

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

It pays to buy in this Province.

H.F. Feehan, Mt. Stewart, was in the city yesterday.

The Northumberland arrived in port last evening shortly after eight p. m.

A. J. Grant, Mt. Stewart, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

Dr. J. B. and Mrs. Travers leave this morning on return to St. John.

Jas. Kennedy, Kensington, came to the city on the mail train last evening.

J. A. Auld, Covehead, leaves this morning for Winnipeg, where he will join his brother who is now located there.

Ensign Boleyns, of the Salvation Army, has been attached to the Charlottetown Corps and has taken up his work.

Captain Robinson, City, of the Salvation Army farewells on Sunday next after nearly two years sojourn in this city. He has been appointed financial representative in the Montreal office.

The large crowd at the Bijou last night were delighted with the beautiful pictures and loud in their praise of the new machine. Frank Day sang the illustrated song and was deservedly applauded.

In a recent issue of the St. John Telegraph there appears a contribution to the "Letters to the Editor" column headed "Colorophobia" in St. John" by Rev. Earnest E. Styles, pastor of the Methodist Church in Pownal.

Rev. W. M. Rochester, Sec'y for Western Canada of the Lord's Day Alliance, and Rev. T. Albert Moore, D. D., GGen. Sec'y. for Canada leave this morning for Moncton, where the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Lord's Day Alliance is to be held.

The mail train arrived in this city at ten last evening being twenty minutes late. With the exception of the Cape Traverse train, which was half an hour late and the Murray Harbor train, which was twenty minutes late, the other inward trains were on time.

A party was given in the First Methodist Church under the auspices of the Junior Epworth League at which a number of boys and girls were entertained. The order of amusements were games, solos, duets, etc., which were greatly enjoyed by all, but, best of all came the refreshments which were served by the League at the close of the amusements and which were heartily partaken off amid much mirth and chatter.

The marriage took place in the Pownal Methodist Church on Thanksgiving Day at 5 p. m. of Miss Linda Smith, daughter of John Smith, Pownal, to J. Harry Irving, of Lethbridge, Alta. The bride, who wore a dainty gown of cream silk was attended by Miss Sadie Smith of Charlottetown. The groomsmen were Major J. M. Jones and the officiating clergyman was Rev. E. E. Styles. Among the many presents received was a silver tea service from the choir and congregation of Pownal Church. Mr. and Mrs. Irving left yesterday morning for Lethbridge, Alberta.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

Robert W. Hogg, Sherbrooke, was recently operated on for an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Hogg is a son of Mrs. Jessie Hogg, City, who is at present in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Burrell, wife of Dr. Webster Burrell, accompanied by her daughter, arrived in Amherst on Saturday after spending the summer with her parents in Charlottetown, P.E.I. Dr. and Mrs. Burrell will take up their residence in Amherst and will be welcomed both in musical and social centres.—Amherst Ex.

The wedding takes place on Wednesday, Nov. 9th, of Captain Essie Tanner, of Lunenburg, to Capt. Charles B. Robinson, of this city. Rev. Geo. E. Ross and Brigadier Adby, St. John will perform the ceremony. Extensive preparations are being made and one hundred officers of the Army are invited. The wedding will take place at eight o'clock in the Salvation Army Citadel here and the public will be admitted by ticket.

The case of William Bryenton of Winsloe vs. H. H. Horne, was before His Honor Judge MacDonald, at the County Court all day on Thursday. Judgement was reserved. In this case the plaintiff sues the defendant for $54., alleging that the latter's dog had killed a number of his sheep. It appears that the farmer of Winsloe had quite a number of sheep killed during the summer. Mr. Bryenton losing seven on August 3rd. About half a dozen witnesses on each side were examined. Two witnesses said that they saw dogs in the field on the day of the killing resting under a bush evidently gorged with their fill of mutton. About ten yards away lay a dead sheep and three wounded animals were also in the field. The witnesses declared that they were of the opinion that one of the dogs was a St. Bernard, belonging to Mr. Horne. Other evidence was produced to show that the dog was absent from home three days, including the day of the killing. Mr. Horne in his defence, produced three girls whose home is on Prince Street. They swore the dog was at their place the three days referred to. "Bea" as the big St. Bernard is called, weighs about 150 lbs. and was reported to be of good disposition and gentle temperament. He is at present in Sydney.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

Robert W. Hogg, Sherbrooke, was recently operated on for an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Hogg is a son of Mrs. Jessie Hogg, City, who is at present in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Burrell, wife of Dr. Webster Burrell, accompanied by her daughter, arrived in Amherst on Saturday after spending the summer with her parents in Charlottetown, P.E.I. Dr. and Mrs. Burrell will take up their residence in Amherst and will be welcomed both in musical and social centres.—Amherst Ex.

