*FISHING GOOD.

Reports received from the different lobster factories in the vicinity of Georgetown indicate good prospects for the season. An encouraging feature is the large size of the lobsters caught. All the factories are in operation on the same scale as in former years.—E.

A very sad drowning accident occurred off Shipwreck Point near Naufrage on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock by which Mr. Frank McKinnon, the light house keeper at Naufrage, lost his life. Mr. McKinnon in company with Mr. W. D. Coffin, the owner of the lobster factory, were setting out some lobster traps quite near the shore when their boat swamped in the rough sea. Mr. Coffin, who could swim, was rescued in a boat which was hastily taken out from the shore but not before Mr. McKinnon had disappeared from sight. The accident is particularly sad when it is remembered the men were quite close to the shore and in only about one fathom of water. Mr. McKinnon's body could not be found at the time of the accident but later floated in to shore. Deceased who was only forty-five years old leaves to mourn a grief-stricken wife, and one son to whom the sympathy of the community goes out in their sudden bereavement.

Lieut. (Rev.) Mr. Morrison who touring the Maritime Provinces in the interests of the Y. M. C. A., preached with much acceptance in the First Methodist Church yesterday morning and in the evening in St. James Church. Lt. Morrison recently gave up a pastoral charge in Coburg, Ont., to enlist as a private in one of the units recruiting there. Shortly after enlistment he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant. Being anxious to get to the front at the earliest possible moment he asked permission to go overseas but was told that he would shortly be asked to take the regiment to England. He is a fluent and forceful speaker and his appeal on behalf of the Y. M. C. A. and his account of the work being done at the front among the camps both in England and France made a splendid impression. Next Wednesday evening Capt. Best who has served for over two years at the front with the Y. M. C. A. will address a mass meeting in the Market Hall all the prayer meetings in the city having been cancelled for the evening to enable all the congregations to hear at first hand of the work being done by the Association.

BANISH SCROFULA

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cleanses the Blood, Skin Troubles Vanish.

Scrofula eruptions on the face and body are both annoying and disfiguring. Many a complexion would be perfect if they were not present.

This disease shows itself in other ways, as blemishes in the neck, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, wasting of the muscles, a form of dyspepsia, and general debility.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine completely eradicates scrofula. It purifies and enriches the blood, removes humors, and builds up the whole system. It embodies the careful training, experience, and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure.

Scrofula is either inherited or acquired. Better be sure you are quite free from it. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla and begin taking it today.

Fulton Anderson, of St. Peter's, passes in English III and English IV, Philosophy VI and VII. Ernest Parker Duchemin (whose father, Mr. H. P. Duchemin is a native of Charlottetown), makes an excellent showing, taking first class in Philosophy, Latin, English, History and Geology.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

While the schooner, Hilda Maud was discharging a cargo of coal at Full's Wharf on Saturday, a regrettable accident occurred. As the result the commander of the vessel, Captain Malcolm, is in the Charlottetown Hospital, suffering from painful injuries and another man was also hurt. An empty trolley was being pushed along the overhead rails when in some way it fell to the deck of the schooner, a fall of probably close upon 25 feet, carrying the man who was pushing it, Mr. John Gillis, along with it in its descent. Captain Malcolm who was standing on the deck was struck by the trolley as it fell, and Mr. Gillis also received a bad shaking up. How both men escaped fatal injury seems strange.

Mr. R. C. Goff yesterday received the sad news that his brother, Rev. E. P. Goff of Claremont, Cal. passed away on Sunday morning after an operation. Neville Goff, in San Diego; W. P. in Montana, R. C. in Charlottetown and George E. on the homestead, Woodville Mills; Mrs. Charles Strangman, Montreal; Mrs. Arthur Jenks, Berkeley, Cal. and Mrs. (Dr.) J. A. McKinnon, Seattle, Wash.

The C. P. R. steamer Empress, of the St. John-Digby service, formerly running between Summerside and Point du Chene, will be taken off the route on May 21, 22 and 23, for repairs, and general overhauling. The work will be done in St. John, and there will be no other vessel placed on the Digby route while the Empress is tied up.

MOVING TO P. E. ISLAND.

