SUNDAY AND POLITICS

Sir.—The Temperance Alliance in Saturday's Patriot had no less than six Sunday political meetings advertised—meetings to be held on Sundays in the interests of the Liberal candidates in the forthcoming election.

This may be some peoples' idea of the proper way to advance the cause of morality in Prince Edward Island but in this God-fearing community I think it will tend rather to discredit the so-called "uplifters" who are thrusting the bitterness of party politics so prominently into the observance of the Lord's Day.

I am, Sir, etc., ANOTHER CHURCH GOER A QUESTION

Sir.—The interest maintained in our Anti-Tuberculosis Society and the care of the sick and poor of Charlottetown is lively in this city and throughout this province. It appears, too, that there has been in the past winter a considerable amount of poverty and family suffering as a result of drunkenness.

I am, Sir, etc., A WELL-WISHER

Sir.—Here is a paragraph which I read in one of the London papers a day or two ago. I think it is worthy of special consideration here, in view of the extravagance of which we have evidence in the purchase of a house at Washington for "our Minister" for $500,000.00.

"The truth is that that taxation levied has, sooner or later, to be borne by the industries of the country, and the heavier it is the more businesses there will be which cannot afford to pay it and which will have to close down. Thus as taxation rises employment decreases, as may be clearly seen by comparing British conditions with those in the United States. In America expenditure in the last three years has been enormously reduced and taxation has been remitted; here (in Great Britain) expenditure has risen almost £40,000,000 in the same period, and we are wondering why British trade is distressed."

Though there has lately been a great deal of "talk" about reduction of taxation in Canada we all know that for the ordinary citizen the reduction cannot be felt, while we all know, too, that such extravagance as that lately indulged in by our Federal Government, such wild enterprises as that of the Hudson Bay route, must prevent the reduction of taxation in Canada—must indeed, result in increased taxation and the maintenance of our enormous war and railway debt.

I am, Sir, etc., A CANADIAN

"I AM SURPRISED"

Sir.—We all know that the object of the Liberal-Conservative party is the betterment of conditions in Prince Edward Island. The policy of the leader may possibly, be a mistaken one. But no reasonable man can imagine that either he or his supporters desire that the liquor evil or any other evil shall prevail in this fair province.

Yet I read in the P riot of last week such opprobrious phrases as "Premier Stewart raises the rum standard" and "he heeler will be there applauding", "won't it be a great day for the rummies," "every old soak will be there," rum, rum, rum, the Premier will shout—"at the meeting of Tuesday evening. Now, we all know that Premier Stewart is not a "rummie". Indeed men and women of all parties and classes, regard him as a gentleman entitled to the treatment which gentlemen give to one another. We all know, too, that he has come out squarely in favor of the passage of a measure which he says he believes will make for greater temperance for the enforcement of law, and for improved conditions throughout the country.

What then, are we to think of the party organ and the party which assail him in such words as I have here quoted? I don't know what the Liberals think, but I think that the party which uses such epithets has no case, in reason, —and know it!

I am greatly surprised that Mr. Nash has allowed such disgraceful language to be published in the paper of which he is the chief editor. But if there is really nothing to be said on behalf of the cause which the Liberal party has espoused, and he knows it, he will have to be excused.

SPRING

Low and sweet, low and sweet, Wind of the southern zone, Spreading trophies at my feet, Wind of the southern zone Bringing back the running brook, Gladdening the sunny bowler, Animating the silent nook, With bird and beast and flower.

Run and skip, run and skip, Little lambskins one and all; Let your plaintive beatings slip, Answer back your mother's call; Singers, sing your blithest lays, Frogs, pipe up your welcome notes; "Now is Spring," Dame Nature says, So, children, sail your tiny boats.

Dip and dive, dip and dive, Frogs of every hue and kind, Lay your eggs, and be alive, Leave old man Winter far behind, Now all unite in jubilee, Proclaim the universal mirth, For never was a Spring so free To bestow her bounty on the earth.
