At the B. Y. P. U. Convention held at Buffalo, N. Y., Mr. A. E. Wall, of Montreal, was elected third vice-president of the International Baptist Union. Mr. D. K. Dobie, Charlottetown, was elected a member of committee on credentials.

CRUSADERS' PICNIC.—Company "D" Loyal Crusaders of Hazel Grove school held their initial picnic at Mr. John Baginall's Hazel Grove, last Saturday, 16th. Quite a large number of the children, with parents and visitors were present. They enjoyed themselves in the truest sense of the word and only too soon did evening dawn upon them. Before dispersing for home the children gathered together and a short program was gone through. The interest the parents manifested surely goes to show their desire to have their children trained along the lines of temperance.

BUSY AS BEES ..AT.. MY STORE.

"MY STORE" was like a bee hive yesterday, thronged with busy buyers all day long. Customers don't need to ask why we are so busy, all they have to do is to ask the prices we are selling the goods at, that answers the question.

THESE DAYS ARE ALL TOO SHORT

We've so much to do, so much opportunity to make this best store better, so many ways of making this necessary store more necessary to you, Days too short for you too, gathering for the season's wants at prices so small that you double the pleasures of spending. The early comers find earlier shoppers before them. The Town Clock strikes six and the store day is over too soon. There's never been such a volume of goods handled at this time of year in this store before. WHY?
