BIG TRAIN WRECK AT LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, July 14.—To meddlesome youths, who played with the train whistle, is attributed the loss of twelve lives and the injury of some 200 persons near here last night, when two Pacific electric trains collided, telescoping two cars and wrecking another at Vineyard station, near the city limits. Many of the injured will die. Three trains loaded with excursionists to the beach at Venice, 15 miles from Los Angeles, had stopped at a curve, where a switch is turned. The last train began moving forward, while the two foremost trains remained at a standstill. Carroll Bortholomae, conductor of the last car of the center train, jumped to the track with his light to flag the approaching train. Some youths, passengers say, pulled the whistle in jest. This was interpreted by the motorman on the on-coming train as the signal to go ahead.

FRENCH TROOPS REVIEWED BY PRESIDENT.

PARIS, July 14.—The presence of detachments of native regiments from the French Colonies in Africa, Tonkin, Annam and Madagascar, lent unwonted interest in the annual review at Longchamp of the garrison of Paris by the President of the Republic, on the occasion of the anniversary of the taking of the Bastille in 1789.

President Raymond Poincare was greeted on his arrival on the immense race track by one of the largest crowds which have ever attended the military spectacle. After the presentation to the President of the colors on the forty regiments on parade and the inspection of their escorts, all the troops marched past. The native detachments were given the place of honor at the head of the column, and received a tremendous ovation.

TWO DROWNED. NEAR WINDSOR.

WINDSOR, July 14.—Calling out to his little brothers on the bank to give his gold watch to another brother, George States was drowned yesterday in a gallant attempt to rescue his friend, Roy Upsham, after both had fallen out of a skiff at Mt. Denison, near Half Way River Bridge. The accident which caused the death of these two young men, was a result of their rollicking in the skiff, which was lying in thirty feet of water. The skiff capsized and States made for the shore, but in response to the cries of his friend who cried out, "For God's sake save me, George," he turned back, but only to meet his death, and as he disappeared his last words were to his little brothers to give his gold watch to another brother.

WOMAN WAS TWELVE DAYS WITHOUT FOOD.

LONDON, July 14.—Mary Conner, a patient of the London Hospital for the insane, who while visiting at the home of her father on Mary Street, London, on Dominion Day, escaped, was found on Saturday night under the Communion table of St. Mark's Anglican Church, London, having gone twelve days without food. Miss Conner was in an exhausted condition, but is now at the hospital at London Asylum, and is reported to be physically improved. During the first couple of days she lived on communion wine and when this ran out secured a quantity of water that had been left in the Church by a party of picnicers.

Digby, N. S. Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Gentlemen,—Last August my horse was badly cut in seven places by a barbed wire fence. Three of the cuts, (small ones) healed soon, but the others became foul and rotten, and though I tried many kinds of medicine they had no beneficial result. At last a doctor advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT and in four weeks' time every sore was healed and the hair has grown over each one in fine condition. The Liniment is certainly wonderful in its working.

THE CRITIC.

(Kentville, N. S., Chronicle.)

My father says the paper that he reads ain't put up right. He finds a lot of fault, he does, per- usin' it at night. He says there ain't a single thing in it worth while to read. And that it doesn't print the kind of stuff the people need. He tosses it aside and says it's strictly "on the bum". But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

He reads about the weddin's and he snorts like a pig out. He reads the social doin's with a most derisive shout. He says they make the papers for the wimmen folks alone. He'll read about the parties and he'll fume and fret and groan. He says of information it don't contain a crumb. But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

He's always first to grab it, and he reads it plumb clear through. He doesn't miss an item or a want ad.—that is true. He says: "They don't know what we want, them durn newspaper guys; I'm going to take a day sometime and go and put 'em wise. Sometimes it seems as though they must be deaf and blind and dumb." But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.
