MONDAY.

At Charlottetown, and within St James Hall there, on Tuesday, Nov 16th, 1909, at eleven o'clock a. m., the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met and was constituted by the Moderator pro tempore, Mr T. F. Fullerton, with whom were present Messrs S. D. McPhee, John Gillis, R. P. Murray, D. B. McLeod, J. W. McKenzie, Geo. E. Ross, Wm. McLeod, John Hawley, A. Craise, ministers; John A. Lawson and John J. McLeod, elders.

Reve L. Beaton, D. McLean and Mr T. C. James, being present, were invited to sit and correspond. The clerk was instructed to communicate with the clerk of the Presbytery of Miramichi and ask that a meeting of that Presbytery be convened as soon as possible, so that the call from Cardigan to Mr J. M. McLeod, New Mills, may be issued without unnecessary delay.

The Presbytery then took up the call from Avonmore, Ontario, to Mr S.D. McPhee. The clerk stated that he had cited the session and congregation of Belfast to appear for their interests at this meeting. Rev L. Beaton represented the Presbytery of Glengarry and congregation of Avonmore, and urged the translation of Mr McPhee. Commissioners from Belfast, namely, Messrs John Ross, Duncan McRae and J. S. Moore spoke of the good and faithful work done by their minister, and expressed the deep desire of the congregation to retain his services. On motion, the call was passed in the hands of Mr McPhee and accepted by him.

Few persons live and retain their faculties up to the age of ninety years. Among the few, Summerside has one. Mrs William Chappell now in her ninety-first year, is still a smart active woman, quite capable of doing almost any kind of ordinary work around a home. During the past eight months she has been housekeeper for a farmer, whose wife died last winter, living two miles out of town. She has done the house work, kept things in good shape without any assistance. On Sabbath when the horse is hitched for her she takes the rig and drives to church. Needless to say she has all her faculties as good as the ordinary person of thirty years younger. When past sixty years of age she had the misfortune of getting her leg crushed and broken by a falling timber. Two doctors were called and they decided that the only thing that they could do was to remove the leg. This she would not allow them to do, telling them that she had been born into the world with two legs and wished to pass out with two. She said "If you cannot save my life with the two legs, I will have nothing to do with you." She called a third doctor and told him to do his best to save the leg. He took charge and the result was that the leg healed and has never caused her any trouble since. She thinks nothing of walking a few miles any day. Mrs Chappell is the mother of ten children only three of whom are now living. She has worked hard from a child up to the present time. One thing may be remarked, which does not agree with the ordinary health rules, is that she, all through life, up to the present moment, she has practised tight lacing. She never had had ache in her lifetime. Mrs Chappell was born in Lot 17, where she has always resided, except when she makes a short trip to the United States to visit her children. She can tell many interesting tales that have happened in her childhood days. Mrs James Ramsay, mother of Thos E Ramsay, Summerside, who is now in her 94th year, is her aunt by marriage.

BETTER FIVE YEARS OF SUFFERING Dodd's Kidney Pills Effect Another Grand Cure in Nova Scotia

Mrs. Margaret Brady Tells How She Believed Her Rheumatism Had Made Her Stronger in Every Way.

GREEN'S BROOK, Pictou Co., N. S. Nov. 26—(Special).—That diseased kidneys are the cause of the ills from which so many women suffer and that they are cured completely and permanently by Dodd's Kidney Pills, is once more proved in the case of Mrs. Margaret Brady of this place.

"For five years," says Mrs Brady when interviewed regarding her sickness and cure, "I was ill with kidney and liver complaint, which caused Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Heart Fluttering and my blood seemed to lack vitality.

"I tried medicines and was under the doctor's care, but received no benefit till I used Dodd's Kidney Pills and Diamond Diaper Pills. They relieved me of Rheumatism and made me stronger and better in every way. These remedies had no other cure."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys, and all diseases that are caused by diseased kidneys or impure blood.

At the Police Court Saturday morning Henry Huntley was fined $30 for being drunk. James McKenna on the same charge, was fined $10. This latter sentence was suspended on a promise of good behavior in the future.

Three prohibition cases came up before Stipendiary McDonald Saturday morning and in two instances convict ones were secured. They were John Hughes (Budley), for third offence, and Edward Shephard, for first offence. The case against Kate McDonald will come up again on Thursday next.

A. W. Holroyd, Manager of Kelly's Pond Fish Hatchery, reports that 50,000 trout fry and 90,000 Salmon fry were distributed from the hatchery last year. They were placed in the Morell, Winter and other rivers and ponds about. From Charlottetown Lobster hatchery 63,000,000 fry were distributed last year. Pat.

A prohibition summons for first offence, has been served on Kate McDonald, City. A necessary witness in this case was arrested Saturday and lodged in jail to await his time to give evidence at the trial. It was learned that it was intended to leave the city this morning and on the instigation of Inspector Jenkins he was placed in safe keeping.

