Sad Fatality At Alberton Yesterday

PLANS OF THE NEW CHURCH COMPLETED

New West-end Roman Catholic Parish Will Have a Fine Church Building.

Yesterday a representative of The Guardian was shown the plans of the new Roman Catholic Church which will be built on Upper Queen street, by the firm of Chappell and Hunter, architects. The new church will be 136 feet long and 85 feet in breadth. The structure will be what is technically called a "basement" church, but in reality, the floor is but five feet below ground level. The squared windows and the absence of plastered walls indicate that it is intended for a temporary church and that a superstructure will be erected at some time in the future. The ceiling will be twenty-five feet above the floor.

The front entrance to the new church will be on Queen Street, but there will be also another entrance from Bayfield. The sanctuary is on the west end of the church. As there is no gallery, a place has been reserved for the choir on the left-hand side of the body of the church. The walls will be sheathed with British Columbia fir and the floor of the sanctuary will be birch-wood. A brick belfry will be above the front and a hot-water heating system will be installed. H. J. Phillips & Co. have been awarded the contract.

HUGE METEOR FALLS IN LAKE SUPERIOR

(Canadian Press)
SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., June 18.—A strange tale was brought down to the Soo today from Michipicoten Island by Frank Kusick, a prospector, who said a huge meteor about the size of a ship fell into Lake Superior close to the Island at 10 o'clock on the night of June 13. The meteor illuminated the Island with the brilliance of daylight and created a rumbling noise which was heard for two minutes after the meteor fell at Puckasaw and Pipe River, twenty and twelve miles away respectively.

BOOTLEGGERS GETTING SET

(Canadian Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—Assistant Secretary Lowman announced today that confidential reports from treasury agents indicated an unprecedented gathering of bootleggers and smugglers along the Canadian border from Vancouver to the Atlantic seaboard to smuggle liquor into the United States.

Because of this he said, the Customs border patrol across the entire country has been strengthened. Lowman also said President Hoover had not asked for any reports concerning the smuggling of prohibition enforcement situation and that he had not conferred with or made any report to the executive. Activities in administrative circles to meet the rising tide of discussion in connection with the use of firearms in the government's effort to check rum running along the Canadian borders had been viewed by some Washington observers as indicating that President Hoover himself had taken a hand in the matter.

WILL VISIT PRES. HOOVER

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, June 18.—Premier MacDonald wants to visit President Hoover, and will make every effort to go if circumstances permit. This much was made clear today by the Premier himself, on the way to a golf game near Lossiemouth. "It all depends upon the diplomatic situation, but I should think I probably will go." Some doubts have been raised by the fact that the proposed trip was not mentioned at yesterday's conference between the Premier and Ambassador Dawes. The Premier's statement has helped to allay doubts.

LAST HONORS TO VETERAN OF TWO WARS

Largely Attended Funeral Yesterday of the late John Proud.

Citizens of every denomination paid an impressive tribute yesterday afternoon to the memory of the late Mr. John Proud. The funeral cortege which left the G. W. V. A. Home on Grafton Street and proceeded up Grafton to Prince, thence by way of Kent and Weymouth Streets and St. Peter's Road to the Peoples' Cemetery, was one of the largest seen in Charlottetown for some time. At the head marched the firing party, composed of South African veterans. Then followed the Legion Band; members of the Canadian Legion; the Orange order and Black Preceptory; the officiating clergyman and undertaker; the City Police; the Fire Brigade; the casket, draped with the Union Jack, covered with floral tributes and mounted on a salvage corps wagon drawn by firemen; mourners; pall bearers, and citizens.

The pall bearers were: Angus MacEachern, H. L. Bethune, Captain Rat-

EARTHQUAKE

(Canadian Press)
WELLINGTON, N. Z., June 18.—The death list from the disastrous earthquake which first shook northern New Zealand, and continued Sunday morning to cause strong shocks, reached fifteen today. The perils of the flood, in addition to the horrors of the earthquake, was feared at the little town of Mirchison on Buller Gorge. This town was one of the worst stricken spots and presented today a scene of havoc and devastation after a night of terror from constant detonations and earth tremors.

Big C. N. R. Loan On Market Today

B., and the part he played as a civilian soldier in command of the Canadian Corps in France, was paid here on Saturday night when 250 officers and men of the Canadian overseas forces united under the auspices of the Canadian Legion British Empire Service League, at the banquet in honor of Sir Arthur, not only as a soldier but a peace time administrator and President of the Canadian Legion.

JUNIOR POSTS FILLED

The junior posts in the Ramsay MacDonald government have been listed are: (1) J. J. Lawson, who will be parliamentary secretary to the minister of Labor. Mr. Lawson was one of the thirteen Labor M.P.'s who were suspended in 1926 during an all-night sitting on the Economy Bill. (2) Arthur Ponsonby, former Labor under-secretary for foreign affairs, has been made parliamentary secretary to the minister of dominions. ### Piano Slips, Causes Death

Henry Gard, of Alberton, Loses Life As Result of Distressing Accident.