The wedding takes place on Wednesday, Nov. 9th, of Captain Essie Tanner, of Lunenburg, to Capt. Charles B. Robinson, of this city. Rev. Geo. E. Ross and Brigadier Adby, St. John will perform the ceremony. Extensive preparations are being made and one hundred officers of the Army are invited. The wedding will take place at eight o'clock in the Salvation Army Citadel here and the public will be admitted by ticket.

The case of William Bryenton of Winsloe vs. H. H. Horne, was before His Honor Judge MacDonald, at the County Court all day on Thursday. Judgement was reserved. In this case the plaintiff sues the defendant for $54., alleging that the latter's dog had killed a number of his sheep. It appears that the farmer of Winsloe had quite a number of sheep killed during the summer. Mr. Bryenton losing seven on August 3rd. About half a dozen witnesses on each side were examined. Two witnesses said that they saw dogs in the field on the day of the killing resting under a bush evidently gorged with their fill of mutton. About ten yards away lay a dead sheep and three wounded animals were also in the field. The witnesses declared that they were of the opinion that one of the dogs was a St. Bernard, belonging to Mr. Horne. Other evidence was produced to show that the dog was absent from home three days, including the day of the killing. Mr. Horne in his defence, produced three girls whose home is on Prince Street. They swore the dog was at their place the three days referred to. "Bea" as the big St. Bernard is called, weighs about 150 lbs. and was reported to be of good disposition and gentle temperament. He is at present in Sydney.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

Robert W. Hogg, Sherbrooke, was recently operated on for an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Hogg is a son of Mrs. Jessie Hogg, City, who is at present in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Burrell, wife of Dr. Webster Burrell, accompanied by her daughter, arrived in Amherst on Saturday after spending the summer with her parents in Charlottetown, P.E.I. Dr. and Mrs. Burrell will take up their residence in Amherst and will be welcomed both in musical and social centres.—Amherst Ex.

The wedding takes place on Wednesday, Nov. 9th, of Captain Essie Tanner, of Lunenburg, to Capt. Charles B. Robinson, of this city. Rev. Geo. E. Ross and Brigadier Adby, St. John will perform the ceremony. Extensive preparations are being made and one hundred officers of the Army are invited. The wedding will take place at eight o'clock in the Salvation Army Citadel here and the public will be admitted by ticket.

The case of William Bryenton of Winsloe vs. H. H. Horne, was before His Honor Judge MacDonald, at the County Court all day on Thursday. Judgement was reserved. In this case the plaintiff sues the defendant for $54., alleging that the latter's dog had killed a number of his sheep. It appears that the farmer of Winsloe had quite a number of sheep killed during the summer. Mr. Bryenton losing seven on August 3rd. About half a dozen witnesses on each side were examined. Two witnesses said that they saw dogs in the field on the day of the killing resting under a bush evidently gorged with their fill of mutton. About ten yards away lay a dead sheep and three wounded animals were also in the field. The witnesses declared that they were of the opinion that one of the dogs was a St. Bernard, belonging to Mr. Horne. Other evidence was produced to show that the dog was absent from home three days, including the day of the killing. Mr. Horne in his defence, produced three girls whose home is on Prince Street. They swore the dog was at their place the three days referred to. "Bea" as the big St. Bernard is called, weighs about 150 lbs. and was reported to be of good disposition and gentle temperament. He is at present in Sydney.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

Robert W. Hogg, Sherbrooke, was recently operated on for an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Hogg is a son of Mrs. Jessie Hogg, City, who is at present in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Burrell, wife of Dr. Webster Burrell, accompanied by her daughter, arrived in Amherst on Saturday after spending the summer with her parents in Charlottetown, P.E.I. Dr. and Mrs. Burrell will take up their residence in Amherst and will be welcomed both in musical and social centres.—Amherst Ex.

The wedding takes place on Wednesday, Nov. 9th, of Captain Essie Tanner, of Lunenburg, to Capt. Charles B. Robinson, of this city. Rev. Geo. E. Ross and Brigadier Adby, St. John will perform the ceremony. Extensive preparations are being made and one hundred officers of the Army are invited. The wedding will take place at eight o'clock in the Salvation Army Citadel here and the public will be admitted by ticket.