The Department of Agriculture sometime since sent out a circular letter to 100 farmers in various parts of the Province, enquiring into the state of the potato and turnip crops. Replies were received from Prince County. The reports indicate that the crop in Prince County is a fair one, about 230 bushels to the acre. 16 of the correspondents report that the Green Mountains have been rotting very badly. One mentioned McIntyres and the remainder are of opinion that the early varieties are rotting more than the late varieties. There seems to be about 20 per cent of the potato crop in Prince County affected with rot. The reports from Queens County show an average crop of 220 bushels per acre. Only three correspondents mention Green Mountains as rotting worse than other varieties and one mentions Whites. It would seem that about 10 per cent of the crops of Queen's County is affected with rot. 175 bushels per acre is an average, reported by King's County correspondents, of which about 12 per cent is rotting. Three correspondents mention Green Mountains and two mention McIntyres, as rotting worse than other varieties. It is worth noting that the price paid in King's County is about 2c per bushel more than is paid in Prince County, while the average price in Prince County is about 1c a bushel Queen's County. Enquiry was also made concerning the turnip crop. The average crop in Prince and King's Counties about 560 bushels per acre, while in Queen's it is 600. There seems to be a great increase in the amount of Turnips being grown. Two correspondents only report less, nine report the same amount and the remainder report from 10 to 300 bushels in the last five years.

The death occurred Saturday evening, in the City Hospital of Patrick Blake, brother of Maurice Blake, of this city. Mr Blake had for quite a while past been in poor health and his death was not unexpected, though his years were not against his chances for recovery.

He was a son of John Blake, a native of Clipperry, Ireland, and was born in this city in 1846. He received his education in the public school in this city.

The late Mr Blake was a prominent man in public life in this province having served as Assemblyman in the Legislature on several occasions. In this capacity he earned for himself an enviable reputation as a gentlemanly and able debater, exerting his abilities to the best interests of the Province. He was elected in the interests of the Liberal-Conservative party. He was also a member of the city Council at different times.

For many years he was the senior partner in the firm of Blake Bros and it was here that he became best known to the people of this province. His practical methods and his entertaining and genial personality were prime factors in his business life and all who knew him professionally or socially will retain nought but pleasant and lasting memories of the deceased gentleman.

In 1902 he sold out his interest in the business in this city to Maurice Blake, his brother and co-partner, who has since conducted the business under the old firm name. He then removed to Sydney, N. S., where he had been residing up to a few weeks before his death, conducting successfully a similar business to that in which he had been engaged in this city.

A widow, one son, Frank Blake, and two daughters, Mrs E. B. Keete, Halifax, and Mrs John Mahoney, Regina, survive. The funeral notice is announced in another column.

To the bereaved family the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Shortly after eight o'clock Saturday morning fire broke out in the second floor of the large store of J. Hughes & Co. Sours, and burned to the ground the whole structure with warehouse in the rear. The main building was occupied by J. J. Hughes & Co, as a general store, M. A. Paquet and a Mr Callaghan, tailor. The origin of the fire is unknown unless it was caused by a defective flue. The building was owned by a company of which Messrs Matthew and McLean Ltd were the principal owners, and was worth in the neighborhood of $3500.00 on which there was $2500.00 insurance.

The stock of J. J. Hughes & Co., was valued at $25,000.00 and which there were $11,000.00 insurance and about $600.00 worth of goods saved. M. A. Paquet had only $500.00 insurance and practically all his goods and household furniture were burned. Mr Paquet lived in the building over his place of business and the fire to him is a severe blow.

Before the alarm was given the fire had gained considerable headway and the residents knew the building was doomed. Fortunately the wind was high and favored the firemen in keeping the flames from spreading. Had there been a calm wind (as the weather man predicted) nothing could have saved the greater portion of the town from ashes.

Shortly after nine o'clock, Mayor Prowse of this city, received a wire for assistance and at 10.12 number 19 engine, with driver Hickey and Conductor Cox in charge, pulled out with the old "Silby" fire engine and a contingent of firemen and citizens on board, on their way to the eastern capital, to give aid. The trip was made in nearly two hours including four stops en route. When the fire brigade arrived, the glad news was learned that the fire was under control and had been confined to the building in which it started. The special was met by some of the leading citizens of Sours and escorted the firemen to the Sea View Hotel where dinner was served to all in their usual excellent manner. After dinner the "Silby" was unloaded and taken to the wharf over 300 yards and down a grade of nearly 75 feet to the rear of the burned store, where enough water was forced up to extinguish the mass of live coals and burning embers.

The engine was then loaded and made ready for home, after which the firemen partook of another splendid meal at the Sea View, being the guests of the citizens of Sours.

The city firemen are loud in their praise of the courteous reception given them by the Sours people, also to Mayor Prowse, Councillor Rogers, F. B. Heartz, H. H. Brown and R. H. Stearns, who accompanied them and made their presence most agreeable.

Highest praise should be given to the residents of Sours who put forth such a strenuous fight for their property. The Methodist church, that stood only a few feet east of the burned block, was saved through their energy even the ladies and children giving a helping hand. The residence of H. H. Acorn, was also badly scorched. From the intense heat the windows melted and the building caught several times. Before the fire was under control, the water tanks ran dry and teams were engaged to haul water in pumphons from the sea shore.

