What is NOT Advertising

Advertising is a definite part of the business.
What is charged to its account should be real advertising and the expense the individual feels he must incur in order to be a "good fellow."
A writer in Printers' Ink lists free goods, announcements in general and business programs, and donations to charitable, religious and fraternal organizations as "charges" that do not belong in the advertising account although too frequently put there.

FRANCE MAY EXTEND MORE LENIENCY TOWARDS GERMANS

Plan Proposed by Which Ruhr Coal May be Exported to Germany on Payment to Allies of 40 Percent.

(Special to The Guardian)
PARIS, March 1.—None but official overtures will be acceptable in connection with an arrangement for settlement of the Ruhr and repatriation question. It was asserted in French official circles today. It was pointed out that there had been a new descent upon Paris of unofficial intermediaries offering themselves from financial and industrial quarters and various international centres each with various complaints and plans for settlement.
BERLIN, Mar. 1.—The German Evangelical church appealed to all brands throughout the world asking a protest be made against the actions of the occupational forces in the Ruhr.

Debt Funding Agreement Signed by U. S. President

Customs Revenue Greatly Increased

(Special to The Guardian)
OTTAWA, March 1.—There has been an increase of over forty million dollars in the revenue received by the Department of Customs and Excise during the eleven months of the current fiscal year as compared with the similar period last year. Of this large increase nearly three quarters was contributed by the sales tax and other excise taxes and a little more than one quarter by customs duties on spirits and tobacco rose only a few thousand dollars and showed a falling off.

Lloyd George Was Floured By Students

(Special to The Guardian)
BRIDGEBURG, Mar. 1.—Lloyd George was forced to cut short the annual rhetorical address in the Academic hall when the students hurled bags of flour at the speaker. The audience outburst was regarded as a good natured prank but the platform covered with flour.

Mad Destruction by French Troops

BOCHUM, Germany, March 1.—When the Bochum Chamber of Commerce was taken by surprise by the French shortly after midnight, with the aid of numerous tanks and the usual theatrical military sideshow, it was turned into a historical museum of French vandalism before the troops left the building at five o'clock.
Probably the gravest mistake the French have made since the beginning of the Ruhr campaign was the evacuation of the Bochum Chamber of Commerce after five hours of mad destruction. Had they continued their occupation and cleaned up the mess of debris removed the broken, empty wine bottles, torn oil paintings, broken historical chairs, tables, desks, numerous telephones lines and the heaps of broken porcelain, the huge cracked safe and piles of papers, documents and statistical files, the thousands of Bochum citizens and the working men, foreign correspondents and film operators never would have been able to sight this mad picture of willful destruction.
Fourteen truckloads of furniture, carpets, statuettes and economic documents, files, bronze and silver statuaries and busts, desk chairs, large conference tables and valuable Persian rug, various luxurious metal ornaments, a painting of Bismarck and a bust of the Kaiser, a bronze historic clock, as well as typewriters and the available stock of office supplies, all of which was private property, was taken away by the French.

Broken Bottles Everywhere

Not a single book of the huge library consisting of 4,000 volumes remains, while the book cases were smashed to pieces. Empty or broken bottles which had contained Rhine wines were scattered in each of the fifteen huge rooms, offices and conference halls. These were taken from the private cellar belonging to the director of the Chamber of Commerce whom the French wanted to arrest, but could not find.
The janitor's dwelling in the basement, especially a pantry where the poor aged wife of the porter had preserved fruits, vegetables and canned goods, which were to last her all winter, also was raided. Whatever the polts could not take along they smashed or opened and dumped the contents on the floor.
In German commercial and industrial circles there is no attempt to disguise the fact that the French will find much valuable material, especially all the names and addresses of members of industry, trade and commerce and the opinions or plans expressed or proposed by them regarding the Germans' future plans of resistance.
The whole city carried out a general strike from noon until five p. m.

LONDON COMMISSIONER TO ADVERTISE CANADA

Office of Canadian Trade Commissioner to be Headquarters for Information Regarding Canada in England and for Canadians at Home.

LONDON, March 1.—The Canadian High Commissioner's office in London has begun the distribution to the press of information about Canada's resources and export trade and it is understood the plan is to make the office the centre of effective Canadian propaganda by other means well as the time honored method of speaking at public functions and dinners.
This is an improvement that has been advocated for a long time and the hope is voiced here that it may be followed by making Canadian Trade Commissioner a mouthpiece for Canada Trade propaganda in the country in which he is posted and it is believed that as much could be done by acquainting foreign merchants with Canada's exporting possibilities as by forwarding to the Canadian manufacturers advice to which he unfortunately seldom listens.

Holstein Breeders in Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Provincial Holstein Breeders' Association was held yesterday afternoon in the Technical School, with the president Mr. W. J. Gibson in the chair. The secretary Mr. W. J. Reid read the minutes of the last annual meeting which were adopted together with reports of subsequent directors' meetings. The financial statement showed a small balance on hand.
In a brief verbal report of the year's activities the president expressed satisfaction with the progress made. There had been good pastures and the stock in competition with other breeds has more than held its own. The record made by Mr. Alex. Agnew's grand champion cow early in the year was followed by the successful competition of Mr. J. W. Jones' cow at the Provincial Exhibition and later by Mr. A. R. McKay with this grand champion at the Amherst Winter Fair. Mr. H. J. Kennedy with two and three year old heifers also did well at this Fair against strong competitors from other provinces. In the show ring also the Holsteins had done creditably and the Association had every reason to feel satisfied. Special mention was made of the R. O. M. record of Mr. Howard Calbeck's cow Pauline Rooker Posch.
The necessity of a careful selection of the sire in breeding was emphasized by Mr. Gibson. The aim should be to increase production without sacrificing type. This had been lost sight of to a considerable extent in the United States where they have spoiled the type unnecessarily in striving after production. The president referred with pleasure to an excursion made last summer to North Lake and expressed regret that the annual banquet which was to be held in the evening had to be postponed owing to the sickness prevalent in the country.

Turks Again Change Their Minds

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, March 1.—Reuters Limited, today, says there is indirect confirmation of reports that the Turks in reply to the Allied peace proposals made at Lausanne will propose an alternate draft treaty modifying the territorial and financial clauses and leaving out the economic section. The Turks it is added, apparently view the economic questions as subject to further discussion and later to a separate agreement.

West Kent School vs Summerside High Tuesday Night

West Kent School boys are staging a benefit night on Tuesday, March 6th. As this is something new in the line of sport in the city it should prove a great drawing card, there is unlimited ability in the boys of our city and the only thing needed to bring it into action is a little encouragement from the other citizens.
The boys are to be commended on this undertaking and it is to be hoped they will receive a large house and a good hand out from the fans, so they will have better heart to take on a larger program and carry it through in future undertakings.
The program will be a hockey match between the West Kent School team and the Summerside High School which should prove very interesting as both teams have strong lineups. The West Kent boys have a number of speed and stick artists that will bring a surprise on the wise ones in the shape of playing the game.
Between the periods and after the match there will be a 220 yard skating race for boys 1 years and under, a 440 yard race for boys 12 years and under, an 880 yard race for one mile senior race, a 220 yard race for girls.
One mile relay race, teams from West Kent and Summerside High School, also a 440 yard team race.
This will be followed with one hour skating with band.
In all this is a splendid program for a beginner, and as there is some regular little speed merchants on ice in the city, there will be great competition and barrels of fun for those attending.
