago.

Be a Santa Pal now. Do not wait till tomorrow. Ring up 133 and tell the Editor the number or numbers you wish to look after. Send your parcels immediately thereafter to the Guardian with the numbers and Christian names marked on each, and The Guardian will see they are safely delivered to the intended recipients in good time for Christmas Eve.

Do it now please.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—In his report handed down today, Rear-Admiral W. A. Moffet, chief of the Bureau of Naval Aeronautics, disclosed that two thirds of the United States' 1,000 airplane program had been completed at an increase in aviation expenditure of $2,769,552.

This fall, He turned it over to Chisholm who runs the garage on our premises. Chisholm came over here last April. The car was brought to the garage. There was no attempt made to collect this insurance to his knowledge. Do not know if there is a dispute about the insurance. Witness and Major McKenzie, came to station and saw Chief of Police and another officer. Then he went for Chisholm. The Chief of Police told him. Came up to court room, Major McKenzie, the Chief and another officer were present. Chisholm was questioned. He was not warned. Major McKenzie (recalled) Chisholm was questioned by the Chief as to whether he knew anything about the car.

To Mr. Johnstone: I told the Chief of Police the car was stolen. "So far as I was concerned it was stolen."

Mr. Notting (recalled): I put in no claim for insurance.

To Mr. Campbell: "I did not tell Chisholm; the police sent for him. The case was adjourned until this morning."

The "Borrowed" Motor Car Case

Yesterday morning John Chisholm proprietor of the service station in the rear of the Chrysler show rooms on Great George Street appeared before the Stipendiary Magistrate charged with taking and operating a motor car without owner's consent.

Mr. J. J. Johnstone, K. C., appeared for the prisoner and Mr. J. Campbell for the prosecution.

Major McKenzie the first witness, in being sworn, said he was the owner of a Chrysler car. He was going to Halifax on Monday—a week ago—and on the Sunday previous gave the keys of his car to Mr. Malcolm McInnes to be delivered either to Mr. Notting of the Chrysler show rooms or to Chisholm in the garage at the rear of the show rooms. Witness went to Halifax on the following morning and returned on Thursday night the 6th. On Saturday morning he went to the Chrysler show rooms and asked for his car. Mr. Notting said he knew nothing about it. It was not there. Mr. Notting later called witness by telephone. They had a conversation. He came to the Police Station. The chief and prisoner were there. Prisoner was not under arrest at the time as far as he knew.

Chief Birtwistle (sworn) On Saturday morning in connection with his complaint he thought the prisoner came to the station with Mr. Notting. Prisoner was questioned about the car. He was not warned. He was not under arrest. He was in the Police Court—the room they now occupied. There were three present. Witness was not positive whether or not prisoner was brought in by the police. He was not under arrest.

His Honor here stated that he was anxious to know if he was brought in by the Police.

Mr. Notting (sworn) related how Major McKenzie called for his car. It was not there. He went to McKenzie's office with him then they saw the Chief of Police. He went to the garage and brought Chisholm to the Police Court. He told Chisholm he had better come down and shoulder the responsibility. He was not in any way connected with the prosecution in this case.

To Mr. Johnstone—Am not connected with the prosecution in this case. The car in question was purchased from witness. The car was insured. As a rule insurance amounts to 80 percent of the value. Insurance was in favor of Major McKenzie. Had arranged verbally for turning in of the car. That was to be done
