NEW OF THE SPORT WORLD
CANADIANS WIN MARITIME JUNIOR TITLE

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Greyhound, that Sep Palin set the world's trotting record in 1:56 for the mile with last year, will be raced again this year.

Vic Holdaway, Houlton, Maine, who will be remembered here because of his trips with Bud Wenger 2:05 1-4, has had a lovely time this winter driving behind his two fast pacers, Laurel Hanover 1:59 1-4 and Peter Dale 2:03 1-2.

Leo Oettinger had passed away. While his name is not known to the majority of horsemen yet he exercised a tremendous influence on the development of breeding in the United States through his judgment of blood lines. When Guy Axworthy was being thrown into the discard he pleaded that he be given a chance as a sire, stating he was confident that Guy would be one of the truly great sires. His judgment was certainly verified as Guy Axworthy is the world's leading sire of futurity winners, sire of four trotting world records faster than two minutes, sire of the champion trotting stallion Lee Axworthy 1:58 1-4 and many other outstanding credits to the breeding world.

At a late hour last evening there did not appear to be any hope that the weather would be cold enough to permit races to be held on the harbor ice this afternoon, but if it does, a grand program will be on with two or three match races and two classes. In all our experience covering a great many years either connected with or as an observer of harness racing over the ice we do not remember so many match races being held on the harbor ice. There is no bitter rivalry, however, and winner and loser after the event is over are on as good terms as ever.

This afternoon's features will be a match race between Rosebud and Convincer, and a trio match race with Peter Frisco up against Guy K. and Fred Anway. If weather is unfavorable the races will likely be held early next week.

Harry O'Brien well known horseman of Alberton, is paying a short visit to Charlottetown. Rumor says that he has been brought down to give some expert advice on shoeing one of the contestants in a match race. Harry can certainly handle the shoeing of winners well shows. It compares favorably with that of any other horseman with the same opportunity.

It looks as though Keith Boswell of Victoria will secure a niche in the Hall of Fame reserved for breeders of harness horses. His well known brood mare, Miss Possibility, has produced a colt, named Victoria—now five years old—lamed in 2:14 as a three-year-old; timed 2:20 1-2, winner of a heat in the three-year-old class at the Provincial Exhibition, Halifax; and, winner of two colt races over the ice recently, and a two-year-old by Bellini Scott. Miss Victoria, Joe Volo and the two-year-old are owned by Jimmie Power. Charlottetown's possibility is now in foal to Calumet Budlong 2:02 3/4.

Last week we had a couple of items about Stagehand, the sensational three-year-old thoroughbred that won the Santa Anita handicap two weeks ago. While Stagehand did the running and is without doubt a marvel, yet due credit must be given to Nick Wall, his cocky, wall colt jockey, formerly a miner working in Dominion No. 2 Colliery, Glace Bay, Cape Breton. When the disastrous strike of 1925 was on Nick decided that he would try his fortune in another country. He had driven pit ponies in the mines and horses were his hobby, so he went to Detroit where he became connected with a thoroughbred breeder in a short time was looked on as a reliable boy.

Horses given to him to exercise were ridden according to the trainer's orders and he soon got preference over others not so particular. Then his chance came to ride in races and by good headwork and careful judging of opportunities his name appeared regularly as a pilot of winners. Now he is right on the road to fame with one of the greatest, if not the greatest, three-year-olds in the world's history. By the way, Nick's fee for riding Stagehand at the Santa Anita was $10,000. Quite a difference from ten years ago when he was satisfied with ten or fifteen dollars a week for a winning colt.

Helen Worthy, the beautiful grey mare which John R. Ross of Flat River purchased last December from Ailie Webster, Marie, has made good in Flat River. She won four races, only losing one heat to Billy Cope. If ice racing conditions continue favorable Helen may be seen in action here next week.

The following horses have been named among others in the Free-For-All Trot which will be raced at Goshen mile track in August—Calumet, Evelyn 1:59 1/4, Lee Hanover 2:00, Frisco 2:01 1/4, Brogan 2:01 1/4 and Ed Lassiter 2:02 1/4.

The top two-year-old trotter in Florida last season was Earl's Yankee Joe, a member of Tom Berry's stable. He was a mile in 2:22 1/4 with the last quarter in 32 seconds. His sire is one of the largest, standing 16 1/2 hands. In America, standing 16 1/2 hands.

Poet, stands 18 hands and weighs almost 1,400 lbs. His feet are so large that ordinary running plates cannot be obtained for him, so special size 1 1/2 shoes have to be manufactured. The exercise boys must use great care not to be scraped off the bluffs when they are jogging him under the trailing stable shed. Hind Poet's dam foaled another colt which is as small as the Poet is big.