There were about thirty persons present at the meeting of the Charlottetown Branch of the Navy League, held in the City Building last evening. Dr James Warburton was called to the chair. Major Weeks briefly stated the reasons for calling the meeting. The action now being taken for naval defence seemed to call for an expression of opinion from the League. He understood that Mr Hyndman had a resolution to propose.

F. W. Hyndman said the question of naval defence was purely non political. He was dissatisfied with both the party leaders in that they had not taken a more decided step, in which 80 per cent of the people would have backed them up. Germany has the greatest army that ever stood on earth and is building Dreadnoughts as fast as she can. The possibility of British supremacy on the sea being destroyed was one that must be faced. It was not a few small craft here or there that would decide. Dreadnoughts would determine the issue of the great conflict. He moved, seconded by John Newson, the following resolution:

Resolved that the Navy League of Charlottetown, in meeting assembled views with satisfaction the proposed program of the Dominion Government as inaugurating the steel shipbuilding industry, but in view of the extraordinary increase in Germany's fleet and her lately increased opinions of many public men, Great Britain should meet respectfully urge that the Dominion Government offer to the Imperial Government a Dreadnought, or the entire cost of one, without delay.

Further Resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded immediately to Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Council at Ottawa.

John Newson in seconding the resolution said he had been opposed to the Imperial movement and thought Canada should spend her money in railways and development, but he had changed his mind. Germany was seeking the command of the sea and she gained it. Britain's position would be forever lost. L. B. Miller supported the resolution as the most sensible plan of aiding Britain, to whom we owe so much. Canada is essentially independent and yet dependant. Britain has defended us in the past. She knows how to build Dreadnoughts, and to man them. It might be that the creation of a Canadian navy would be a mistake, tending to create an aristocracy of gold and brass buttons.

Premier Hazard thought the question too large to be disposed of in a few minutes. He could not support the resolution as it stood. The Canadian people are not disposed to shirk their duty, but he thought there was no immediate emergency, and Britain had now a very powerful navy. He had no fear of a naval aristocracy—men now high in the British navy had risen from the ranks. Australia had changed its mind about giving a Dreadnought. He thought the meeting too small to speak for the people of Prince Edward Island or to dictate to the Government. J. E. B. McCready briefly supported the resolution.

Edgar McNutt pointed out how often wars were entered upon without declaration. He instanced a next at night, come at a moment's notice, like the Japanese attack on the Russian fleet at Port Arthur.

W. F. Tidmarsh believed the great majority of the people of Canada favored giving aid to the British navy. All with whom he had spoken favored this course and he had found none in favor of creating a Canadian navy. Our commerce was defended by Britain, the Canadian ship the same as the British ship. We should give a contribution.

Col Moore supported the resolution, without action. British statesmen said so and they were cool-headed men not given to panic. A Canadian navy could be of little assistance under 15 or 20 years. He thought Canada ought to offer a Dreadnought—two if necessary. Other speakers were the chairman, Percy Pope, W. L. Cotton, Col D. Stewart, Hon George E. Hughes, John McLeod and Major Weeks. Mr Hughes thought the meeting should endorse what the Government had proposed, without going further. Major Weeks thought the actual act of Canada offering a Dreadnought would be of benefit to Canada and the Empire and might have a whole-some effect on Germany.

The resolution was then adopted almost unanimously, and later was written to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

A DELICIOUS DRINK BAKER'S COCOA. Made by a scientific blending of the best tropical fruit. It is a perfect food, highly nourishing and easily digested. 52 HIGHEST AWARDS. Walter Baker & Co. Ltd. Established 1780. Branch House: 86 St. Peter St., Montreal.

—This season S. H. Jones shipped from Summerside 9284 lambs and 1000 live geese, for which he paid the farmers of this Province $40,000, and $800 in freight to the P. E. I. R. Shipments of lambs and geese made by other dealers amounted to about $20,000. This makes a total of about $60,000.

When speaking of market prices people would not complain quite so much, perhaps, if they were informed on the condition of the markets in Ontario, especially when eggs are as plentiful as mentioned. There eggs are bringing forty-five cents and fifty cents a dozen and a person acquainted with the condition of things and around the "Queen City" has stated that it would not be surprising if prices soared up to $1 a dozen. Think of it! Are you content, however, the prices become lower. For instance Montreal housewives pay thirty-four to thirty-five cents per dozen, a much more moderate price in comparison to that prevailing in Toronto.

Last evening at six o'clock, a very pleasant event took place at the home of W. B. and Mrs Bonness, Summerside, when their daughter Alma was united in marriage to Fred F. Inglis of Shediac, N. B. Rev R. G. Strathie was the officiating clergyman and Prof. Adams furnished organ, and very appropriate music. The bride and groom were unattended. There were only the immediate friends of the contracting party present. The presents made a beautiful display and were handsome and valuable. The groom's present to the bride was a fur-lined cloak with mink trimmings. Mr and Mrs Inglis left by the evening mail train for Charlottetown en route to Halifax, where they will make a short visit before going to their future home at Shediac. By this event Summerside society loses one of its most useful and popular young ladies. Their many friends wish them all happiness.