The case of William Bryenton of Winsloe vs. H. H. Horne, was before His Honor Judge MacDonald, at the County Court all day on Thursday. Judgement was reserved. In this case the plaintiff sues the defendant for $54., alleging that the latter's dog had killed a number of his sheep. It appears that the farmer of Winsloe had quite a number of sheep killed during the summer. Mr. Bryenton losing seven on August 3rd. About half a dozen witnesses on each side were examined. Two witnesses said that they saw dogs in the field on the day of the killing resting under a bush evidently gorged with their fill of mutton. About ten yards away lay a dead sheep and three wounded animals were also in the field. The witnesses declared that they were of the opinion that one of the dogs was a St. Bernard, belonging to Mr. Horne. Other evidence was produced to show that the dog was absent from home three days, including the day of the killing. Mr. Horne in his defence, produced three girls whose home is on Prince Street. They swore the dog was at their place the three days referred to. "Bea" as the big St. Bernard is called, weighs about 150 lbs. and was reported to be of good disposition and gentle temperament. He is at present in Sydney.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

Robert W. Hogg, Sherbrooke, was recently operated on for an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Hogg is a son of Mrs. Jessie Hogg, City, who is at present in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Burrell, wife of Dr. Webster Burrell, accompanied by her daughter, arrived in Amherst on Saturday after spending the summer with her parents in Charlottetown, P.E.I. Dr. and Mrs. Burrell will take up their residence in Amherst and will be welcomed both in musical and social centres.—Amherst Ex.

The wedding takes place on Wednesday, Nov. 9th, of Captain Essie Tanner, of Lunenburg, to Capt. Charles B. Robinson, of this city. Rev. Geo. E. Ross and Brigadier Adby, St. John will perform the ceremony. Extensive preparations are being made and one hundred officers of the Army are invited. The wedding will take place at eight o'clock in the Salvation Army Citadel here and the public will be admitted by ticket.

The case of William Bryenton of Winsloe vs. H. H. Horne, was before His Honor Judge MacDonald, at the County Court all day on Thursday. Judgement was reserved. In this case the plaintiff sues the defendant for $54., alleging that the latter's dog had killed a number of his sheep. It appears that the farmer of Winsloe had quite a number of sheep killed during the summer. Mr. Bryenton losing seven on August 3rd. About half a dozen witnesses on each side were examined. Two witnesses said that they saw dogs in the field on the day of the killing resting under a bush evidently gorged with their fill of mutton. About ten yards away lay a dead sheep and three wounded animals were also in the field. The witnesses declared that they were of the opinion that one of the dogs was a St. Bernard, belonging to Mr. Horne. Other evidence was produced to show that the dog was absent from home three days, including the day of the killing. Mr. Horne in his defence, produced three girls whose home is on Prince Street. They swore the dog was at their place the three days referred to. "Bea" as the big St. Bernard is called, weighs about 150 lbs. and was reported to be of good disposition and gentle temperament. He is at present in Sydney.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

Robert W. Hogg, Sherbrooke, was recently operated on for an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Hogg is a son of Mrs. Jessie Hogg, City, who is at present in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Burrell, wife of Dr. Webster Burrell, accompanied by her daughter, arrived in Amherst on Saturday after spending the summer with her parents in Charlottetown, P.E.I. Dr. and Mrs. Burrell will take up their residence in Amherst and will be welcomed both in musical and social centres.—Amherst Ex.

The wedding takes place on Wednesday, Nov. 9th, of Captain Essie Tanner, of Lunenburg, to Capt. Charles B. Robinson, of this city. Rev. Geo. E. Ross and Brigadier Adby, St. John will perform the ceremony. Extensive preparations are being made and one hundred officers of the Army are invited. The wedding will take place at eight o'clock in the Salvation Army Citadel here and the public will be admitted by ticket.

The case of William Bryenton of Winsloe vs. H. H. Horne, was before His Honor Judge MacDonald, at the County Court all day on Thursday. Judgement was reserved. In this case the plaintiff sues the defendant for $54., alleging that the latter's dog had killed a number of his sheep. It appears that the farmer of Winsloe had quite a number of sheep killed during the summer. Mr. Bryenton losing seven on August 3rd. About half a dozen witnesses on each side were examined. Two witnesses said that they saw dogs in the field on the day of the killing resting under a bush evidently gorged with their fill of mutton. About ten yards away lay a dead sheep and three wounded animals were also in the field. The witnesses declared that they were of the opinion that one of the dogs was a St. Bernard, belonging to Mr. Horne. Other evidence was produced to show that the dog was absent from home three days, including the day of the killing. Mr. Horne in his defence, produced three girls whose home is on Prince Street. They swore the dog was at their place the three days referred to. "Bea" as the big St. Bernard is called, weighs about 150 lbs. and was reported to be of good disposition and gentle temperament. He is at present in Sydney.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

