SAYS MCTIGUE HAS A CLAIM

New York Sport Writer States That Mike is Being Overlooked as an Opponent For Wilson.

A New York writer says:—Mike McTigue wants to know why it is that he is being overlooked as an opponent for Johnny Wilson. Mike says he has far more right to a match for the middleweight title than Harry Greb. He says that he beat Greb handily, scoring a knock-down for the count of nine.

Shortly after George Robinson had knocked Wilson down three times, winning the popular decision, McTigue knocked Robinson out in four rounds. The Mike out-punched Panama Joe Gans, who was thought to be invincible until Mike punched him full of holes. Mike Gibbons is hard of hearing when ever McTigue's name is mentioned. McTigue says that when he beat Jeff Smith in the Gardens recently, he cleaned up the last of the contenders and wants to know if his record does not place him first when it comes to arranging a championship match.

There is no doubt that McTigue's record is by far the best of the contenders, but what Rickard is looking for is not the best record, but the best drawing card. McTigue actually lost ground through his bout with Smith, even though he won all the way. That affair was dull and uninteresting. This was not McTigue's fault, but the fans did not stop to discriminate. They hooted both men, and now the promoter is afraid to take a chance with McTigue, although he is by long odds the logical contender.

This situation in which McTigue finds himself shows how important it is for a championship contender to have a smart manager. If McTigue had been at all wise he would have fought Smith up in Montreal, where what happened would not matter a great deal.

There never was a boxer who gained anything by facing Smith. His safety first tactics make his opponents look as bad as himself.

The wisest manager is not the one who succeeds in picking the "most easy" marks for the man to bowl over. The most important thing is to select one who will make an interesting fight of it. The fans place that feature above all others and the promoters are compelled to string along with them.

TORONTO, Dec. 29.—For five days, all through the busy Christmas season, Mrs. Mary E. Henderson lay dead on the floor of the dining room of her home. The three pet caryies that had fluttered in their cages when the old woman laid come downstairs on the morning she died, chirped in vain for their supply of fresh seed and water.

Then one by one they dropped lifeless to the bottom of their cages, and there was nothing left living in the house, where the pitiless cold came creeping in, freezing the running water in the pipes, while the frost formed on the windows to veil the light from the room where lay the dead lady and her dead pets.

On Christmas day Mrs. Henderson's son called with gifts for his mother, but went away when his wife was unanswered. Calling again today he investigated and found his mother lying dead.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2. and get the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough, will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain crystallized sugar syrup to fill in the bottle. If, desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never molds, and gives you 16 ounces of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.00.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat, tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound, now refined from the extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Turning to federal affairs, we are told that the Premier elect has about completed his long and arduous task of forming his cabinet. Failing to agree with the Progressives he has made terms with his kicking supporters from Quebec by which all Liberals who supported conscription, (with the single exception of Mr. Fielding) are excluded from the cabinet! This is Quebec's revenge upon the conscriptionists! This revenge is yet incomplete, however, and will no doubt be completed later.
