I KNOW A WOMAN'S SUFFERINGS

I am a woman.

What I have suffered is a far better guide than any MAN'S experience gained secondhand.

I know your need for sympathy and health.

And the treatment that gave me health and strength, new interest in life, I want to pass on to you, that you, too, may enjoy the priceless boon of health.

Are you unhappy, unfit for your duties? Write and tell me how you feel and I will send you ten days' FREE trial of a home treatment to meet your individual needs, together with references to women in Canada who have passed through your troubles and regained health; or you can secure this FREE treatment for your daughter, sister or mother.

If you suffer from pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging down sensations, falling or displacement of internal organs, bladder irritation with frequent urination, obstinate constipation or piles, pain in the sides regularly or irregularly, bloating, dyspepsia, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something evil about to happen, creeping feeling up the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion, with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast or a general feeling that life is not worth living, I invite you to send to-day for my complete ten days' treatment entirely free and postpaid, to prove to yourself that these ailments can be easily and surely overcome at your own home, without the expense of hospital treatment, or the danger of an operation. Women everywhere are escaping the surgeon's knife by knowing of my simple method of home treatment, and when you have been benefited, my sister, I shall only ask you to pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for all,—young or old.

MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box 981

Read My FREE Offer.

To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually dispels green-sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches and lassitude in young women, and restores them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember it costs you nothing to give my method of home treatment a complete ten days trial, and if you wish to continue, it costs only a few cents a week to do so, and it does not interfere with one's daily work. In health worth asking for? Write for the free treatment suited to your needs, and I will send it in plain wrapper by return mail. Cut out this offer, mark the places that tell your feelings, and return to me. Write and ask for the free treatment to-day, as you may not see this offer again. Address:

—IT PAYS to buy in this province.

—GAME TONIGHT.—On account of the weather conditions the hockey match between Moncton and the Chrystals scheduled for Monday night was cancelled till Wednesday.

—DIED IN U. S.— Friends of Mrs. Benjamin Weatherbie of Lynn Mass., will be sorry to hear of her death which took place at her son's home in Schenectady, N. Y. after a brief illness. Her husband predeceased her about one year ago. They formerly lived in Summerside

—SUDDEN DEATH.—The many friends and relatives of Thos. Swan of Brooklyn, N. Y., whose wife was formerly Miss Nellie Craig of Poplar Grove, Prince County, will regret to learn of his death which occurred suddenly at his brother's house in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Tuesday, February 1st. Deceased was a native of Glasgow, Scotland, and came to America nearly thirty five years ago.

—ENJOYABLE WHIST.— The last but two of the whist parties given in the Strand Theatre Kensington, was held on January 2..th and was one of the most successful yet. The arrangements were nicely planned and effectively carried out. The playing was prompt and sharp and indicated attentive presence of the players. The ladies' first prie was won by Miss Janie Lynds and the gentlemen's by Mr. Wm. Higgins. The event on February 2nd was eually enjoyable. The ladies' prize was won by Miss Monica McLellan and the gentlemen's equally merited by Messrs Jas. E. McDonald, Bedeque and Wilbert Lawless. On toss, Mr. McDonald proved the lucky winner After play was suspended the guests chased the flying hours with giddy feet to the strains of music sweetly measured by Mr. Bernard Ready, violin and Miss Monica McLellan, piano. The last of the series will be held on Monday night when a prize of $5.00 in gold will be awarded to the lady and gentleman making the greatest number of points in aggregate. Mr. Ralph Balderson, proprietor of the Kensington Cafe catered to the guests in most delectable form.—Y.

Ouch! My Back! Rub Lumbago Pain Away

RUB BACKACHE AWAY WITH SMALL TRIAL BOTTLE OF OLD "ST. JACOBS OIL"

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

For sale in Charlottetown by H. W. Toombs & Co., The Two Macs and Reddin Bros.

—BORN —To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gallant, Milk Street, Summerside, on Friday, a son.