Robert W. Hogg, Sherbrooke, was recently operated on for an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Hogg is a son of Mrs. Jessie Hogg, City, who is at present in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Burrell, wife of Dr. Webster Burrell, accompanied by her daughter, arrived in Amherst on Saturday after spending the summer with her parents in Charlottetown, P.E.I. Dr. and Mrs. Burrell will take up their residence in Amherst and will be welcomed both in musical and social centres.—Amherst Ex.

The wedding takes place on Wednesday, Nov. 9th, of Captain Essie Tanner, of Lunenburg, to Capt. Charles B. Robinson, of this city. Rev. Geo. E. Ross and Brigadier Adby, St. John will perform the ceremony. Extensive preparations are being made and one hundred officers of the Army are invited. The wedding will take place at eight o'clock in the Salvation Army Citadel here and the public will be admitted by ticket.

The case of William Bryenton of Winsloe vs. H. H. Horne, was before His Honor Judge MacDonald, at the County Court all day on Thursday. Judgement was reserved. In this case the plaintiff sues the defendant for $54., alleging that the latter's dog had killed a number of his sheep. It appears that the farmer of Winsloe had quite a number of sheep killed during the summer. Mr. Bryenton losing seven on August 3rd. About half a dozen witnesses on each side were examined. Two witnesses said that they saw dogs in the field on the day of the killing resting under a bush evidently gorged with their fill of mutton. About ten yards away lay a dead sheep and three wounded animals were also in the field. The witnesses declared that they were of the opinion that one of the dogs was a St. Bernard, belonging to Mr. Horne. Other evidence was produced to show that the dog was absent from home three days, including the day of the killing. Mr. Horne in his defence, produced three girls whose home is on Prince Street. They swore the dog was at their place the three days referred to. "Bea" as the big St. Bernard is called, weighs about 150 lbs. and was reported to be of good disposition and gentle temperament. He is at present in Sydney.

There will be a new show at the Bijou tonight.

The "Central Drugstore" wants a boy. See classified column.

Mrs. L. H. Beer and Miss Nora, City, left yesterday morning for Ottawa.

Mrs. B. A. Bernestain and son arrived in this city last night from Boston.

Rev. John Murray, Clifton, returns home today from attending the Presbyterian Synod in the city.

Harry Lemon, the well known athlete of Montague, has entered the Union Commercial College for a full course.

Try Again Division, Bonshaw, No. 235 will reopen on Saturday, Nov. 5th. All members are requested to be present.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Char. Rattray, of Union North, will take place from her late residence, today at 3 o'clock p. m. Interment at Covehead.

W. Brehaut of the Post Office Department is running on the eastern mail car. He is for the present filling the vacancy made by Fred McLean.

A large number of College students who have been spending their Thanksgiving Holidays at their homes came to the city last evening on the mail train.

On the last trip of the S. S. Halifax. She encountered very rough weather. Outward she had a big cargo including 70 tons hay, vegetables and 100 cans cream.

Jas Peters, City, who has been on a surveying party in New Brunswick, returned to the city on the mail train last evening.

THREE SETS OF TRIPLETS. FOUR PAIRS OF TWINS.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, October 27.—Mrs. Wm. G. Clark, a Lakeside avenue matron, has just become the mother of her third set of triplets. She is also mother of four pairs of twins, and herself is the only sister of 20 brothers. Two pairs of twins and one set of triplets were born during Mrs. Clark's seventeen children came in groups during her second marriage.

Furness, Withy & Co., Ltd STEAMSHIP LINERS

LONDON, HALIFAX SERVICE

Table with columns for ship names, routes, and dates. Includes ships like Kanawha, Shenandoah, Rappahannock, etc.

The above steamers have a limited accommodation for saloon passengers. Passenger and Freight Agents for the Allan Line Steamship Co. at Halifax.

FURNESS, WITHY & CO. LTD., Halifax, N.S. Agent

Manchester Liner

Direct sailings from Charlottetown and Manchester, England.

Manchester Trader Sailing Oct. 25th Manchester Spinner Sailing Nov. 26th.

The above steamers will carry general cargo and live stock at low rates.

For rates and other information apply to A. PICKARD & CO 8-31 wmtf Agents

PLANT