Here is another story, this time from Canada, and it concerns a 33-year-old horse which according to newspaper reports is cutting a third set of teeth and is still going strong. He is being driven twice a week by owner O. B. Webber of Calgary, Alberta, who attributes the horse's longevity to "right living."

Last month James W. Power—to his many horsemen friends known as "Jimmie"—sports editor of the Halifax Herald, completed his 57th year in the newspaper business. In his day he has covered all kinds of sport, including some international assignments, but his specialty is light harness racing, on which he is one of America's undoubtedly great authorities.

The French Government following an annual custom has purchased eight trotting stallions bred in France, paying $50,000 francs for them, a sum equivalent to about $26,000.

The formation of a harness horse circuit in Nova Scotia, comprising Truro, Halifax, Middleton and other centres, is a step in the right direction. It will mean more earning capacity for the horses being retained and will result in a greater number of horses receiving an opportunity to race. Congratulations to the boys who are behind the move, and best of wishes for success.

Abbe Guy (3) 2:04, and seven of his colts are advertised by the estate of the late E.B. Giller, Whitehall, Illinois. Abbe Guy is a full brother to Abbe Worthy 2:04 1/4, owned by Frank McKay, East Royalty.

Dr. J. M. Nicholson has consulted his scrap book and has handed in summaries of races held on the harbor ice twenty years ago. As we look over the names we recall many old friends who have gone to the Great Beyond. The officers of the Charlottetown Driving Club at that time were: Honorary President, Mayor P. S. Brown; Vice-President, F. W. Hughes, all three deceased.

Muzz Patrick Impressive In N.H.L. Debut

(By Alan Randall) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) NEW YORK, March 18.—Now that those 300 goals are in the bag Nels (Old Poison) Stewart of New York Americans is satisfied... as far as he's concerned "400 goals is too far away, somebody else has to try for that"... he's probably right because it took Old Poison five years to get the last 100... and Nels at 37, thinks he has only one more year of big time hockey left in his system.

Art Coulter, wan and limping after an operation to cure a bad chley-honey among the players who swarmed into the Ranger dressing room last night to congratulate Muzz Patrick on his National Hockey League debut... here's what Pop Lester Patrick says about Muzz's initial big-time trial in which he snaffled two assists: "Speaking as the boy's manager, I'd say we have a whole lot of player coming up"... all the Rangers agree.

If New York hockey writers follow the advice of Frank Calder, N. H. L. President, they'll draft iron-bound rules for awarding the new William J. Calder Announces Dates For N.H.L. Title Series

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, March 18.—Toronto Maple Leafs and Boston Bruins, top finishers in their National Hockey League sections, will open their series for the circuit championship March 24 at Toronto, League President Frank Calder announced today. The leaders will play the second game at Toronto March 26 and then will move to Boston for the remaining games of their three-off-round. First game on Bruins' ice will be March 29 and the second March 31, with the deciding encounter April 3 if necessary.

The timing of the series will move either to the Stanley Cup final against either Montreal Canadiens, New York Rangers or Amers or Chicago Black Hawks. The Stanley Cup dates have not been set yet.

Still In Doubt Second and third playoff positions in the Canadian section are still undetermined between Canadiens and Amers, leaving the possibility of the second-place Rangers and the third-place Hawks meeting either of the "C" teams, "B" and "C" Stanley Cup rounds.

Acadia Wins Final Curling Hoop Title Club Banquet This Evening

(By Art Andrew) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) HALIFAX, March 18.—(CP) Acadia University swept to a decisive 4-3 victory over Mount Allison tonight in a sudden-death game for the Maritime Intercollegiate Basketball Championship held at Acadia for the last three years. Brilliant combination plays which baffled the Mounties rear guard time after time were the chief factors in building up an early lead threatened only once midway through the final half when the New Brunswick squad drew up to within a point of their rivals.

Mount Allison's best stand was made in that half. Fighting desperately to overcome a 22-11 lead that Acadia established in the first half, the Mounties dropped basket after basket, some of them from sensational angles, in a whirlwind offensive display that pulled Acadia groggy. The attack had Mt. A. to within a point of victory with three minutes remaining and died after Acadia called time out.

An Acadia score immediately after play was resumed, restored the lead to Acadia's confidence and they gradually forged away. Acadia's score immediately after play was resumed, restored the lead to Acadia's confidence and they gradually forged away.

Royal Mail Favorite For Turf Classic

LONDON, March 16.—(CP Cable) —Forty of the world's best jumpers today were named final acceptors for the Grand National, most exciting of all steeplechases, to be run at Aintree, near Liverpool, Friday next week.

