Will Cultivate Tastes of Younger Music Lovers

(By Don Gilbert) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Back at the head of things at the Metropolitan Opera House after several months of talent-scouting in Europe, General Manager Edward Johnson tonight announced the "Met" would begin its 1937-38 season with renewed emphasis on shaping a repertoire that will attract the younger generation.

Mr. Johnson said he regretted being unable to include Jennie Tourel, Claude mezzo-soprano, and Joseph Sayer, French-Canadian baritone, in the coming season. This, he said, was due to no fault of their own; but because he has simply been unable to find a place for them. Both had places in the spring season repertoire.

Memorial L. O. B. A.

A few events of interest to members and friends of Memorial L. O. B. A., Charlottetown, took place recently. Some weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, School St. entertained in their lovely new home, several visiting L. O. B. A. members from abroad and Memorial members and friends who enjoyed a very pleasant evening of fellowship at the dining table. Refreshments were served by the genial and capable hostess. On Sept. 10th Memorial L. O. B. A. had a representation from three rural Sister lodges. During the evening a very interesting event took place when R. W. Grand Secy., Miss Sophie Newson, Kingston, P. E. I. presented the M. W. Grand Lecturer, Mrs. Louise Bonnell with a handsome jewel from R.W. Grand Lodge of P. E. I. in recognition of her two years' service in office of R. W. Grand Mistress. Mrs. Bonnell very graciously thanked Miss Newson on behalf of R. W. Grand Lodge and expressed her pleasure in serving in that capacity and said she feels she has made many warm lasting friends. At the close of business routine, the happy family joined in a cheery sing song led by our jolly pianist Mrs. Helen McEachern. Dainty refreshments were served by committee in charge and enjoyed by all.

On Sept. 24th, Memorial again enjoyed the fellowship of two other rural Sister lodges visiting with them on their regular night of meeting. Several Grand Lodge officers were cordially welcomed and given due honor after a period of business routine and interesting remarks by visiting brothers and sisters. The meeting opened for a most enjoyable hour of music by the Charlottetown Sixtette orchestra, known last year as the quintet, namely, Messrs. Nelson Robinson, Joseph Duncan, Walter Young, Wallace McLeod, Harry Yorston and Lawrence Rowe. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies and on motion by Mr. Holmes, R. W. Grand Master, seconded by Mr. J. V. Moore, R. W. Past Grand Master and moved that a hearty vote of thanks be extended to the musicians and Memorial Lodge for their very enjoyable evening. Mrs. Julia Hall, W. M., accepted the vote of thanks and briefly responded and hoped they would soon visit them again. God Save the King brought these happy events to a close.

A SHIP IN DISTRESS FLASHES A MESSAGE TO CAR-OWNERS

AN emergency at sea—confusion—then the calm voice of authority assuring all that no immediate danger exists—a wireless operator sending out his S.O.S.—S.O.S.—the arrival of help in time to prevent a marine disaster. The contribution that Exide Batteries have made towards greater safety at sea has been an important one. Without a dependable, never-failing source of power in times of emergency many of the protective devices developed for marine safety would be useless.

Today on modern vessels, both large and small, Exide Batteries assure in times of emergency, the operation of searchlights, wireless, running lights, steering gear, fire apparatus, radio, pumps and other safety equipment. Surely the fact that large shipping companies have entrusted the operation of these safety devices in times of emergency to Exide Batteries, is proof indeed of their dependability. Guided by such facts you need never rely upon guesswork when buying a new battery.

Is there any other battery which so completely merits your confidence? There is an Exide Battery built to suit every car and priced to satisfy every motorist. Look for the Exide Dealer Sign—symbol of honest service.