(Special to The Guardian)
SUMMERSIDE, P. E. I., June 18.—A most distressing tragedy occurred at Alberton this morning, which has shocked the whole community. Shortly after 10 o'clock Mr. Henry Gard, a prominent fox rancher, was helping to hold a piano on a sloven, which was being taken from the station. When going up a slight incline outside the station yard the piano fell over sideways and struck Mr. Gard with great force across the neck, so seriously injuring him that he only lived two and a half hours after the accident.

Studying Arts Of World Peace

Premier MacDonald and Ambassador Dawes Meet in "Genial Humane and Democratic" Spirit.

(Canadian Press)
LOSSIEMOUTH, Scotland, June 18.—Premier MacDonald, making his journey here to see me and have a talk with me about them. He saw some of the beauties of Morayshire, he heard some of its historical stories and I hope these were in part, at any rate, a recompense for his weariness of body.

"We found each other taking the same general views on world peace. The hands we clasped were not cold with official correctness, but warm with a friendship inspired by common enthusiasm for service in the cause of international goodwill and common sense. We did not meet to threaten other nations, to dominate other peoples nor indeed did we meet to form alliances and pacts. We had no intention of presenting to other nations an accomplished fact they can take or leave. A more general, humane and democratic spirit than that was in Logie House last Sunday afternoon. We met, inspired by the hope that we might be instrumental in preparing a board around which other nations might ultimately sit in co-operative fellowship, studying the arts and the ways of peace, gaining sense of security not by arms, but by absence of arms.

RECEPTION OF PRESS CLUB WAS CORDIAL

SAINT JOHN, N. B., June 18.—A discussion on the proper use of words in which it was urged that the purity of the English language be maintained, and a comprehensive paper on the writing and spelling of manuscripts delivered by Mrs. K. L. Dawson of Halifax, featured the opening session of the fifth Triennial Convention of the Canadian Women's Press Club, here this morning, with members present from many parts of Canada.

An address was given by the President, Miss May Clendenan, of London, Ontario, and reports of the Secretary, and Treasurer, Miss Laura Allan, of Toronto. There were 72 registered this morning.

Mrs. Margaret E. Lawrence, of Saint John welcomed the visitors.

Miss Clendenan said she would like to see all pledged to the British usage in words, that is, English spelling and grammar.

She spoke of national sentiment being built up through the conventions of the club and asked if contests and scholarships would further this aim.

On report of the executive it was decided that a letter of sympathy be sent Charles G. D. Roberts on the death of Bliss Carman, to contribute $50 towards a memorial for the dead poet; also to send a letter of greeting to J. E. B. McCready, of Charlottetown, Dean of Canadian editors.

RAIN NEEDED

(Canadian Press)
EDMONTON, Alta., June 18.—Despite scattered showers, central and northern Alberta is badly in need of rain. With few exceptions all parts are suffering. In some sections the grain is turning yellow with the drying winds. Gardens must be watered everywhere. Cool cloudy weather during the last few days give promise of the overdue June rains starting soon. In the majority of districts the grain is behind what it was at this time last year.

BOOTH FUNERAL SERVICES ON SUNDAY NEXT

Full Honors of Salvation Army to be Accorded Late General.

HADLEYWOOD, England, June 18.—Covered with a Salvation Army banner, the body of General William Eramwell Booth lay in his suburban house here today. His passing last night was unrecognized by any outward sign of mourning, either officially or among the rank and file of the Salvation Army, which he headed so long, until deposited recently.

Not a flag was lowered at International Headquarters in Queen Victoria Street.

"We kept our standard flying high," said a high official, "for General Booth is not dead—he has passed to glory."

But though the Army tradition does not admit loss, there was in evidence everywhere among the Salvationists a deep sense of personal loss that they felt at the 73-year-old General's death, so quietly and suddenly last night after final months of life which had been filled with the agony of ill-health, distasteful conflict and defeat.

GENERAL HIGGINS TO CONDUCE SERVICES

LONDON, June 18.—The funeral of General Eramwell Booth, who died yesterday at the age of 73 will be held June 24 with full salvation Army honors.

A great funeral service before General Booth's burial will be held in Albert Hall Sunday night. General Higgins will conduct the service.

General Booth will be buried in the family vault at Abney Park Cemetery beside his father and mother.

On Monday the body will be taken from the International Headquarters on Queen Victoria Street to the cemetery by the same route as that taken for the funeral of the Army's founder, in 1912.

The Booth family has expressly stated its desire that no flowers be sent, which is in harmony with the Army's tradition in this matter.

General Higgins cancelled visits to Finland and Sweden to conduct the funeral services of his predecessor.