The field of 40 includes the 1937 winner and current favorite, Royal Mail, a Canadian horse, bred and trained in the Dominion, will try for the greatest of all jumping honors. Rock Lad, owned by H. R. Bain, a Toronto stockbroker, was among the final acceptors and will be ridden by J. Bissill, a well-known amateur jockey. Mr. Bain, however, said he has no chance of measuring up to the great qualities a Grand National victor must have.

Jack Adams Signs Rookie

(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire) DETROIT, March 18.—Building to regain the glory his vanquished Detroit Red Wings lost this season, Jack Adams signed 18 year old Kenny Kilrea to a professional contract today. Centre and left wing, Kilrea led Michigan-Ontario League scorers this season with 25 goals and 24 assists as a member of Pontiac Blue Devils.

Strickland Lays Claim To Title

LONDON, March 16.—(CP) Cable)—The British boxing board declined comment today on the application of Maurice Strickland, New Zealand heavyweight, for recognition as British Empire champion. Tommy Farr, the Welsh wearer of the Empire crown, has not defended it since he went to the United States last summer for his successful bid for Joe Louis' world title.

The B. B. B. recently turned down a request by Larry Gains, a Negro, for recognition as Empire champion. Strickland is now in Detroit, where Promoter Jack Kearns is attempting to stage a match between Gains and Joe Louis.

Crack Speed Artists Here Next Week

With organized hockey rapidly leaving the winter sports picture as ice as games here are concerned, ice fans turned their attention on the Maritime Speed Skating Championships to be held at the Forum Thursday and Friday of next week.

A feature of the meet will be exhibitions by Charles I. Gorman, undefeated world's record holder in the 440 yards with a mark of 35 2/5 seconds, set at Lake Placid in 1927. Ossie Stewart of Lake Placid, rated as the world's fastest negro skater, and A. Francis of New Glasgow, a Mic Mac both have sent entries.

A strong representation from Saint John, N. B., home of many speed skating champions, will include Johnnie Quigg, champion in every class from 12 to 18 years as he came along the skating trail, Joe Goodyear, champion in the 1000 yard class, and Leonard McGeech, eleven other entries were expected from Saint John, it was said, including Willie Logan, Maritime champion last year and Canadian champion four years ago.

Moncton, N. B., will also be strongly represented, no less than 15 entries having already been received. The male contingent includes Leo Cormier, Alec Cantley, Clarence Drisdale, Ray Cantley, Fred Bony, and Leonard McGeech. Women entries from the Hub included, Verna Carter, Jean MacLeod, Elizabeth Linden, Margaret Cormier, Phyllis Triles, Leona Bowser, Patricia Fawcett, and Seymour, Jean Triles and Shirley Hamburger.

Leona Barry will come from Sydney with a reputation of having won a race in her class for the last three years.

Ross Denies Playing Part Of Big Bully

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, March 18.—World welterweight champion Barney Ross is irked at being called a big bully who picks on little guys, like Henry Armstrong, king of the featherweights.

Ever since he agreed to let Armstrong punch at his 147-pound title late in May in New York, Ross has been convincing people he won't be taking advantage of a little fellow.

He points out that even during his long layoffs he never has blown up to his division limit, 147 pounds. Further, he doubts if Armstrong could come close to making the featherweight standard of 126 pounds without starving himself to death.

"Actually," Ross argued today after his workout, "I'm not picking on a guy two weight classes below me. I probably won't weigh over 141 pounds on the scale. He likely will build up to 136."

"Instead of a welterweight and a featherweight in there it really will be a fight between a big lightweight—me—and a good lightweight—Armstrong—and, speaking of giving away weight, I don't remember anyone sympathizing with me when I fought Billy Petrolie and Jimmy McLarnin."

Borden Hockey

On Wednesday, March 9, Borden Terraplanes defeated Bedeque 9-6 in the second game of a two-game series for the right to meet the Cape Traverse Three Stars in a series for the cup trophy.

Borden was defeated at Bedeque 7-6 in the first game, but won the round 15-13. The first period was fast and even. Jack O'Donnell, registered with the Terraplanes and R. Bradshaw for Bedeque.

In the second frame the Terraplanes dominated the play, to pile in three goals. The last period was very fast with first the Terraplanes scoring three, and then have Bedeque turn on the heat in the dying moments of the game. Jim McAlear, a standout during the game and in the home team's win, Jack Darrach, C. Love, and Pep Darrach were very effective on the forward line.

Currie and R. Murray were the most effective players for Bedeque. B. McAlear and H. Muttart handled the whistles.

