SUCCESSFUL MEETINGS.—A Baddeck C. B. paper states: Rev. William McLeod, of Letches Creek, who has been conducting a series of evangelistic meetings in the Middle River church for a week past, spoke in Greenwood church, Baddeck, on Monday evening to a congregation that more than filled the meeting-hall. Mr. McLeod gave an eloquent and earnest talk that held the attention of all present. Mr. McLeod was formerly of P. E. Island.

Opening Xmas Matinee At Prince Edward

The Young Adams Co., headed by H. Wilmot Young and Marjorie Adams, supported by a well balanced company will offer "In Secret Service" a romantic drama of the present, full of dramatic climaxes, thrills and pleasur. The company has not been here in four years, and is pleasantly remembered from the excellence of its former performances. Miss Marjie Adams has a strong emotional part as "Helen Grey" giving her wide scope for her brilliant dramatic talents.

Among the plays to be presented following the holiday matinee Thursday, are "Under Arizona Skies," "All of a Sudden Peggy," "Trail of Love," "Some Fine," "Sandy MacKay," "The Marriage Question," "The Secret Service" in a manner. Vaudeville between the acts will be a strong feature and at each performance. Popular prices will prevail for Xmas matinee. The engage-

STUDENTS' RETURN.—Messrs Percy Boyce and Fred Tanton, city, Lowell Compton, St. Eleanors, Horace Walsh, Ellerslie and Edgar Palmer, Conway who have been attending Kings College University, Windsor, N. S., have arrived home for the Christmas holidays; and Messrs Ingham Palmer, Conway, Charles White and Mr. Saunders, Summerside who have been attending Kings Collegiate School have also arrived home.

BIG FUR SALES.—Dr. Leo Frank has sold a number of his fine silver fox skins to Mr. Chester McLure at an average of $400 each or a total cash sale of $14,000. Asked his reason for selling locally, Dr. Frank gave several very good reasons, first that by selling locally he will not have to wait nine months for his money; will not have to worry over the fluctuation of the English money market, saves six per cent. commission on sales and one per cent. in insurance. He figures out that sales to the Fur Sales Board is an all round advantage and bases his arguments to this effect from actual experience.