The Trenton correspondent of the New Glasgow Chronicle says:—Mr. and Mrs. Amos Landry of Brook St., are moving to P. E. Island next week. The Landry family have been residents of the town for about four years, have been good citizens and good neighbors, and have made many friends. We are sorry to lose them, but we wish them success in their new home. They have two sons fighting in France.

Donation, O'Leary Red Cross $20.00, Chas. McGregor $5.00, W. C. West, York $5.00. A gentleman writes "I send you $5.00 the price of ten Dance Tickets. The first fifty of the second hundred prisoners have now been adopted and the names of 11 he adopted will be published in a few days. Many societies who adopted one prisoner are now taking a second. For further information apply to Canon Simpson, Treasurer.

Edward Carragher, Sr., a resident of Portage County, between the year 1880 and 1907, practically all of which time he lived in this city, died at 1220 Thursday morning, April 19th, at Detroit, Mich., and the body was brought to his old home in Stern's Point, on Friday night. Funeral services were held at St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock, Saturday morning. Rev. W. J. Rice officiating. The clergyman also offered prayers beside the grave in St. Stephen's cemetery. Mr. Carragher's six sons served as pallbearers. The deceased gentleman was a native of County Monaghan, Ireland, where he was born in 1839. He came to Canada when twelve years of age and located at Desable, Prince Edward Island, where some years later he married Miss Mary Ashby. The family came to Wisconsin in 1880 and located near Mehan Station, and for the next couple of years Mr. Carragher was employed in the same mill, operated by P. J. Mehan. They then moved to Stern's Point and lived on Briggs Street, for a quarter of a century. Miss Carragher died in 1905. During the past ten years the venerable gentleman made his home with a daughter, Mrs. A. D. O'Brien, the first four years at St. Paul and since then in Detroit. The first of last January he suffered an attack of pneumonia, but recovered largely from its effects and was able to go out of doors occasionally until three weeks ago. A relative which came at this time proved too severe for his weakened constitution and his death came peacefully at the time before noted. Mr. Carragher enjoyed a wide acquaintance locally and the news of his death was received with profound sorrow.

The immediate members of his family are three daughters and six sons: Mrs. Martin Doyle, of Milwaukee; Mrs. P. Cavanagh, of New Haven, P. E. I.; Mrs. A. D. O'Brien, of Detroit; Edward Carragher, of Argen, Pa.; John, of Sartill, Minn.; William, of Milwaukee; Patsy, of Marshfield; Edgar and Leo, of Chicago. A grandson, Harry Sutherland, of St. Paul, had also been a member of the household since infancy. All the above named, with the exception of Mrs. Cavanagh, attended the last sad rites. An only sister, Mrs. Michael Conway lives in Bonshaw, Prince Edward Island.

FRATERNALLY REMEMBERED.

As already mentioned in The Guardian the members of the 105th Regimental draft will soon leave Summerside. They have been well entertained and sumptuously banqueted, but none better than on Friday night, when they were the guests of the A. O. H. members and The Ladies' Auxiliary, the occasion being the presentation of gifts to two of the Society, viz. Corporal Patrick Deegan, the popular musketry instructor, and Mr. Leo Coyle, until recently employed in Summerside. Mr. Coyle has been accepted for training in the Canadian Aviation Branch and will start for Toronto on Thursday of this week. Both these young men received the parting gift of a handsome gold signet ring, on which is engraved the insignia of the A. O. H., together with their names and the dates of the presentation. Taking advantage of this occasion, the Ladies' Auxiliary invited all the soldiers and their officers to their hall and a jolly evening was spent; the young ladies, in the friendly wish to make their guests feel at home inviting the soldiers to be their partners in the opening dances. This caused much merriment, and the chaperones saw that no one had in khaki was permitted to enact the role of "Waiflow." The health of the two members was proposed in witty speeches, to which Corp. Deegan and Mr. Coyle made suitable replies, both expressing surprise, and appreciation of the kindness shown them in the handsome remembrance given to them. Lieut. White in a much applauded speech, spoke for the soldiers present, and assured their entertainers that the jolly evening would be one of the most pleasant memories the boys would carry away with them. A much enjoyed supper was served and it was after midnight when the good nights were said.