The summary: First Period 1-Terraplanes, J. Darrach 5-0 2-Bedeque, R. Bradshaw 3-00 3-Terraplanes, J. Darrach 4-00 Penalties: None. Second Period 4-Terraplanes, P. Darrach 3-30 (J. Darrach, C. Love) 5-30 5-Terraplanes, A. Oatway 6-30 6-Terraplanes, P. Oatway 7-18.00 (W. Muttart) Penalties: W. Muttart, D. Baird. Third Period 7-Terraplanes, P. Darrach 2-20 (J. Darrach, C. Love) 8-Terraplanes, C. Love 3-15 (J. Darrach, P. Darrach) 9-Bedeque, Currie (Bradshaw) 4-50 10-Terraplanes, J. Darrach (C. Love, P. Darrach) 8-30 11-Bedeque, R. Murray 13-50 12-Terraplanes, C. Flashy Haligonians Down Abbies In Second Game 10-3 To Take Series Round 11-5

(By GORDON BAULD) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) HALIFAX, March 18.—(CP)—A high-powered Halifax Canadians squad brought this Garrison City its first Maritime junior hockey championship tonight by defeating Charlottetown Abbegweits, 10-3, and winning the two-game, total-goal series, 11-5.

The scoring power and sturdy defence of the Canadians swept the Nova Scotia team into the Memorial Cup playdowns and left the Abbegweits gasping for breath. The New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island champions carried a one goal lead into the game tonight as a result of their 2-1 victory over Halifax in Charlottetown last Wednesday but it faded rapidly under the Canadians' sorties.

Captain Hugh Little banged in the goal that evened the series on a lever pass play less than three minutes after the game began, and then shot his team into the lead on another unassisted effort. His wingmen, Thomas and Hannon, were outstanding in the Halifax attack, the former shooting two goals after Little's two. Nearly 5,000 saw the game.

Canadians' superiority became evident early in the first period, and after four goals by Halifax, Worth broke through for Abbegweits' only score of the period, but followed quickly by a pair from the home team.

Canadians' defence handed out stiff body-checks to the fleet but light Charlottetown forwards, who were coasting on the attack instead of skating as were the Halifax forwards. The Little-Hannon-Thomas line, flashing beautiful combination, threatened consistently with short-passing offensive that left the Abbies defence-men far out of position.

Replace St. Pats Halifax replaced Amherst St. Pats as champions of the seaside provinces. Abbegweits had ousted the team that held the title the last two years.

After pling up a long lead in the first period, Canadians eased off in the middle session and divided the two goals. Charlottetown, led by the four-goal deficit at the start of the final period, started five-man attacks. The new strategy resulted in a goal by Dowling, but break-away Henry Armstrong cost them three before the game ended.

Clever stickhandling and faster breaks carried Halifax to victory. Little banged in two goals in the first period, followed by "Trings" two. Worth put Abbegweits on a score board, but Little beat Captain Langille on his third unassisted goal and O'Connell sent the Halifax lead on the series up to four before the period ended.

Charlottetown could not get around the Halifax defence, and appeared to be accustomed to playing in a narrower rink. Halifax forwards swept around the Abbegweits rear guard continually. Charlottetown's passing plays went astray frequently.

The Prince Edward Island goal in the first period was peculiar. Worth stickhandling in the clear and was right in on top of goalie Cox when Redmond threw his stick. A goal was automatically awarded Abbies, but Worth slipped it into the net just the same. Blacquiere raised Charlottetown's hopes in the second period when he took Grant's pass to score as O'Connell was serving a penalty. But Thomas and Little scored for the former's third goal of the night.

Tempers flared in the third period, and Little and L. Jay were sent to the cooler after roughing up. Dowling scored for Abbies, but Charlottetown were forced to attack desperately. Penalties to L. Jay and Blacquiere left them with three goals to make up and a man short, and cost L. Innis and Thomas all scored before the game ended.

The line-ups: Goal, Langille; defence, L. Jay, Darrach, Grant; forwards, McEachern, Whitlock, Worth, Dowling, Flanagan, Blacquiere. E. Jay, Goal, Cox; defence, Croucher, Coolen, Evans; forwards, Little, Hannon, Thomas, Redmond, O'Connell, Smith, Innes. Referees: Ray Stull of Charlottetown; Reg Beazley of Dartmouth.

First Period 1-Halifax, Little 2-35 2-Halifax, Little 4-07 3-Halifax, Thomas (Hannon) 8-02 4-Halifax, Thomas (Little) 14-03 5-Charlottetown, Worth, 15-21 (awarded when Canadians player threw stick) 6-Halifax, Little 16-49 7-Halifax, O'Connell 18-20 Penalty: Grant. Second Period 8-Ch'own, Blacquiere (Grant) 5-55 9-Halifax, Thomas (Hannon) 9-08 Penalties: O'Connell, L. Jay, Grant. Third Period 10-Ch'own, Dowling 4-06 (E. Jay, Grant) 11-Halifax, Smith (Little) 11-14 12-Halifax, Innes 13-30 13-Halifax, Thomas 16-45 Penalties: Little, L. Jay, Blacquiere (2).