—TRAIN DELAYED.—The morning train arrived three hours late from Tignish yesterday due to the heavy snow storm Sunday. Only one train was dispatched from Summerside for the west, the 11.45 train being cancelled.

—A TRAGIC DEATH.—The sad news was received on Sunday by Miss Agnes Ramsay of Summerside of the accidental death of her brother, Arthur Louis Ramsay who lost his life when his home at Francois Lake, B. C., was consumed by fire. The news seemed all the sadder as it followed a bright cheery letter received a few days perviously.

::AN OIL FOR ALL MEN.—The Sailor, the soldier, the fisherman, the lumberman, the out-door laborer and all who are exposed to injury and the elements will find in Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil a true and faithful friend. To ease pain relieve colds, dress wounds, subdue lumbago and overcome rheumatism, it is excellent. Therefore it should have a place in all home medicines and those taken on a journey.

The sermon from the clergy was preached by Rev. P. P. Arsenault. The attendance at the funeral was very large.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN CURRAN

At Shediac, N. B., January 29, 1921, Mary A. Mullally, beloved wife of John Curran lately of Friston Road, P. E. Island. Deceased was in good health seven months ago when she was stricken with the Flu from which she never fully recovered. Her friends anxious for many years of life for one who to them seemed nearest and dearest on earth thought that she was improving from time to time. But it was not so. She was gradually getting weaker and the end came as above.

Deeply religious and of a kind heart, she won the love and esteem of many friends. She bore her last days on earth with resignation wished to be no trouble to anyone but solicitous for the welfare of others. Her pastor in her always found a true friend in Church work never criticising but always ready to lend a helping hand.

Besides her disconsolate husband she leaves to mourn their loss three sisters, Mrs. James Landrigan, Shediac, N. B.; Mrs. John A. McIntyre, Somerville, Mass., and Miss Laura Mullally of Boston and one brother, Ernest of Somerville, Mass.

Her remains were laid to rest in St. Eugene's Cemetery, Cove Head.

DEATH OF DR. A. H BEERS

In the death of A. H. Beers, B. A. M. D., Ph. D., which took place in Cherry Valley at 5 p. m. Friday, the community has lost its greatest benefactor and its most illustrious figure. Dr. Beers was born in Cherry Valley 78 years ago and took his degrees of B. A., at Dalhousie at an early age. In 1878 he graduated in medicine from New York University. His practice began at Alberton, P. E. I., where he married Miss Wallace and for the past 37 years at Cherry Valley. He was an able and prolific writer on many subjects and in 1889 received his Ph. D., from Edinburgh University for a thesis written on Transcendentin alism. He was the possessor of a brilliant mind and a kind heart and his services to the poor were always gratuitious. Dr. Beers was the son of Captain Thomas Beers, J. P., and a grandson of Major Joseph Beers, M. P., an officer of the American Revolution. The Dr. was born and died in the beautiful old Beers residence, built by his grandfather in 1784, a home which enjoyed the distinction of entertaining all the old Colonial Governors from Fanning to Robinson, and was buried in the cemetery of Christ Church, Cherry Valley on Sunday last which was built and given to the community by his father. Dr. Beers was loved most by those who knew him best and leaves to mourn a wife, a daughter, Miss Madeline and two sons, Mr. George W. H. Beers, now on his wedding tour, Mr. Roy Beers of Cherry Valley and his brother Mr. John Beers. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in Cherry Valley. The service was conducted by the Rev. S. Jeffries, B. A. The pall bearers were Messrs J. C. Irving, M. P. John Tweedy, Frank Mutch, J. Richards, T. Jenkins and Frank M. Innis.

PETERBORO, Feb. 8.—I do not count this a tribute to me but as a desire of the people for responsible Government, said Mr. Gordon, liberal candidate, when the result of the vote was known. We succeeded in West Peterboro in driving the last spike in the coffin of the McGhen Government.
