WHEN RUN DOWN

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Reliable Tonic Medicine, Build Up.

The reason why you feel so tired all the time at this season is that your blood is impure and impoverished. It lacks vitality. It is not the rich red blood that gives life to the whole body, perfects digestion and enables all the organs to perform their functions as they should.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla from any druggist. It will make you feel better, look better, eat and sleep better. It is the old reliable tried and true all-the-year-round blood purifier. It revitalizes the blood and is especially useful in building up the debilitated and run-down.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is helping thousands at this time of year. Let it help you. Get a bottle today and begin taking it at once. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla. Nothing else acts like it.

In Europe where he is doing excellent work with the Canadian forces, Mr. McAllister the General Secretary for the Maritime Provinces has spent a few days here and is well pleased with the work being done. Capt. Best who left Canada with the first contingent is on his way to Canada and it is expected that he will visit Charlottetown and deliver an address on Y. M. C. A. work in France. It is regretted that Mr. Clark, the late acting secretary, is unable to take up active work at present owing to his serious illness but it is hoped he will continue to improve as he is doing nicely.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Lawrence Roman Catholic Church, Brookfield, Mass., on Thursday February 15th, 1917, when Miss May T. Kenny and Mr. Herbert J. Sinnott were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony, which was witnessed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, was performed by Rev. Thomas F. McManus, P. P. Excellent music, appropriate to the occasion, was rendered by the organist of St. Lawrence Church. The bride was ably supported in a suit of blue broad cloth with a blue and white hat to match, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome suit of seal furs. The maid of honor for the occasion was Miss Nellie Kenny, cousin to the bride, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Joseph McCarthy. After the ceremony a break fast was tendered the wedding party at Hotel Royal, which was served by a bevy of young ladies, immediate friends of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott spent their honeymoon visiting New York and other American cities, and on their return made their home at Dorchester, Mass., where Mr. Sinnott holds a lucrative position.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott were the recipients of many and costly presents which is tangible evidence of the high esteem in which they are held in the land of their adoption. Mr. Sinnott is a son of Mr. William Sinnott, Morell, Miss Kenny (Mrs. Sinnott) is a daughter of Mr. William Kenny, also of Morell, P. E. I. The Guardian joins with Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott's host of friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

training in England, Germany, January 17, 1917. Dear Madam.—Just a note to let you know that I received your most welcome parcel a few days ago, and was very pleased to get it. It certainly was a great surprise to me, as I was not expecting any parcels from Canada, and can only send you my most heartfelt thanks for same at present, I suppose you would like to hear how I am getting along, as for my wounds they are coming along fine, they are about healed up, but I still have to go about with crutches and will for a long time to come by what the doctor here tells me, but I hope he is not right. Again thanking you for your much appreciated parcel.
