IT TAKES A SPECIALIST!

THE administration of estates is a specialized business. Just as one calls a doctor, a dentist or a lawyer—when in need of one—a Trust Company should be retained in the administration of an estate.

The Trust Company is not only skilled in all the varied phases of estate management, but is permanent, financially responsible, and possessed of all the facilities with which to do the work well. Few private executors are fully capable, and many of them would inadvertently cost an estate large sums through errors in judgment, delays and losses.

The Eastern Trust Company has administered a great many estates, both large and small. Such experience should prove of great value to your beneficiaries. We welcome consultation.

Mrs. Webster, M.D., was before her marriage Dr. Grace Murray, graduate of Dalhousie School of Medicine, 1936. She was on the staff of the General Hospital, Saint John, N. B., for a time before her marriage in August last year. Mr. and Mrs. Webster had offered for the Missionary work of the United Church in Canada, in the foreign field and were to go to China. Their passage was booked from Vancouver and while they were in Toronto the Japanese invasion of China assumed such large proportions that it was deemed inadvisable to proceed. They took up the study of the Chinese language in Toronto but as things in the Orient got worse, the Mission Board released Mr. Webster to resume work in Prince Edward Island where he successfully labored after his graduation from Pine Hill Divinity Hall the year previous.—(New Glasgow Chronicle).
